Local and Other Items

Mrs. T. Hall of Dundalk has been the guest of Mrs. McNea this week. Mr. Geo. Richardson of Euphrasia made 40 gallons of beautiful maple syrup in four and a half days recently.

Mr. Arch. Boyd has returned to the village and will be happy to serve all his old customers in the weaving business.

We had a friendly call last week from Mr. Samuel Wright of Simcoe county, formerly of Euphrasia, who has been visiting friends in this district.

R. J. McCoy has moved to our village this week and will open next week a branch of Baines' Pump Works of Owen Sound.

Mr. Forest butchers have raised the price of beefsteak from 10 to 12 cents.

The new parliament buildings at Toronto are to be commenced shortly. They are to cost about $750,000 and to be completed in three years.

Mr. Isaac Stinson, builder and contractor, has taken up his residence in Markdale and is prepared to attend to the wants of the public in that line.

Heartwell and Heartwell have opened in the butcher business in Rutledge's old stand.

Markdale's Horsemen

Last week's issue of the Canadian Sportsman, a live-stock journal published in Toronto, contains a racy write-up by "Advance Guard" on Markdale's Horsemen which we publish below:

"I spent Sunday in Markdale with my old friend, John Witter, who is still hale and hearty, and although nearly 70 years of age, can handle the ribbons behind a trotter with the best of them.

"Frank Maher of the Revere House is driving Minnie S., 2.22 1/4, by Little Hamilton, and it takes a good one to beat her down the road.

"J. E. Marsh, the well-known horseman of Markdale, who brought out Hal Forest, 2.14 1/2, is driving a 4-year-old filly by Ante, he by Antero, 2.16 1/4, dam by Robt. McGregor, that has a license to go some.

"Geo. Dundas is about the most enthusiastic horseman in town. He owns Ren Wilkes, Rensselaer, 1.49-35, he by King Wilkes, 1867, 2.22 1/4. (Continued on page seven)

In Memoriam

MARSHALL—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Samuel Marshall, who passed away April 14th, 1935.

Not a murmur, not a sigh
Passed his lips as death drew nigh;
As he lived, so he died,
Peaceful, ready aid satisfied;
No regret of any kind,
Except for those he left behind.
Sadly missed by Wife and Family

In Memoriam

McKENNITT—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, John McKennitt, who passed away on April 19th, 1932.

Four years have passed away;
Each year brings back fond memories
Of a dear one from our home,
As the years come and go.
Kindly remembered by Wife and Family.

S.-W. Sales Manager Appointed

The appointment of Charles W. Baker, well-known Montreal sales executive, as General Sales Manager of the Sherwin-Williams Company of Canada Limited was announced recently by D. A. Whitaker, Vice-President and Managing Director of the company.

Mr. Baker's promotion has been rapid. He entered the company in 1917 as a junior in the Sales Department, advancing through various positions to the post of chief clerk. In 1929 he was appointed Advertising Manager, and in 1931 was again promoted to Trade Sales Manager for the Eastern Division. Mr. Baker became assistant to the Vice-President and Managing Director, in 1932.

Mr. Baker will have charge of all sales activities and development plans, and is responsible for the advertising which will appear in The Standard from time to time.
