CREAM

With the cream season again at hand we are once more soliciting your valued patronage. It is now 10 years since we established in business in Markdale and 4 years in Dundalk, and we are proud to say that we have enjoyed a continuous increase in business each year above the year previous. Particularly this past year which showed an enormous increase over years past.

The above fact speaks for itself.

This coming season we are asking for your full patronage, because: Full patronage means lower cost of collection and lower cost of manufacturing, and in return we will make a strong effort to pay you the highest possible price for your product, plus best of service.

If you are unable to bring your cream in yourself get in touch with us and we will have our truck call and pick it up. For your convenience the Creamery will also be open Saturday nights for business.
