WILLIAMSFORD

During the service conducted at St. James' Lutheran Church of Williamsford on Good Friday evening a Lectern was dedicated to the Glory of God and in loving memory of the late Rev. John E. Miller. The late Mr. Miller was a son of St. James' congregation. The Lectern, which was made by John Harrison and Sons of Owen Sound, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller and family as a memorial to their departed son and brother. The gift is very appropriate and also adds to the beauty of the Chancel. The Dedicatory Service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Datars.

Mr. and Mrs. Keffer of Ohio, Mrs. Brewster and her mother, Mrs. Warner, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McClure. Mrs. Warner remained for a longer visit.

A change has been made in the Municipal Act at the recent session of the Ontario Legislature by which the maximum number of voters in any polling sub-division may now be 450 instead of 200. The idea in the reduction of polling places is to reduce the cost of an election.

Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, who live about two miles north of the village, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Easter Sunday, April 12th. The day was spent quietly with only the immediate members of the family present. Monday night the family gave a party in their honor when about 100 guests were present. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white and the living room was centred with a large white bell. During the evening the bride and groom of a quarter of a century were asked to take the chairs of honor and the following address was read by their daughter, Dorothy:

Dear Dad and Mother,—We, your children, friends and neighbors, have gathered here on this occasion to celebrate your silver wedding anniversary in which we wish to offer our heartiest congratulations. You have walked the path of life together for twenty-five years and have seen many changes in the life of the community. Your life has been one of hard work and toil but you have weathered the sea of life in health and strength. You, as parents, will always be remembered as being kind and affectionate, teaching us to meet life's difficulties. As children we may have seemed ungrateful to you, but as grown-ups we want to show our love and appreciation to you. As children we are truly grateful for the many acts of kindness and as a token of our love and appreciation we join in asking you to please accept this cabinet of silver and gifts from kind friends and neighbors, not for their value but to show our love for you in some other way than mere words. Trusting that you may be spared many more years and may they be filled with comfort and ease as you travel on towards the sunset of life.

Signed on behalf of your daughters: Mrs. M. Matthews, Renie McNally, Dorothy McNally.

The silverware was presented by their daughter, Mrs. Matthews, while the basket of miscellaneous gifts was presented by their daughter, Renie.

Mr. McNally expressed the thanks and appreciation of Mrs. McNally and himself. "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung and lunch was served, each guest being treated to a piece of the beautiful three-story wedding cake. Dancing was then resumed and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all those present. Those present from a distance included Mrs. Charles Fawcett and son, Delbert, of Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyons, Laurie and Ego and Mr. W. McEachnie of Holstein and Mr. B. Glossop of Listowel.

Mrs. Joseph McGrade of Osprey Dead

Following a lengthy illness, borne with Christian patience and resignation, there passed away, at her home, Eighth Line, Osprey, on Easter Sunday April 12, Mrs. Joseph McGrade, aged seventy-eight years.

Mrs. McGrade, formerly Miss Margaret Madden was born and brought up on the farm on which she died, and was the youngest daughter, and last surviving member of the family of the late James Madden and Mary McGuire, pioneer settlers of Osprey.

In October 1908, she was married to her now sorrowing and bereaved husband, who survives to mourn the loss of a truly devoted wife.

Blest with a kind and genial disposition, the late Mrs. McGrade was a true friend and an obliging neighbor, and will be greatly missed in that community, where she spent her entire life.

The funeral took place from her late home, Tuesday morning, to the Roman Catholic Church, Stayner, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father McDonagh, who also officiated at the grave.

Interment was made in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Thomas Bemrose, Peter Somers, Wm. Heitman, James Murphy, Wm. O'Brien and James Haley.

To her bereaved husband and friends we extend sincere sympathy.

CREAM

With the cream season again at hand we are once more soliciting your valued patronage. It is now 10 years since we established in business in Markdale and 4 years in Dundalk, and we are proud to say that we have enjoyed a continuous increase in business each year above the year previous. Particularly this past year which showed an enormous increase over years past.

The above fact speaks for itself.

This coming season we are asking for your full patronage, because: Full patronage means lower cost of collection and lower cost of manufacturing, and in return we will make a strong effort to pay you the highest possible price for your product, plus best of service.

If you are unable to bring your cream in yourself get in touch with us and we will have our truck call and pick it up. For your convenience the Creamery will also be open Saturday nights for business.
