

CHERRY GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Pendleton were in Toronto on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mrs. Harry Cherry and family spent a few days last week with Mrs. Cherry's parents at Barrhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Wodehouse and Mr. Lewis of the West visited on Sunday with Mrs. Hodgson and family.

We understand Mr. Russell Hill has traded cars and is now driving a Chev. coach.

Miss Vera Smart spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boyes of Rosedale.

A real time was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Vic. Ward last Wednesday evening at a shower for them sponsored by Clara Boales and Arnold Bowler. Lots of good music and callers and a jolly crowd made it a very pleasant evening indeed. They received a lot of lovely gifts. Vic. hasn't been living in our neighborhood many years but has made a host of friends. We wish him and his life-mate all the good things this old universe can afford for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradey, accompanied by Miss Mildred Lee of town, spent the week-end in Hamilton and Toronto.

Miss Elsie Michael is back on the job again wielding the birch at Cherry Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Ward of town visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vic. Ward here.

Mr. Cecil Smart of Harkaway visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyce and family visited on Sunday with Mrs. Boyce's parents on the East Backline. Mrs. Boyce remained to wait on her mother, who, we are sorry to report, is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyville spent a day this week at Mr. Archie Kirkpatrick's.

Mr. Elmer Eagles is working over near Redwing at present.

KIMBERLEY

Mrs. A. Andrews of Toronto visited her sister, Mrs. Chas. Graham, and other friends here recently.

Misses Tena Hutchinson, Bessie Stafford and Iola Graham spent the Easter holidays at the parental homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Doris and son of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Soule recently. Mrs. Soule returned to the city with them and remained for a week.

The W. A. of the United Church held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Graham, with a good attendance.

Mr. Stuart Ellis of the School of Pharmacy, Toronto, spent Easter week with his father, Mr. W. T. Ellis. He was accompanied by his friend, Mr. Lloyd Pottage, of Stayner.

Mr. Henry Ellis of Powassan was a guest of the Ellis and Lawrence families last week.

Mrs. B. A. Carruthers spent a few days at Duncan recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Myles have returned from their honeymoon and are getting settled in their new home. Before her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given by her girl friends at the home of Miss Ilda McClelland, 597A Bloor St. W., and also a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Ina Smith, 22 Geoffrey St., Toronto. The friends of the newly weds entertained them at the Community Hall, Kimberley, on Monday, April 13th, and presented them with a breakfast room suite in ivory and black, and on Friday, April 17th, the friends of the groom at Heathcote entertained them in the Community Hall, Heathcote, when they were the recipients of three chairs, end table, fern basket and smoker's stand. Both evenings were pleasantly spent in dancing and at Heathcote a program of music and readings was given preceding the lunch and presentation. At Kimberley Miss Winnis Graham read the address while several of the boys, friends of the groom, presented the gifts and at Heathcote Miss Jean Breadner read the address and again several young men gave the pieces of furniture. Ted replied to the addresses in a few well chosen words.

WODEHOUSE

Spring still lingers in the lap of winter.

The school re-opened on Monday after the Easter vacation.

Mr. Russell Fawcett of Duncan was a caller at his parental home here during the week.

Mrs. Ed. Wilcox visited the past week with friends in Kimberley.

Mr. Edgar Fawcett treated his friends to a party on Friday evening.

Misses Verna and Ina Wiley spent the week-end at their home here.

Mr. Gladwyn Wiley, who is employed near Rocklyn, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Wiley jr., over the week-end.

Master Lorne Fawcett spent the holiday week with his sister, Mrs. Gordon Wyville, at Vandeleur.

Miss Beatrice Julian of Collingwood township visited her aunt, Mrs. J. Wiley.

Mr. Harold Hutchinson, townline A. and E., was buzzing wood two days the past week for his brother, Newton.

Misses Mazie and Mildred Bussey of Markdale visited a day or two this past week with their Grandmother Cherry.

Mr. Alex. Gilray of Epping paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. Nelson Wilcox. Alex. is looking fine after his sickness and operation in Markdale hospital the past winter.

Mr. Will Lawson has commenced operations in the saw mill.

The syrup makers report a great run of sap the last few days.

Those with radios and daily papers have been watching anxiously the fate of the miners in Nova Scotia.

Misses Dorothy, Fern, Marion and Elva Wiley spent a day or two with their aunt, Mrs. Clara Wiley, in town during the holidays.

The measles epidemic is cleared up, and the patients are out again. Some of them look the worse of it and others are looking better than ever.

EBENEZER

Mr. and Mrs. Will Burrell and sons of Rocklyn were recent visitors with the Genoa family.

Miss Ruth Hutchinson spent a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wright of Barrhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brodie attended the Davis-Norton nuptials on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freeman, Roy and Alice were recent visitors with Mr. E. Smith of Pleasant Valley. Alice remained for a few days.

Mrs. H. Knight had a successful sale on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mr. Will Summers of Markdale was a visitor with Mr. Hugh Wyville recently.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Will Morrison, Miss Reta Douglas, Mrs. R. Freeman, Mrs. N. Genoa and Mrs. H. Hutchinson called on Mrs. H. Knight and family and presented them, on behalf of the community, with a purse of money. Mrs. Knight is leaving this Tuesday to reside at Woodford. Her father, Mr. H. Woods, who had been assisting during the sale returned home on Friday.

Messrs. Roy and Russell Freeman and Master Keith Freeman spent a day last week in Toronto.

A number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Douglas joined with them on Saturday evening to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. During the evening, which was pleasantly spent with games and social chat, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas were presented with a number of gifts. Around midnight a dainty lunch was served.

At a meeting after the service on Sunday the Sunday School was re-organized for the coming season beginning the first Sunday in May. Last year's officers were re-elected and the names of Mrs. Clarence Hutchinson and Mrs. Jack Taylor were added to the list of teachers.
