IN DAYS OF YORE

50 YEARS AGO—May 13th, 1886

Local and Other Items

Mr. Jas. Mercer leaves this week for B. C.

Mrs. A. McFarland is visiting at her home at Ringwood, Ont.

Mr. R. J. McCoy removed this week to Owen Sound, having accepted a situation with Mr. Baines, the pump manufacturer there.

Ed. S. Rutledge of Fort William spent a few days with his many friends and old home on his return from Toronto where he has been purchasing stock. He and Ab. are doing a fine general mercantile business at Fort William.

Our esteemed friend, Will Rutledge, left on Saturday to take a situation on the Fort William paper.

Lower Town

The West end of our village, across the railway track, is making rapid progress. First we have the Irwin and McCoy tannery; then comes McNea's new planing factory. This is a fine new building fifty feet square and two storey high, built of frame and to be veneered with brick.

A few rods further west we have Armstrong's saw mill, which has been greatly enlarged and thoroughly fitted up with the very best machinery.

Then comes Ritchie's woollen factory across the river, the steam whistle of which may be heard four times a day; and a little further the two roller mills, which have a wide and enviable reputation both as superior flour mills and fair dealing on the part of the proprietors, J. W. Ford and Angus Plewes. We might have also noticed in connection with the west end enterprise, W. Rowe's saw and grist mill and Orr's lime manufactory.

Meaford Road

Mr. W. J. Coeey has rented Mr. Samuel Lackey's farm.

Mr. E. Brodie is farming on the place lately owned by Mr. Coeey.

Messrs. G. Warling and J. Brodie are at work framing Mr. J. I. Graham's new barn.

Holland Centre

Mr. John Crowther has his new house on the verge of completion, also Frank Shunn a very handsome house.

Mr. A. Colquet has commenced building on his town lot.

Mr. James Freeborn has leased his farm and moved into town.

Mr. Lyman Anderson has commenced building his new shingle factory on the lot recently purchased from Mr. Crowther. He has also two comfortable dwelling houses about complete, which adds much to that portion of the village.
