Mr. and Mrs. E. Hawke and sons of Owen Sound visited Mrs. Hawke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. McFadden, on Sunday.

Sir Wm. Mulock, while visiting at his summer home west of here, made a pleasant call on the teacher and pupils of S. S. No. 6 and treated the children to a crate of oranges.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cook (nee Dorothy Flynn), who took a plunge into the sea of matrimony on Saturday, May 16th, 1936. We wish them bon voyage through life.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Flint and daughters of Owen Sound were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Walters.

A highly respected resident of this village, in the person of Mr. James Lyons, passed away early Tuesday morning. Mr. Lyons had been an invalid for the past three years but was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Miss E. Lyons. Another daughter, Mrs. W. Taylor, predeceased him several years ago. Deceased had celebrated his 90th birthday just a couple of weeks ago. Previous to his retirement to the village he had farmed near Harkaway. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon, the remains to be interred in Harkaway cemetery.

EUGENIA

(Intended for last week)

On Sunday there was a very good attendance at Church, it being Mothers' Day. Flowers were in profusion, colored ones for the living mothers and a bouquet of white ones in loving memory of the departed, special mention being made of the late Mrs. Jake Williams, who departed from her earthly home this month. The late Mrs. Williams was a great Church worker. Rev. Mr. Bushell delivered a wonderful sermon, the subject of which was "Mother's Reward". There was a mothers' choir which rendered two beautiful anthems, "Shake Hands with Mother Again" and "Mother's Prayer still follows me". Miss Irene Dinsmore acted as organist owing to the absence of Miss Muriel Carruthers. Recitations about mother were given by Artie Proctor and Margaret McMillan and a poem by Hazel Turner.

The Y. P. S. met on Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Chas. Martin presided and took the worship period and led in sentence prayer. Scripture passages were read by Mrs. Well Graham, Evelyn Campbell and Doris Fawcett. The discussion topic, "How did we get our Bible", was taken by the Devotional convener, Miss Irene Dinsmore, who also conducted a Biblical contest for recreation. The meeting closed by the mizpah benediction.

Master Jimmy Traynor, who has been visiting relatives here for almost a year, got a surprise from his school mates on Monday, when he was presented with an address and a ball and bat as a token of remembrance before his departure for his home in British Columbia.

Mrs. Bert Magee, Cecil, Lillian and Doris, accompanied by the former's father, Mr. H. Legard of Flesherton, visited on Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. A. McMillan, and family near Priceville.

Arbour day was observed in the school here on Friday last. There was a general cleaning up, etc. In the afternoon a few jolly hours were spent in playing ball, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Genoe, East Mountain, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Martin.

Mr. Jos. Sherwood is progressing favourably after having his eye removed one day last week in the hospital. The eye had been giving him considerable trouble the past few weeks.

Sorry to report Mr. Sam. Hawken, 8th Line, on the sick list. Hope he is soon well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams and Joey visited the Partridge families at Rock Mills on Sunday last. Joey has purchased a Pontiac sedan recently.

Miss Selena MacDonald of Markdale was home over the week-end.

Miss Bernice Campbell is recovering after having her tonsils removed one day last week.

Mr. Will Benson is engaged at farm work with Mr. W. Haynes near Kimberley.

NORTH GLENELG

(Intended for last week)

The meeting of the North Glenelg Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Annie Baines on Thursday last with an attendance of 24 members and visitors. A Mothers' Day program was the main feature of the afternoon. Mrs. Homer read a very instructive paper to mothers; Mrs. Revel Boyce favored with a solo, "Mother's Bible." It was decided to have a grab bag at the next meeting, articles to value 15 cents and to be held at the home of Mrs. T. Brodie. Lunch was then served by Mrs. Baines and assistants.

WALTERS FALLS

(Intended for last week)

Miss Hilda Long attended the Girls' Conference in Guelph last week as a delegate from the Institute here.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dixon, Miss Iva and Mrs. S. Caswell visited the former's daughter, who is in training in a Hamilton hospital, on Sunday.

Mr. P. Brown of Welland spent

Mothers' Day with his mother and sister, Mrs. R. Olmstead.

Mrs. John Reid has returned home after spending several months with her niece, Mrs. H. Mower.

The Anglican Ladies' Guild met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. I. Seabrook for the May meeting, with the President in the chair. The meeting opened with hymn No. 290 and prayer. Mrs. E. Quinton read the Scripture portion. The roll call was answered by a Scripture verse naming a flower. Further discussions took place re quilts of which two are being made. Some accounts were passed. Mrs. T. Frizzell of Bognor, President of Grey W. A. was present and addressed them regarding the opening of the W. A., which has been in abeyance the past year. Mrs. Holmes read a poem. Mr. Medley was present on invitation and made his maiden speech on improvement suggestions. During the meeting a former member, Mrs. John Dixon of Holland Centre, Mrs. Geo. Morrison and Mrs. Steve. Ransome were welcomed. Mrs. (Rev.) Perry invited them for the June meeting. The meeting was closed with the Benediction by Rev. Mr. Perry.

Miss Marjorie Curry of Toronto visited her mother, Mrs. Patterson, on Mothers' Day.

WILLIAMSFORD

(Intended for last week)

The Williamsford Women's Institute held their annual meeting on Wednesday, May 6th, in the Community Hall, with a fairly good attendance. The president, Mrs. Stafford, was absent so the vice-president, Mrs. Geo. Miller, had charge of the meeting. After the opening exercises the minutes of the last meeting were read. The roll call was answered by paying fees for the coming year. The election of the officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Stafford, president; Mrs. G. Miller, vice-president; Mrs. McGrath, secretary-treasurer; Stella Davidson, Mrs. Spencer, Esther Rossman and Mrs. Albert Elliott, directors; Miss Esther Rossman, district director; Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Miller, auditors. The meeting closed by singing God Save the King. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Roberts on June 10th.

Mrs. Hopps and daughter, Mrs. Stafford, visited in Hamilton last week with the former's daughter, Mrs. Phillips, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Kreutzkamp and son of Chesley spent Wednesday with the former's brother, Albert Krause, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewster and two daughters, Miss Dolly Gothorp and Mr. Peter Cameron of Hespeler spent the week-end with Mrs. Brewster's mother, Mrs. Warner.

Born—in Owen Sound hospital on Friday, May 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McClure, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields and children of Kitchener spent a few days with Mrs. Shield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heft.
