Holland Centre, June 26, 1936
To Mr. Clifford Brown:—

We are met to-night to express our feelings to you. You have been in our community two years faithfully doing the work for which you were specially engaged, that of teaching the pupils of S. S. No. 7. How you have done that work is attested by the progress made and the almost uniform appreciation of parents and trustees.

While giving your chief thought to that arduous task you have succeeded in taking an effective interest in the general welfare of past and present pupils and those residing both within and beyond the bounds of our section.

Although we set out to express our feelings we find ourselves utterly unable to find adequate words to do this so, on behalf of those mentioned, we ask you to accept this small token to represent the esteem we have for you and our appreciation of what you have endeavored to do.

May you find in your future life wherever it may be lived and in whatever work you undertake the continued satisfaction that you have tried to gain for others.

On behalf of the community we sign ourselves, sincerely, Evelyn Hampton, Betty Jackson.

"One of the most successful garden parties held for years here" was the common comment about that held by the United Church on Friday evening. One of the main attractions was the ball game between the old-timers and the new. The former revealed that their were a few tricks in the game that it would not do for the latter to forget. Many adepts at the old game of barnyard golf, while not measuring up to exhibition standards, provided some attractive play. In one way and another exercise developed a fine relish for the bounteous supper tabled by the ladies of the congregation. A numerous host of many creeds partook thereof and also freely patronized the booth operated by Messrs. J. Craven, Dave Bradley and Jim Watts. The contributions to a pleasant concert programme, presided over by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Wellerman, were made by the following: Misses Betty Jackson, Audrey Richards and Mr. Rennie; duets by Misses Freda Binns and Mabel Wise, Jean Gawley and Audrey Richards. The latter with Miss Evelyn Hampton and Mr. T. H. Richardson rendered recitations. Mr. W. Sutcliffe gave violin solos accompanied by Miss E. Harper. The Berkeley orchestra gave their usual fine support. Other accompanists at the organ were Mrs. D. Binns, Mrs. G. McInnis and Miss E. Caswell.

The United Church annual picnic to Harrison Park was held on Dominion Day. The two large trucks owned and operated by Messrs. Geo. Caswell and Clarence Wiggins were comfortably adapted to convey the almost hundred celebrants. The usual sports were indulged in and basket luncheon enjoyed.
