

Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hutson

A large number of friends and neighbours gathered on Tuesday evening, August 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lyons and presented their only daughter, Edna, bride-to-be, with a miscellaneous shower. The evening was spent in dancing and card playing and about 12 o'clock the bride and groom-to-be were asked to be seated and the following address was read by Miss Jessie Winterburn and a silver bon bon dish and salt and pepper set was presented by Ella Winterburn, on behalf of the Young Ladies' Sunday School class of Harkaway, of which Edna was teacher.

Harkaway, August 25
Dear Edna: Learning of your impending marriage, we the members of your S. S. class at Harkaway take this means of expressing to you as our teacher our deep appreciation of your kindly interest and self-sacrificing efforts on our behalf. You are leaving us Edna to make your home in another community. We will miss you, but we realize a great sense of satisfaction must be yours in the knowledge of the noble part you have played in the Church and community life of Harkaway.

We ask you to accept these little gifts, especially from us, your S. S. class, and trust the "Giver of all Good" will be your guide and stay in all years to come.

Signed on behalf of your class at Harkaway: Ella and Jessie Winterburne.

Miss Mabel Wise then read another address on behalf of the community and friends and two large baskets were carried in by Mrs. L. Lyons and Freda Binns and presented. Following is the address:

Harkaway, Ontario
Dear Edna and Ralph.—We, your friends and neighbours, having heard of the plunge you are about to take into the sea called "Matrimony", have assembled here this evening to wish you a long and happy and prosperous life in the future which lies before you.

Since childhood, Edna, we have had the pleasure to know you and to enjoy your genial disposition, and no words can tell how we have learned to love and respect you for your willingness to help at Church or community work, to which you have abundantly contributed.

There are many ways of managing a husband. Some say don't roast them; some say don't keep them in a stew; others say don't keep them hopping, but alas, too many "Don'ts", but our advice is an even temperature composed of love, patience and forbearance, and now Ralph with these instructions you should develop into a model husband.

We could not let you leave our midst without some remembrance from your friends and to remind you of the chords of friendship which we hope will never be severed. Please accept these gifts with our sincere wishes for a long life of joy and happiness.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours: Mabel Wise, Freda Binns, Mrs. L. Lyons.

Both Edna and Ralph fittingly replied. "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung and dancing was resumed until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Ran Bradley and family were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber, Mr. Dave Weber, of Kimberley; Mr. Roland Bradley of Mimico; Mr. Charlie Cooley and Miss Norma Bumstead of Meaford; Mr. and Mrs. Wellie Alcox of Markdale. Mr. Dave Weber remained for a longer visit with his daughter, Mrs. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Sewell of Ebenezer spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill and family. Mr. Bert Burrell is busy threshing in this neighborhood.

Miss Mable Wyville was home from Goring for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rolt visited on Sunday with Beaverdale friends.

Mr. Albert Fothergill of Beaverdale is assisting Mr. W. E. Bradley with the harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Pendleton, Miss Elma, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Pendleton and Mr. Harry Sewell spent a day this week in Owen Sound.

Mr. Dennis Wyville visited on Sunday with his cousin, Mr. Dave Wyville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dickson and three children of Toronto and Mr. Dave Lee of town visited at Mr. Jas. Pendleton's on Monday afternoon.

WODEHOUSE

The golden rod is swaying in the soft September air and Mother Nature has already commenced her autumn coloring. Some of the maples show a scarlet and golden signal.

The repeated heavy rains have somewhat delayed harvesting operations and will spoil the feed value to a great extent. Yet everyone welcomed the change after the extreme drouth and the root crops now are making rapid growth. The potatoes especially would doubtless have been almost a failure. Several farmers have their wheat sowed and are now busy fall plowing.

Labor Day brings a well earned holiday to many, though not duly observed by the farmers.

School re-opened on Tuesday last with the new teacher, Miss Parker, of Flesherton in charge.

Mrs. Will Johnson and children of Vandeleur were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley, sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilcock and little daughter, Helen, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley, jr., and little son, Clarence, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allen and family of Flesherton.

Miss Ella Wiley has gone to Meaford to visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stanley Wiley, and daughters. We all wish Ella a speedy recovery to health. Her mother is somewhat improved we are pleased to say.

Mrs. Jos. Proctor and sons, James, Will and Joe, of Caledon East were visitors with relatives, the Wiley families, here over Sunday.

Mrs. Gordon Wiley spent a day or two with friends in Markdale.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mr. Wm. Irwin, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Thompson, on Sunday morning, August 30th. In spite of his advanced years he had been active and about until within a few weeks of his death. His passing removes one more of our worthy pioneers and one who was very highly respected by all who came within the circle of his acquaintance. The funeral was very largely attended on Tuesday afternoon, burial in Temple Hill cemetery. Rev. McAuslan had charge of the services.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. A. Thompson for their August meeting. The Ladies' Aid will meet on Thursday, September 17th, at the home of Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick.

Mr. Lorne Cottenden and friend, Miss Mildred Wall, motored down from Sault Ste. Marie and are spending part of their two weeks' holidays with friends here. His mother and sister, Irene, will return home with them, having visited several weeks among friends.

New England Anniversary Services on Sunday, September 20th, morning and evening. The speakers are not yet arranged for the services so this will be announced later.

TOWNSEND LAKE

Miss Elizabeth McNulty has returned to her home in Guelph after visiting relatives here and at Markdale.

Mr. Harold Ritchie of this locality is teaching school in Sullivan township.

Some of the people in this locality have threshed.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Jerry Sullivan, who lost his fine barn by fire. The cause is unknown as no one has been living there for over a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKeown and children and Mr. Thos. McKeown were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel and daughters, Christena and Virginia, are visiting with Mr. Bill Henderson and Miss Tena Henderson.
