WODEHOUSE

Very warm weather. Several of our people went to the exhibition in a truck load last week. Mr. Frank Ball was in Toronto a few days visiting his uncle and aunt and attended the exhibition. He motored down accompanied by Jas. Clarke of Sligo. Mrs. W. Walsh spent part of last week with friends in Markdale. The Hutchinson Bros. of Ebenezer are thrashing in the neighborhood. Misses Della and Verna Wiley are visiting in Toronto. Several from here went to Kimberley Sunday evening to hear Rev. J. S. Veals, who took the evening service there. On a few days holidays he and Mrs. Veals called on old friends on the Kimberley circuit, where they were stationed a few years ago and have many warm friends in and around New England, who were pleased to meet them again. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilcox and Mrs. Nelson Wilcox and Helen visited friends at Collingwood. There will be no Sunday School at New England on Sunday owing to the special anniversary services, morning and evening, mentioned elsewhere in the columns. Glad to report Mr. Gordon Wilcox so much improved as to be able to be around some.

WILLIAMSFORD

The Williamsford Women's Institute held their monthly meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 9th, at the home of Mrs. Stewart. The meeting opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call was answered with a jam recipe and was answered by twenty-nine members and visitors. Mrs. C. Miller put on a "Sting" contest and it was won by Mrs. L. Kuglin. A demonstration on how to set a tray and what to put on it for an invalid was given by Miss Stella Davidson. Miss Esther Rossman and Mrs. L. Kuglin, and it was very hard to decide which was the best as they all looked very appetizing. Community singing and a very interesting talk on communicable diseases by Dr. Mountain. This meeting closed by singing God Save our King. The hostess served lunch assisted by Mrs. McGrath, Mrs. A. Elliott and Mrs. Rossman. Mrs. A. J. Datars was hostess to the Ladies' Aid of St. James Lutheran Church for their regular monthly meeting on Sept. 10th. The roll call was answered by 18 members and 3 visitors. It was decided to send the executive, Mrs. O. Lipsky, Mrs. L. Grahman and Mrs. C. Miller, as a delegation to the Ladies' Aid rally which is to be held at Wellesley on Sept. 30th. A discussion was then held as to whether we have a concert or ten-cent tea and bazaar in the near future. It was decided to have the latter. Mrs. F. Smith invited the ladies to her home for the October meeting. The new program committee is to be Mrs. D. Crigger and Mrs. C. Routenburg. The program committee then took charge and delighted the gathering with the following numbers: Vocal duet, "When the Swallows Homeward Fly", by Mrs. L. Draves and Mrs. D. Nuhn accompanied by Mrs. L. Kuglin; reading, "Don't run out of oil", by Mrs. C. Miller; vocal solo, "Little Feet be Careful", by Arthur Routenburg accompanied by his mother, Mrs. C. Routenburg; contest, "The Names of Members", by Mrs. L. Kuglin and won by Mrs. O. Lipsky; vocal trio, "There Still is Room", by Mrs. D. Draves, Mrs. D. Nuhn, Mrs. D. Kuglin. Mr. Lloyd Collins, his grandmother, Mrs. McHenry, of Lum, Mich., his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Michel and children of Detroit spent the week-end with Mrs. Collins.

Come to Markdale on October 2nd and meet all your friends at one of Grey County's best fairs. This year's program includes many special features.
