The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Binns on Wednesday, Sept. 15. The meeting opened with hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy", and the Lord's prayer was repeated. The Scripture reading was taken from Acts, 6th chapter, and the minutes were read and adopted. The roll call was answered by 16 members with several visitors present. Hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" was sung and Mrs. Wellerman led in prayer. Readings were given by Mrs. Hawken, "Gossip Town", and by Freda Binns, "A Preacher's Hard Life"; solos were sung by Mrs. England, "The City Four Square", by Mrs. Rae, "Jesus is my Neighbour", and by Mrs. Hawken, "An Evening Prayer". It was decided to purchase four "Seth Parker" hymn books for the choir and also to get a caretaker for the Church for the winter, the tenders to be in by the meeting in October. "An Evening Prayer", was chosen as the Aid theme song. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Carbert. Hymn, "O God our help in Ages Past" was sung followed by the Aid benediction. Lunch was served, the tea money amounting to $1.70.

Mrs. Chas. McClocklin visited the first few days of the week with her daughter, Mrs. Will Campbell of Welbeck. The latter is suffering from a badly sprained ankle suffered from Durham's broken cement blocks.

VANDELEUR

The annual Sunday School Rally was held in the Church on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20th, and was well attended. The programme outlined by the Ontario Religious Education Council was followed and proved quite interesting. The pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren delivered a fine address and readings were given by Misses Jean Cargoe and Evelyn McGee, the captains in the attendance contest. Misses Dorothy Johnston and Frances Buchanan sang a duet. A good report of the Summer's work was given by the Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Pauline Hutchinson. Mrs. Dane McGee, Temperance Superintendent, Mrs. Geo. Buchanan, Missionary Superintendent, and Mrs. H. I. Graham, Cradle Roll Supt., gave good reports of work done in each department. It was announced that the Red side led by Miss Evelyn McGee had won the attendance contest and the Blues led by Miss Jean Cargoe will put on the programme at a social evening to be held in the near future. Miss Jean Cargoe was presented with a Five Star Merit Certificate by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Warren. Billie, Dorothy and Marie Johnston received the highest marks for attendance and were closely followed by Pauline Hutchinson, Marion Summers and several others. The Superintendent, Mr. H. I. Graham, presided over the programme. Mrs. Geo. Buchanan was organist, and Melville Buchanan and Billie Johnston took up the offering.

At a meeting held in the Church on Tuesday evening of last week the Young People's Society was organized for the ensuing year. The pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren, opened the meeting and conducted the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Mr. Lundy Johnston; Secretary, Miss Evelyn McGee; Treasurer, Mr. Jim Stewart; First Convener, Mrs. C. Dolan; Second Convener, Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson; Third Convener, Mrs. H. J. Thompson; Fourth Convener, Mr. Reg. Hutton. It was decided to hold the meetings in the homes and the first will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Johnston on Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. H. J. Thompson spent a few days in Toronto last week.

"ZYZZLE"

Just suppose you wanted to find the word zyzle in the dictionary. Would you start at the first page, leaf through the entire book and come finally to the last word, on the last page? That, you say, would be an insane waste of time.

Now, suppose you need accessories for the house. Suppose you need soap, or floor wax, or a pail, or a broom. Our local stores are featuring real bargains in reasonable household needs, as well as everyday needs and provisions for the table. Yet you waste time and effort, if you walk from store to store . . . wander from counter to counter . . . looking for what you want at the price you want to pay.

Instead, you may sit comfortably at home and learn where and when to make the best buys. That's all printed for you in the advertisements of this paper. You have only to read them and heed them to save time, save tiresome shopping, and save money.
