Boxing at Fiesher-ton

Several fine bouts were presented to the boxing fans of the district on Saturday evening when an eight card fight was presented by Mr. Geo. Akitt in the Fiesher-ton Arena. Some wild fighting by some of the youngsters brought howls of laughter, while excellent boxing between the more experienced pleased the large crowd present. Rhessa McClean of Fiesher-ton was given a decision over Jack McGee of Markdale, while Ronald Metcalf of Markdale won from his brother, Herb. Bill Hardman won from Evison Wilson, both Fiesher-ton, and Jack Hopkins and Joe Banks were given a draw. Jack English of Rock Mills won from Laurie Thompson and Chas. Cavelock of Kimberley was given the decision over John Atkins of Durham in a splendid bout. Jack Brackenbury of Fiesher-ton and Joe Gibson of Kimberley entertained in a tame affair and a draw was announced. The main event of five rounds was fought between Henry Carvell of Fiesher-ton and Geo. Atkins of Durham in a heavy slugging scrap, the latter being given the decision.
