The funeral of Mr. Alexander Findlay, well known hotel owner of Owen Sound, whose death occurred suddenly at his home on Saturday evening, December 28th, was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence.

Mr. Findlay had for 12 years owned and operated the Queen's Hotel in Owen Sound and was widely known. His obliging manner and thoughfulness had made for him a host of friends.

The funeral was very largely atended and the floral tributes were extremely numerous. Rev. J. T. Strachan of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was in charge, and in his beautifully expressed funeral sermon, he extended comfort to the bereaved wife and family.

The pallbearers were Mr. Wm. Kendall, Mr. John Lockhart, Mr. E. Morrison, Mr. A. Morrison, Mr. G. Barber, and Mr. S. McInnis.

There were a great many friends and relatives from out of town present to pay their last tribute to the deceased, they were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Barber, Flesherton; Mr. Cecil Barber of Durham; Mr. Geo. McDenald and son Hector of McIntyre; Mr. John Lockhart of McIntyre; Mr. Wm. Taylor of Singhampton; Mr. Chas. Find-lay of Listowel; Mr. Jas.
