Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden of Orange Valley spent the first of the week at the W. J. Cook homestead. Despite the snow storm of Saturday, they found the cutter grind on the wind-swept gravel.

On Friday of last week Howard Ritchie had a big pile of buzz wood cut by Clifford Cook's outfit; this Tuesday Hugh McArthur is having a big skidway of heavy stuff cut by a combination outfit. These howling, windy days make the sawdust fly.

With the millions of eggs going into the incubators eggs should advance in price. The blooming hens have "eaten their heads off" this winter.

Just to make the boy get used to keeping house alone, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin visited the two daughters at Welbeck, from Friday till Sunday evening.

About 4.15 Monday evening there came a few sharp cracks of thunder that split the dense, black cloud asunder, and for a few minutes we had a regular cloudburst. Pools became ponds and ponds lakelets and the whole area was deluged. This Tuesday the roads are washed white of ice and filth. There went a lot of fertile soil down the creeks into the two Saugens. Thunder and lightning in February! What next?

Quite a big delegation waited on the Township Fathers on Saturday and presented a petition to have No. 5 sideroad opened from Zion to the 4th Con. They received a good hearing from the Council, who decided to look over the situation and bring the matter up at the April meeting. Councillor J. Crutchley was laid up with the mumps and was unable to attend.
