Injured While Adjusting Windmill in Storm

What might have been a much more serious accident occurred at the farm of Milton Bannon, of Victoria Corners, on Saturday morning, during the strong gale. The windmill refused to turn into the wind and Jack, the young son, climbed to the tower to adjust it. When the adjustment was made the strong wind caught the wheel, revolving it so rapidly that Jack's hand was in the gears. By quick action he was able to save his hand from being completely mangled. It was just a miracle that he was not knocked to the ground when he loosened his hand, or that he did not faint on his way to the ground as a result of the pain. The point of the index finger was smashed, the nail being shoved back under the skin and protruding at the first joint. This accident to Jack is most unfortunate, as he is in the Entrance class at school.—Dundalk Herald.

778 People Get Old Age Pension in Grey

In April the Province of Ontario will take over full payment of Old Age Pensions throughout the province, thereby relieving the various counties of a heavy burden since the pensions were first inaugurated in 1929.

County Clerk Fred. Rutherford, who files all pensions claims for Grey County, reported last week that a total of 152 applications for pensions had been made during the year 1936, with very few of these refused, probably less than a dozen in all. This was almost a 30 per cent. increase over 1935 when there were 118 applications. This is an indication of how the number of pension recipients is steadily rising, a condition that no doubt prevails in other parts of the province as well.

At the present time there is a total of 778 people in Grey receiving the pension and the payments to these are $12,758.82 every month of the year. The county bears 10 per cent. of this cost or $1275.88 per month, making it $15,310.56 for the year. Entire cost of 778 pensioners for one year is $173,105.60 and that in Grey County alone.

Looking over the list it was noticeable that very few pensioners receive less than the maximum payment of $20 per month. In some cases where man and wife each receive the pension the sum is $15 or $17.50 with a few at $12.50, but these cases are rare.

Awarded $2500.00 as Damages

Miss Helen Allison, Orangeville, was awarded $2,500 damages on Tuesday by Peeli County jury and costs incurred by her as a result of an accident on the Centre Road last summer, when a car in which she was riding, driven by Charles Karajian, Georgetown, was struck by another motor, driven by Thomas Shenton, Toronto. Miss Allison received a fractured leg in the accident. Karajian, as co-plaintiff, was awarded $250 and costs on the county court scale.

The case, over which Hon. Mr. Justice J. Makins, Toronto, presided, was one of the shortest heard in a Peeli County sitting of the Supreme Court. The jury deliberated two hours before bringing in the verdict. At request of Shenton's counsel, Justice Makins granted a 15-day stay of judgment.—Brampton Conservator.

The road east from Orangeville to Mono Mills and Schomberg is being taken over as a Provincial Highway.

Thomas A. Blakeley Died in Toronto

(The Flesherston Advance)

Thomas Albert Blakeley, formerly highly respected business man of Flesherston, died suddenly in a Toronto hospital where he had gone to have an X-ray on Wednesday evening of last week, the remains being brought to Flesherston on Saturday. Service was held in St. John's United Church, conducted by Rev. G. R. Service, who gave a most comforting message to the sorrowing relatives. Interment was made in the mortuary chapel in the Flesherston cemetery.

The late Thomas Blakeley was a brother of Mr. Joseph Blakeley of town. He leaves to mourn two brothers and one sister, and a family consisting of his wife and seven children, four girls and three boys, as follows: Elmo of Bakersfield, Calif.; Myrtle (Mrs. J. C. Miller) of Toronto; Clifford in Harriston; Aleth at Millbanks, Ont.; Pearl (Mrs. Harry Stafford) in Toronto; Gordon in Toronto; Luella (Mrs. Philip Gaddey) of Kirkland Lake. He was married twice, his first wife being Margaret Lever of Flesherston. In 1920 the family moved to Toronto and in 1926 Mrs. Blakeley passed away. Later he married Mrs. Sarah Crompton, who survives him.

The deceased gentleman was born near Portlaw in 1863 and as a young man learned his trade of wood worker and wagonmaker with the late Thompson Wilson. Then he moved to Maxwell where he spent a couple of years, then to Dundalk for a time and then to Flesherston, where he worked for the late John H. Heard. He then purchased the Flesherston Planing Mill which he conducted for a number of years until he sold to Mr. W. I. Henry of town and moved to Toronto, where he worked at his trade until about six weeks ago, when he was forced through illness to relinquish his position.

All the family were present at the funeral with the exception of Elmo and Luella. The service at the Church here was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances who wished to pay their respects to the memory of an old and highly esteemed friend. The funeral was under the auspices of Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A.F. & A.M., of which he had been Master, later serving as District Deputy Grand Master of Grey District. He attended the Diamond Jubilee of his lodge here last fall.

The pallbearers were all members of the Craft: C. J. Bellamy, F. W. Duncan, F. J. Thurston, G. A. McTavish, C. N. Richardson and T. J. Fisher.

Among the many floral offerings of sympathy and regard were emblems from Flesherston Old Boys' and Girls' Association, Toronto; Prince Arthur Lodge, Flesherston, and others.

The late Mr. Blakeley was one of the charter members of Hiram Lodge No. 490, Markdale, and while never a resident here was regular in attendance at the meetings for a number of years. Mr. W. E. Harris, Master of the lodge, was in attendance at the funeral.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who were so helpful in our recent sad bereavement in the death of our father, the late Isaac Elder. We also desire to express gratitude to the members of the Orange Order. The Family.

Jeremiah McKibbin Died at Bradford

A resident of this community for the past thirty years, Jeremiah McKibbin passed away at his late residence on the Bond Head Road, E. H. Lot 4, Con. 7, on Thursday of last week. During the past three years Mr. McKibbin had not enjoyed good health, suffering from hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure, and had been bed-fast since the day before Christmas, when he suffered a stroke which left him helpless.

Born in Vaughan Township and spending his boyhood and early manhood in the Orangeville district, he married Amelia Male about forty-six years ago, and about thirty years ago the couple moved to Mrs. McKibbin's old home, where he has resided since. His wife predeceased him about twenty-one years ago.

Deceased was a farmer all his life. In politics he was a staunch Conservative, and an Anglican in religion. He is survived by his only daughter, Mrs. Hansford (Lorna); three grandchildren, Robena, Golda and Wilma Hansford; four brothers, Edward, Toronto; John, Shelburne; Jim, Orangeville, and George in Markdale, and one sister in Orangeville. Another daughter died when a child. The funeral took place from his old home—where his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hansford, reside—at 2 p.m., Rev. C. R. P. Hearn of Bond Head conducting the services. Interment was made in Bond Head cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ed. Campbell, C. McLean, E. Lisk, John Andrews, Alfred McLean and Robt. Wood.

Among the friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Messrs. Jim McKibbin, Hunter White, Wilfred Bagnow and George Woods of Orangeville; Mr. John McKibbin, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Atwood and daughter, Evelyn, of Shelburne; Mr. Edward McKibbin, Mrs. Chas. McCartney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe and Mr. T. Wingross of Toronto.—Bradford Witness.

Aggie Has Now a Fancy Handbag

The editor of the Women's News page of the Toronto Globe and Mail told the following story about Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., the other day:

"Compliments—To Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., upon her method of acquiring a very convenient black leather handbag with a good-sized watch on the outside.

"She had it with her the other night when she dropped into the office to see us. We said we liked it. She said she did, too; that's how she got it. And she told us the story.

"In Detroit recently she met a woman carrying the bag. She admired it and inquired where she could get one like it. She explained it was just the thing for her as she couldn't wear a wrist watch on account of having so much electricity. The woman said she didn't know where she could get one but she could have hers. Miss Macphail said of course not. The woman insisted. So did Miss Macphail.

"The next day at a luncheon party, at which the woman was also a guest, Miss Macphail found the handbag sitting in front of her on the table. Of course, there was nothing else to do but accept the gift."

"I wrote to the paper to find out how long cows should be milked." "And they said?" "Just like short cows."
