TRAVERSTON

Mr. W. R. Jack and Miss Clara motored to Toronto on Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. John Cushnie, who has been bedfast for five months and is seriously ill. They returned home next day.

W. H. Edwards of the Hydro staff in Toronto and Ivan of Shelburne were home over the week-end.

Mrs. George E. Peart and son, Bob, visited at E. R. Peart's on Sunday and attended Zion's afternoon service.

Clifford Cook is busy buzz-sawing piles of poles for your scribe. Jos. R. Edwards, Thos. Timmins and others these days. While at work on Friday the main shaft broke along side the flywheel and that 150 pound wheel took quite a spin. Fortunately no one was in its path. The shaft had apparently been badly cracked years ago. A new shaft has been secured and is making the big piles soon into wood.

W. J. Greenwood shipped a fine load of hogs on Monday.

Will Sweeney has turned in his old truck and is securing a new up-to-date one on Thursday from Hamilton. He has had a busy time all winter between shipping wood, sawlogs and live stock.

Word has just reached us that while helping his son to load logs yesterday, Mr. Thomas Nichol of Priceville was seized with a heart attack, slumped down and in a few minutes passed away. Mr. Nichol was one of Glenelg's most popular and highly esteemed citizens. Having filled the position of reeve of the township for years, he was widely known and by his winning personality and kindly courtesy made scores of friends. We deeply regret his early death and extend our sympathy to his beloved wife and the members of his family.

VANDELEUR

Mrs. Glenn McGee was hostess to Vandeleur Women's Institute for the February meeting with about thirty present. The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. Dolan, "Historical account of the Women of Greece"; Current Events by Miss Lillian Buchanan, and community singing. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bowles. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Dane McGee and Mrs. Lundy Johnston.

Mrs. Fawcett sr. and her son, Andrew, visited at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson, for a few days last week.

Mr. Elmer Warling attended the jury in Owen Sound last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brett and family are moving to their home at Beaverdale this week and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Graham are moving to their new home at Kimberley. We are sorry to lose these two families from the community.

Miss Doreen Boland is visiting at Heathcote at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor.

The sympathy of the community is with Mrs. Glenn McGee in the loss of her father, Mr. James Beaty, of Orange Valley, who passed away suddenly on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23rd.

The last meeting of the Young People's Society was held on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Graham. The President, Mr. Lundy Johnston, presided and the program was in the charge of Mr. Reg. Hutton, who gave a good reading and also conducted an interesting contest. Readings were also given by Messrs. H. J. Thompson and Harold Hutton.

The previous meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McGee, when Mrs. Thompson had charge of the program.

The Kimberley Y.P.S. are expected to be present and give the program at this week's meeting to be held in the Church.

CEYLON

Miss Blanche Genoe, Owen Sound, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Genoe.

Miss Irene Stewart and Mr. Vernon Stewart, Toronto, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Talbot spent Sunday at Mr. George Udell's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alton and babe of Hanover visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Cairns and Mrs. Wm. Wilcock.

Miss Catharine Cairns has been successful in obtaining the highest marks in her class in the Rudimentary examination in music.

Miss Macil Snell has accepted a position at Curran's restaurant in Fesherton.

Mrs. Thos. Brady, Flesherston, is caring for the sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jimmy McMullen.

The community extends its sympathy to the family of the late Thos. Nichol, Priceville, in their very sudden bereavement.

Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. D. Macphail.

We are glad to report the condition of Harvey Archibald, who developed sleeping sickness from a relapse of the flu, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. I. B. Whittaker has left for a two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, at Wingham.

At the progressive euchre party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLeod, Messrs. Frank Cairns and E. J. Glenister won the 1st prizes while the consolation prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Bradey Irwin. A dainty lunch was served at the close.

HARKAWAY

Mr. Ernest Ptolemy had the misfortune to injure his knee while taking out logs in the bush and will be laid up for some time.

Miss Marjorie Marshall has returned home after spending a week with her cousin, Miss Shirley McLaughlin.

Mrs. John Loughheed of St. Marys spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hawken.

Miss Ethel Waites and Mr. Cecil Smart spent a couple of days last week with friends in Hanover.

A large number of friends and neighbours attended the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawken in the Orange Hall in Markdale on Friday evening. Everyone present enjoyed a good time.

Messrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and M. J. Patton visited on Sunday with Mr. Ernest Ptolemy.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Patton visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. McCauley.

The W. M. S. meeting will be omitted this month and will be held at the home of Mrs. D. L. Binns on April 7th.

Mesdames W. J. and J. Halbert were hostesses for the W.M.S. meeting on Wednesday, February 24th, with 13 members and several visitors present. The meeting opened with hymn 208 followed by prayer by the president, Mrs. Barry. The program from the Missionary monthly was followed, it being the World's Day of Prayer for the Missionary work. Mrs. Wellerman read an item called "The Purpose of the World's Day of Prayer". Miss Jean Lawson resigned her position as treasurer and Mrs. Chester Rodman is to fill the office. A letter was received from Mrs. Cole requesting clothing, etc. It was left over until the next meeting. Mrs. Thompson read a letter of thanks from Mr. A. Barry for a card of sympathy sent. The word for next meeting is to be "Joyful", and the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Binns. Cake committee: Mesdames Boyes, Thompson and Hawken. The meeting closed with hymn 156 and prayer by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Wellerman. The special collection for thank offering amounted to $1.00; tea money $1.00. Lunch was then served by Mesdames Halbert and several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Patton and Leo and Mrs. Ed. Summers visited on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Wright and Mrs. M. Patton at Walters Falls.

EUGENIA

March entered quite gently although the wind was quite cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Graham of Clarksburg visited one day recently with friends here.

Miss Donaldia Sloan from near Ayton visited on Saturday with her friend, Miss Margie Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell and two sons, also Masters Jack and Fred, Williams visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Graham at Walkerton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Partridge and family at Rock Mills.

Mr. Thos. Cooper and Mrs. Levi Allen of the 12th Line have taken apartments in Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons' house, 5th Line.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell spent a day in Toronto visiting their niece, Miss Loreen Graham, who is a patient in the Henderson Nursing Home. Miss Loreen is suffering from a nervous break-down, and we sincerely hope she will soon recover.

Congratulations to Miss Ita Pedlar of Rock Mills, who was recently married to Mr. Watts of Berkeley. We wish them a long and happy wedded life.

We are pleased to report Mrs. Ernie Proctor continually improving; Mrs. R. Park able to be up and recuperating from her attack of asthma and the cold; also Mr. Robt. Haney recovering from his illness of congestion of the liver.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. J. H. Scilley of Dundalk with pleuro-pneumonia. Mr. Scilley is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons of the 5th Line. We hope he soon recovers.

Mr. Peter Munshaw, who is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Large, in Niagara, tells us he is not feeling very well at present, having been ill with bronchitis. We hope he is soon well again.

On Wednesday evening the Y.P.U. met in the basement of the Church with an attendance of 24. After the opening hymn the Lord's prayer was repeated. Scripture passages were read by Jean Tudor and Dorothy Falconer, after which Miss Dinsmore led in prayer. The business period was then conducted. Mrs. Martin gave a talk on the Y.P.U. paper, "The Grey Gleaner", published every two months. The hymns were announced by Doris Fawcett. Miss Dinsmore took the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson of Kimberley were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Jamieson.

IN MEMORIAM

BOYD—In loving memory of our dear mother, who passed away November 27th, 1916; our sister, Martha (Mrs. B. Carter), who died March 28th, 1924, and our dear father, Robert J. Boyd, who passed away March 2nd, 1934.

Things have changed in many ways,
But memory changes never;
The memory of the happy days
When we were all together.
Daughters.
