HOLLAND CENTRE

(Held over from last week.)
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster and daughter of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crowther.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Crowther, who celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McInnis and family of Pleasant Valley and Mrs. Chas. Ransome of Berkeley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ransome here.

Mr. John S. Price of Berkeley was a recent caller here.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Gillen at Dornoch on Monday.

We extend our sympathy to the Kirktown's in their recent bereavement.

Mr. Edgar Wright attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. Archie Kirkpatrick, at Goring on Friday last.

Mr. Bert Parker spent the week-end with his parents at Goring.

We are sorry to note Mr. Joseph Hampton confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hutson and Mrs. Bain motored to Toronto on Friday.

Miss Gladys McKay of St. Marks spent the week-end with her parents here.

The Y. P. S. met Tuesday for its regular session with the President, Reg. McKennitt, in the chair. The Scripture reading was taken by Mrs. Harper and prayer by Mrs. Wellerman. A new hymn is being tried out at each meeting to familiarise the members with a wider selection and more expressive of youth feeling in these times. The minutes were read and the roll called by Marie Troughton. Mrs. Jos. McMullen gave a helpful paper based on Francis Ridley Havergal's devotional book, "Keep for the Master's Use". Mildred Harper co-operated at the piano.

The farmers are taking advantage of the little extra snow to draw in a large quantity and fine average of wood and the sound of the buzz-saw is heard in the land.

The Desboro Dramatic Society put on their play, "Plain Jane", in the township hall on Monday evening. Despite the cold and stormy night there was a fair-sized crowd to welcome their effort. "Jane" herself was the star actor and gave an excellent representation of one brought up on a Montana ranch, with some nice interpretations of song and dance between acts. Her "aunt" ran her a good second, giving one of the best characterizations of a crabby old lady, most there had seen. All did their roles credit. We are sorry we have not the names of the performers. The Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices the entertainment was staged, served lunch to the visitors at the close.

EUGENIA

Mrs. W. C. Hanley received the sad news of the death of her niece, Mrs. R. W. Goodwillie of Port Huron, who passed away at her home on March 5th. The deceased was seized by a paralytic stroke on February 25th and never regained consciousness. She was 71 years of age. Her husband predeceased her a few years ago. There were no children. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Hanley and relatives in their sad bereavement.

The community extend their sympathy to Mrs. Fred Pedlar and relatives in the death of her mother, the late Mrs. M. Marshall. The deceased had spent the past few weeks with her daughter here, where she passed away at the age of 84 years. A service was held at the Pedlar home on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Dean of Feversham officiating, after which the remains were taken to her son's home at Meaford, where a service was held on Monday in charge of Rev. J. T. Cosby Morris. Interment was made in Lakeview chapel, Meaford.

The neighbourhood was very sorry to hear that Mr. John H. Scilley of Dundalk had passed away about 9 o'clock Monday morning after an illness of two weeks from pneumonia, which followed an attack of the 'flu'. The late Mr. Scilley, who was in his 50th year, was born in Osprey township, but resided for the past 4 years in Dundalk where he was employed at Moody's chopping mill. His wife was formerly Miss Mae Parson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Parson, 5th Line. He is also survived by three children, his aged mother, Mrs. E. Scilley of Dundalk, and five sisters, Mrs. Wm. Findlay in Osprey, Mrs. Herb. Irwin of Markdale, Mrs. Harry Minke of Desboro and Misses Viva and Emma Scilley of Dundalk. We extend our sympathy to the Parson and Scilley families in their hour of sorrow.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Ernie Proctor ill at present with pleurisy. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We are pleased to report Mrs. John Williams recovering after her illness and sincerely hope she soon regains her usual health.

Mrs. Robt. Smith, 10th Line, and niece, Miss Florence Paul, spent a few days with the former's father, Mr. Elijah Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Sloan have returned home from Chatham where they spent the winter months.

Miss Bernice Campbell has returned home from Toronto after a few days' visit there.

Mr. Will Duckett had the misfortune to lose one of his work horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parvis and children of Toronto visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Purvis, and other relatives over the week-end.

Little Miss Gwendolyn Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Park celebrated the 4th anniversary of her birthday on March 10th and gave a party to four playmates, Eleanor and George Proctor, Margetha Martin and Yvonne Ganoe. All enjoyed a happy time. We wish Gwendolyn many more happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Chas. Martin attended the executive meeting of the Grey Presbytery Young People's Union of the United Church of Canada at Markdale which commenced with a hot supper in Annesley church school room. A sing-song followed the supper. Short addresses were given by Miss Connie Hutton, Rev. Rintoul and Mr. Chas. Walte. Miss Gertrude Silverthorne of Woodford conducted devotional exercises and Mrs. W. E. Harris of Markdale presided at the organ. The executive then adjourned to the church parlour where business items were discussed.

The Y.P.U. met as usual on Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Martin presided and took the worship and discussion periods. Scripture passages were read by Miss Dinsmore, Jean Tudor, W. Fenwick and Harold Benson. Short prayers on service and missions were given by Mrs. Martin, Miss Dinsmore, Marjory Benson and Margaret McMullan. The topic of discussion was "How can I learn to serve." A story on leadership, written by Archer Wallace, was read by Miss Dinsmore. A reading, "March of Youth", was given by Mrs. Martin. Games of "Fruit Basket" and "Grunt" were played, and a contest was conducted by Minnetta Martin for recreation. The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah benediction.

Mr. John Magee spent a few days in Orange Valley and Mr. T. Lever a few days at Markdale.

Mrs. Geo. Littlejohns of Orange Valley visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gorley with Miss Irene Martin.
