The Christ-like work in Spain that is being carried on by Dr. Bethune who was educated in Owen Sound was the basis of the papers given by Mrs. J. A. Bain and Bill Jackson at the Y.P.S. last Tuesday. Dr. Bethune and his co-workers are sustained by Canadian subscription in a blood-transfusion service that has meant the saving of many lives. The meeting was in the capable hands of Reg. McKennitt. Harold Craven read the scripture portion. Rev. C. C. Wellerman left in prayer and in the practice of the weeks unfamiliar hymn. Marie Troughton read the minutes and called the roll; the latter showed the "Blues" well in the lead. Mildred Harper was at the organ. One of Owen Sound Anglican Y.P.S. offered to put on an entertainment that is receiving consideration.

In the absence of the Pastor on Sunday evening the Young People had charge of the service on Sunday evening. Rev. W. G. Wakefield gave the address.

A finely illustrated lecture on "The Island Route to the Yukon" was given in the three churches of the circuit. At Berkeley on Friday night, Harkaway on Sunday and the Centre on Monday evening. It was also to be given at Walters Falls on Tuesday evening. The lecture, by the Rev. C. C. Wellerman, showed the many-sided interests taken in the welfare of the isolated communities on the Pacific coast.

The average married man doesn't have a great deal of trouble keeping the Ten Commandments, but he does wish some one would tell his wife there are only ten.
