LIVE STOCK MARKET REPORT

by DUNN & LEVACK, TORONTO

On Monday, cattle prices reached a new high peak, which is the highest recorded since June 1930. Choice heavy steers selling at from 8.50 to 9.00, with other classes of cattle recorded at much better prices. The improvement is attributed to the fact that the Lenten season is over and with a good demand for all classes of meats, the wholesale market developed a keen outlet.

While best heavy steers sold at high prices, fair to good ranged from 7.75 to 8.50; common to medium 5.00 to 7.00. In the butcher section, choice handy weight steers and heifers sold at from 6.50 to 7.00; fair to good from 5.75 to 6.25; common to medium 5.00 to 5.50. Choice baby beefs held steady at from 7.00 to 8.00, others at lower prices according to quality. The cow trade was active and strong, choice cows selling at from 4.75 to 5.25; fair to good from 4.00 to 4.50; common and medium 3.00 to 4.00; canners and cutters 2.00 to 2.75. Milch cows and springers were very slow of sale. The bull trade was steady, from 3.75 to 4.50, depending upon weights and quality.

Lamb prices advanced sharply, 50 cents per cwt., choice lambs selling at 10.50. Best sheep brought from 5.00 to 5.75. The calf trade was active and steady, choice calves selling at from 9.00 to 9.50, with a few tops at 10.00; fair to good from 7.50 to 8.50; common and medium 5.00 to 6.50.

DAVEDSTON

The Late Mrs. John Cushnie

Mrs. John Cushnie (nee Sarah Jack) passed away at her home in Toronto on Saturday morning after suffering for some months with inward goitre. She was born on the old homestead on the 8th Con., 71 years ago last May, second youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jack, pioneer settlers. Hence she knew a good deal of the hardships and strenuous life of the early days. We readily recall the first day she learned to bind sheaves after the cradler and how adept she soon became with the band-twist. She grew into girlhood and young womanhood in the neighbourhood, taking a most prominent part in church, Sunday school and social life, always a ready helper and earnest worker. Later she spent some years in Toronto and there met Mr. Cushnie, to whom she was most happily wedded 21 years ago last December. They had a lovely home in the city, were in good financial circumstances and enjoyed many pleasant trips up to the old neighbourhood and kindred. During her illness her husband gave up his position to wait on her and her sister, Mrs. Hy. Williams, left her home also to assist in caring for her. Her brother, Will, had been down two or three times during her illness.

The funeral took place on Monday, service being conducted in the city by her pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hazelwood, after which the remains were brought by motor hearse to Flesherton United Church, where a short service was conducted and an opportunity was given to the many friends present from Durham, Edge Hill, Ceylon, Zion and Flesherton to look once more on the face of one who helped much to add comfort to others.

Of the original family of seven, but four remain: Mrs. John McKeechie (Maggie) of Durham; Mrs. Henry Williams (Aggie) of Edge Hill; Samuel of Winnipeg and William R. on the old homestead.

The floral tributes were indeed beautiful and she was a lover of flowers through life.

A wide circle of friends, schoolmates and neighbours extend their sympathy to the bereaved husband, sisters and brothers.
