The Y.P.U. met on Wednesday evening, April 7th, in the church basement. The worship and discussion periods were taken by Mrs. C. Martin. Scripture passages were read by all present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Miss Hazel Turner, organist of the Y.P.U., was present, after being absent for many meetings through illness. The Y.P.U. members were pleased to have her back again. The topic for discussion was "Why? The Fundamental Motive Behind Missions," which was interesting. Readings were given. "Hymenials" by Mabel Duckett; "Night and Morning" by Evelyn Campbell; "What Christ Means to India" by Leona Duckett. The meeting closed in prayer by the president.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Ross Smith and to Mrs. John Parson in their recent sad bereavement caused by the death of the late Mr. Richard McMullen, who was the former's uncle and the latter's brother-in-law.

We are sorry to report Mr. James Leppard quite ill at present. His daughter, Mrs. Rody Gordon, and daughter, Ruth, and his nephew and niece, Mr. Jos. Leppard and Mrs. Merton Sewell, of Beaverdale visited him on Sunday. His daughter remained for a couple of weeks. We hope Mr. Leppard is soon well again.

Mr. Ray Genoe visited his wife in Toronto hospital during the past week. Mrs. Genoe is improving and we wish her a complete recovery.

Mr. Robert Gorley is also on the sick list. At time of writing we are pleased to report that he is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parvis and children of Toronto spent the week-end with the former's parents here. Miss Shirley, who has spent a fortnight with her grandparents, returned home.

Mrs. McMullen, who has spent the past few months with friends elsewhere, has returned to her home in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young and little daughter, Carol, of Sarnia spent the week-end with Mrs. Y's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Duckett.

Little Roy Fawcett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fawcett, accidentally fell on the sidewalk while returning from school one day last week and hurt his knee. At present he has a very sore knee and is unable to attend school. We hope the little lad is soon well again.

Mrs. C. Martin attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Cantelon (nee Miss Martha Clark), who passed away in Toronto hospital. Interment took place on Thursday in Flesher-ton mortuary chapel. Other friends present were: Mrs. Marquis and family of Thornton; Mr. Gregory Clark, Mr. Jos. Clark, jr., and Miss Phyllis Cooper of Toronto; Mr. Jos. Clark of Pickering; Mr. Ball and Mr. Cantelon of Clinton; Mr. Harold Lever. Beautiful floral tributes showed love for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

Mr. Will Hawkins, Mrs. Samuel Hawkins and family and Mr. Jos. Sherwood attended the funeral on Friday of the late Mr. Thos. Hawkins of Kimberley. We extend sympathy to those in bereavement.

Miss Josie Falconer of Toronto is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Falconer.

Miss Gladys Williams has gone to Toronto to secure a position.

Mr. Will Fenwick has purchased a car.

Some of our farmers are plowing while others are finishing up the wood problem.

WILLIAMSFORD

The Williamsford Women's Institute held their April meeting on Wednesday, the 7th, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Davidson, with an attendance of 17 members and 8 visitors. The meeting opened with singing the Ode and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. It was decided to send Miss Stella Davidson as a delegate to the Girls' Conference in Guelph in May. There were some letters of thanks read. Mrs. C. Miller gave a reading; a contest by Mrs. Markle was won by Mrs. Wm. Davidson; community singing was also enjoyed. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, after which the hostess served lunch, assisted by Mrs. McGrath and Stella Davidson. The next meeting is to be held in the hall as it is the election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Schweitow and son, Ray, of Detroit visited Mrs. Stafford last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Hamilton spent the week-end with the latter's sister, Mrs. F. Stafford.

Mrs. Harnack received the sad news that her sister in Hanover had passed away. Mrs. Harnack attended the funeral.

Rev. Paul L. Miller and family of Glendale, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller.

Mrs. Stafford attended the Provincial Federal Board at Toronto last week.

The regular monthly meeting of St. James' Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Heft on Thursday afternoon, April 9th, with an attendance of 17 members and 3 visitors. There was considerable business and discussion re some quilts the ladies are making. A committee was appointed to look after the purchasing, etc., of shingles for the church roof. Mrs. John Molson and Mrs. W. Heft were named for the new program committee. Mrs. O. Lipsky invited the ladies to her home for the May meeting. A poem, "Friends," written by Jack Jamieson, was read by Mrs. L. Kuglin; "The Soul of a Child" was read by Mrs. D. Nuhn; "The Maple Tree" was read by Mrs. C. Miller and "Home" by Mrs. W. Heft; Mrs. W. Heft also conducted a nut contest with Mrs. C. Miller as winner; a vocal solo, "Softly and Tenderly," by Rita Leino was much enjoyed; a sewing words contest was conducted by Mrs. O. Lipsky and won by Mrs. A. Myers. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. Heft, Miss Rita Leino, Mrs. Henry Heft and Miss Emma Heft.

A miscellaneous shower was held in the hall on Monday evening in honor of the recent bride, Mrs. Arthur Ellis. On account of the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as it might have been. The bride received a number of beautiful and useful gifts which showed the esteem in which she was held.

LIVE STOCK MARKET REPORT

by DUNN & LEVACK, TORONTO

Monday's cattle market displayed considerable activity and prices advanced a strong quarter on all classes but heavy steers. The best demand was shown for choice handy weight butcher cattle, heifers and cows.

Best heavy steers sold at from $5.00 to $5.50; fair to good from 7.50 to 8.00; common to medium 6.00 to 7.00. In the butcher section, choice butcher cattle were in strong demand at from 7.00 to 7.50; fair to good from 6.50 to 7.00; common to medium 5.50 to 6.25. Choice baby heaves brought from 7.50 to 8.00, others lower, according to quality. Stockers and feeders were in strong demand, choice light kind from 4.75 to 5.50 and feeders from 3.75 to 6.25. The cow trade was active, choice heifers cows from 5.00 to 5.50; fair to good from 4.50 to 5.00; common to medium 3.25 to 4.00; canners and cutters 2.00 to 2.65. Choice light butcher bulls sold readily at from 4.75 to 5.25; heavy bulls from 4.25 to 4.50; bolognas from 3.75 to 4.25.

Lambs featured the market, advancing to a new high of 11c. The offering was made up largely of Western feed lot shipments, besides a good assortment of Ontario lambs. Choice light sheep made from 6.00 to 6.50. The calf market was active and strong, choice calves from 9.00 to 9.50, with a few tops at 10c; fair to good from 7.50 to 8.75; common to medium 5.00 to 6.50.

Supplies of hogs were heavy and packers were bidding a quarter lower, sales being made on the basis of $5.60 to $7.75 for truck deliveries, and the prospects for the balance of the week are that prices will be steady.
