The Anglican Church at Berkeley was considerably damaged on Wednesday afternoon of this week when the high winds shook from their place a large quantity of the brick forming the front walls. In this issue we give a history of this Church which was erected almost 50 years ago. It is hoped that the damage caused by the storm will not be a serious set-back to the congregation.

A very notable Service will be held in St. Matthias' Church, Berkeley, D.V., on Sunday afternoon, June 13, Bishop Seager officiating, to mark the Fiftieth Anniversary of the building of the Church.
