Services on Sunday in Cooke's Church

Mothers' Day at Cooke's Presbyterian Church was fittingly observed on Sunday morning when the Sunday School scholars met with the congregation at the usual hour of service to do honour to Motherhood. The scholars occupied the centre pews while those on the sides were occupied with parents, friends and visitors. The Mothers' Day service prepared by the committee on S. S. and Y. P. S. was followed. The Service of Praise was led by a Mothers' choir which rendered in a very acceptable manner two anthems, "The Sweet Old Songs I Heard My Mother Sing" and "The Church of Long Ago." The Sacrament of Baptism was administered, the recipient being the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alcox. The hymn "Jesus Loves Me" was sweetly sung by the pupils of the Beginners and Primary classes. The address, the theme of which was "The Nation's Debt to the Child's First Teacher," was given by the minister, Rev. T. O. Miller. The speaker pointed out that "the child receives from his mother his first instruction and also his early ideas of right and wrong, his first training in the habit of submission to constituted authority; all of which are important in the making of a good citizen. Reference was made to some of the great world leaders who owed much of their unusual character and ability to the early training of their mothers. In closing the speaker reminded the parents of the value of home preparation of the Sunday School lessons and of regular attendance at S. S. and Church services.

The service in the evening followed the order issued by the Presbyterian Publications. The dominant thought throughout was the approaching Coronation of King George and Queen Elizabeth which the speaker pointed out was one of a religious character. Hymns, readings and prayers were all appropriate to the occasion. The text chosen was "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." Matthew 22:21. The high moral qualities of Queen Victoria and her successors have inspired the loyalty of all classes of citizens. The present King and Queen give promise of retaining the loyalty and affection given to their predecessors. The people were urged to live up to the high ideals of Christian citizenship and to prove themselves worthy subjects of a worthy King and loyal followers of the Divine Master. The choir used as an anthem the patriotic selection "Lord of the Lands."

Mr. Trevor Thompson of Riverdale visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson.

Don't Send LEEK Flavoured Cream

Grading of print butter, which went into effect last fall, will not enable us to accept leek flavoured or off-grade cream. We, therefore, wish to announce that from now on this grade of cream cannot be accepted to be manufactured into butter.

The production of leek flavoured cream can be prevented by keeping the cows out of pastures where leeks grow. All cows do not eat leeks and leek flavoured milk from individual cows should be kept separate and not put through the separator.

CREAM

Figures Speak for Themselves

The figures below will indicate our steady increase in business during the eleven years we have been operating the Markdale Creamery. In the year 1926 we manufactured 275,000 pounds of butter, with increased annual production up to the present time.

In 1934, 524,489 lbs.
In 1935, 578,542 lbs.
In 1936, 621,619 lbs.

WERE MANUFACTURED

The demand for our butter has grown even greater than the increased production. With the cream producing season near at hand we are again asking you for your full patronage and in return we will give you the HIGHEST possible market prices for your cream and eggs, plus best possible service.

When you are coming to town bring your can of cream with you and receive the additional cent per pound butterfat over truck prices; or have our truck call to pick up your cream.

THE CREAMERY WILL BE OPEN EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT
