HARKAWAY

The Annual Sunday School Garden Party will be held on the church grounds on Friday evening, June 18.

The members of the Women's Missionary Society held the monthly meeting at the Parsonage in Holland Centre on Wednesday, June 2nd, with the President, Mrs. A. Barry, in charge. The theme of the meeting throughout was "Jesus at home in Canada," and was opened with the theme song. Hymn 504 "I Love to Tell the Story", was sung. Scripture from various parts of St. Luke was read by several of the members. Hymn 501, "Will Your Anchor Hold", was then sung followed by prayer by Rev. C. C. Wellerman. The minutes were read and adopted. Fourteen members answered the roll call with several visitors present. Two letters were read from the Fred. Victor Home requesting fruit and eggs. The eggs are to be brought to the next meeting and the fruit handed in later. The business was all finished for the bale, most of the members bringing their share to the meeting. Mrs. J. Halbert and Mrs. Jas. Rodman packed it on June 5th. Solos were given by Mrs. Kidd and Mrs. Hawken. Mrs. C. C. Wellerman was presented with a life membership pin. Mrs. Amos Boyes read the address thanking her for her untiring interest in the W.M.S. work, while Mrs. D. L. Binns presented the pin. Mrs. Wellerman replied, telling the members how she enjoyed working amongst them. The meeting then closed with the benediction, after which lunch was served. Tea money was 55 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Myles D'Arly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Den. Ryan and family, Mrs. Frank McAssey and Mr. Joe Connor attended the Lacey-Schmidt wedding in Chepstow on Saturday.

Unfortunately, we were unable, last week, to write up Zion's 76th anniversary, but it proved one of the best in its long history. Rev. Geo. Service of Flesherton had charge of both morning and evening services and the Church was crowded on both occasions to hear him. His sermons were masterly in logic, convincing in argument, earnest and emotional, and he held the intense interest of his hearers. The home choir, assisted by Mr. Bert Saunders of Durham, led the service of song in the morning and Queen St. United Church choir, a full score strong, added greatly to the evening service.

On Monday evening, the Church was packed to the doors and listened to a varied and much appreciated program of songs, music and readings. Rev. R. G. Halbert, the pastor, presided. The Durham band quintette gave three selections that were specially good. Winsome Miss Audrey Richards of Berkeley made her first appearance before a Zion audience and was rapturously encored, so was bright Phyllis Vaughan, who brought down the house, with her local hits. Good readings were given by Miss Katie May Firth and Victor Williams. Musical selections by Dave Allen; a trio by Mrs. Arthur McNally, Mrs. Will Ellison and Leona, Misses Esther and Mary Bourne and Marjorie Middleton and Zion orchestra were all stirring numbers. A solo by Mrs. Mark Wilson of Durham; duet by Mrs. T. Glencross and Miss Anderson; a duet by the Teeter sisters, with Miss Velma McNally as accompanist; Durham male chorus, and G. R. Padfield's humorous speech made a most enjoyable entertainment. The ladies served a big lunch at the close. 'Tis a day that will be long held in memory.
