Wedding Bells! Wedding Bells!

Porteous - Magee

On Saturday, June 5, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage at Maxwell, when Miss Evelyn Rowena, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Cecil Porteous, only son of Mr. Jas. Porteous and the late Mrs. Porteous, 5th Line. A dainty wedding repast was served at the home of the bride's parents, where immediate relatives were present. The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside on the 5th Line. We extend our heartiest congratulations to them for a happy wedded life.

MacDonald - Turner

On Wednesday afternoon, June 2, at 2 o'clock, a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the parsonage at Maxwell, where Rev. Mr. Bushell, United Church Pastor, united in holy bonds of matrimony Margaret Evelyn, only daughter of Mr. Oliver Turner and the late Mrs. Turner, 10th Line, and Mr. William Aubrey MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacDonald of Singhampton. The winsome bride looked charming in a pretty frock of white satin with over dress of embroidered net. She wore a veil and bridal wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses and maiden hair fern. The young couple were attended by Mr. Harold Turner and Miss Ila Magee. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of in the dining room, which was artistically decorated in pink and white. The table was centred with a three-storey wedding cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom and silver trimmings. Immediate relatives only were present. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald later left on a motor trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and other points. The bride's travelling costume was a blue suit with white hat and other accessories in harmony. They returned on Friday night and left Sunday morning for Sudbury where they will reside and where Mr. MacDonald has a lucrative position. Our best wishes go with them.

On Friday evening of last week the many friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Turner in honour of the recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald. A very pleasant time was spent until the wee small hours of the morning. During the course of the evening the newly married were presented with an address and some tokens of remembrance. The address was read by Miss Irva Magee while Mrs. Ross Smith and Miss Kathleen Pedlar made the presentation of an Aladdin lamp, a clock and a bed set. Mr. MacDonald, in behalf of his wife and himself, replied in a few well chosen words, thanking all for their kindness. Evelyn is a highly esteemed young lady and will be missed in the locality.

Week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCowell, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Legard and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kellar of Toronto.

Mr. Will Hawkins and sons, Robt. and Jos., have purchased a handsome new Dodge car. We wish them much pleasure with it. Jos. makes a good chauffeur.

Miss Evelyn Campbell was a guest at the Porteous - Magee nuptial on Saturday.

by DUNN & LEVACK, TORONTO

In spite of the heavy supplies of cattle which arrived for Monday's market, the trade was active and steady. Export buyers for shipments to both the United Kingdom and the United States were again prominent operators, which was of much assistance to the market as a whole.

Choice heavy steers were in good demand at from $2.25 to $2.75; fair to good from 7.75 to $2.25; medium from 7.00 to 7.50. In the butcher section, choice handy weight steers and heifers sold readily at from 7.75 to $2.00; fair to good from 7.00 to 7.65; common to medium from 6.00 to 7.00. Choice baby beefs brought from $5.50 to 9.00; medium to good from 7.00 to $2.25. Stockers and feeders were in good demand, selected light cattle selling from 5.00 to 5.50 and feeders from 6.00 to 6.50. The cow trade held steady, choice fat cows from 5.50 to 5.75 and choice heifers cows from 6.00 to 6.25; fair to good butcher cows from 4.50 to 5.25; common to medium 3.25 to 4.00; canners and cutters 2.50 to 3.00. Milch cows and springers were slow of sale. Choice heavy bulls sold at from 4.50 to 5.00 and bolognas from 4.00 to 4.25.

In the small meats, choice spring lambs sold at from 12.75 to 13.00 on Monday. The indications are that prices will work lower as the supplies increase. The sheep trade was slow. The calf market held steady with the close of the week previous, which was lower, choice calves selling at 7.50, with an occasional calf of fancy quality at $2.00; fair to good calves from 6.00 to 7.00; common to medium 5.00 to 6.00.

The hog market was at a standstill on account of lower bids from the buyers. No price settlement was made on Monday, but it was felt sales would be completed at $2.75 and better.
