

EUGENIA

(Intended for last week.)

The Late Mrs. McKinnon

Death again visited our village on Sunday morning, June 27th, and took to the great beyond the life of Mrs. McKinnon. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Isabelle Sinclair, was born at Priceville 76 years ago, where she spent her girlhood days. Fifty-eight years ago she was married at Tiverton to the late Mr. D. McKinnon, residing there until moving to Flesherton about 38 years ago. The past few weeks the late Mrs. McKinnon was staying with her daughter, Mrs. H. Foerster, where she was tenderly cared for. Owing to heart trouble she became weaker and weaker until at last she had to surrender to death and go home to her Maker, where pain and sufferings are no more. Those who knew her found in her a faithful friend. She was a kind mother and a good neighbour.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, June 29th, from the home of her daughter, Rev. Albert Bushell of Eugenia United Church officiated. He read Scripture passages from Revelations and delivered a very comforting and impressive sermon based on "Death". He spoke of the christian qualities of the deceased and was assured that they had won for her a home among the blessed. The hymns sung were "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Forever With the Lord". The choir sang "When the Roll is Called up Yonder". The pastor closed his service with a most comforting prayer to the bereaved ones.

Floral tributes of sympathy and love were very beautiful and included a pillow from the family; wreath from the Bell Telephone staff; a wreath from sisters; spray from two nieces; spray from Eugenia neighbours; spray from Mrs. G. C. Graham; spray from Mr. and Mrs. Hill; spray from the Armitage family; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick; basket from McCracken family; basket from Flesherton neighbours; sprays from Mrs. Carruthers, Mrs. G. W. Graham and Mrs. Sloan.

Interment took place in the family plot in Flesherton cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Lewis Genoe, Jack Campbell and Francis Genoe of Eugenia, Barney Welton, Thos. Fisher and Geo. McTavish of Flesherton.

Two sisters and one brother survive, namely: Miss Minnie Sinclair and Mrs. J. McRae of Toronto, and Mr. Neil McKinnon of Lethbridge. Two brothers, Donald and Duncan, and one sister, Tena, predeceased her. Of a family of four sons and two daughters there are left to mourn the loss of a dear mother two sons, Charles in the West and Gordon in Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Foerster of Eugenia. Two sons, Neil and Donald, and a daughter, Mrs. Geo. Norris, passed on before.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. J. McRae, Miss Minnie Sinclair, Jack Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Drier, Frazer and Bernice of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Armitage, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage of Guelph; Mr. Miller and two other members of the Bell Telephone staff in Toronto.

We extend our profound sympathy to the family in their sad bereavement.

She fell asleep in Christ her Lord;
She gave to Him to keep
Her soul: the great Lord did adore,
'And calmly went to sleep.
And as a tired bird her wings
Sure of the morning light,
She found in Him a resting place,
And did not dread the night.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. Thos. McKee and relatives in the loss of his sister, Mrs. Hahn, whose funeral took place on June 24th. Those attending the funeral from this community were: Mr. and Mrs. T. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Carruthers and Miss Muriel and Mr. Victor Campbell.

The entrance pupils, Bryce Hanley and Jimmie Magee, 8th line, and Jean Proctor from the village, who wrote the exams. at Flesherton, were all successful. Hazel Magee, 8th line, and Doris Fawcett of the village passed on the year's work. We extend congratulations to them and to their teachers, Mr. R. Smith of the 8th line and Miss Irene Dinsmore of Eugenia.
