Celebration on July 12th

the admission fee of a quarter which was charged. In the colt race two horses competed and Charlotte Boy, owned by Vincent Keating of Corbetton, won in two heats over Bertha E. Patch, owned by Galbraith Bros. of Tara. The first classified race was won by Lee Hanley, owned by Russ. Simpson of Gowanstown, with a third and two firsts. Peter J. (Galbraith Bros.) was second with a first, second and third, while Lola K. (J. J. Smith, Orangeville) was third with two seconds and a third. In the second classified race Bert Patch (M. E. Wilson) had two firsts and one second; Ruby Brewer (E. Wray, Schomberg) a first, a third and a second, and Dan. Patch Jr. (Galbraith Bros.) one second and two thirds. Mr. O. Wilder of Toronto was in charge of the races.

A splendid program was given by the Dundalk-Honeywood band on Mrs. C. W. Rutledge's lawn in the evening previous to the concert which was held in the armouries. The program in the armouries was a play, "Who Rules the Roost", and was put on by members of the Loyal True Blue Lodge of Owen Sound. Following this a dance was held in the armouries.

NOTES

Mr. Wm. A. Goodfellow of Dundalk was awarded the prize for the oldest Orangeman in the parade. Markdale lodge had an older member in the person of Mr. Jos. Hawk-en, but being at home no entry was made.

Grey Lodge of Owen Sound got the prize for coming the longest distance; Dundalk L.O.B.A. was the best dressed ladies' lodge and Dundalk L.O.L. the best dressed men's lodge.

The amplifying outfit was provided by Mr. W. L. Osborne of Dundalk and it was used by several amateurs on Main Street during the evening.

The program provided by the committee in charge was one of the best in connection with any celebration in the Province of Ontario and was appreciated by all who were here on Monday.

There will be little, if any, profit from the efforts of the committee but they have the satisfaction of knowing that they did their part well. Mr. A. O. Gillespie, the chairman, worked hard and his efforts are much appreciated.

No accidents or other unpleasant incident marred the day's proceedings.

Warton, Mt. Forest and Collingwood had larger celebrations but none were more enjoyable than the one in Markdale.

County Master J. J. Jamieson of Hatherton and County Marshal Harold Richardson of Orange Valley headed the parade on a pair of fine grey horses.

A visiting bandsman, who has attended many gatherings on July 12th, said: "It was the cleanest and best conducted celebration I have ever attended. I certainly enjoyed myself."

Swinton Park lodge, as usual, had the Haw brothers and their sons with pipes and drums supplying the music for the parade. They were good.
