Holiday Down by the Sea

The Maritimes, where Canada begins, offer a combination of holiday attractions that have made the three sea-girt provinces very popular among Canadians and Americans alike.

The rare mixture of historic sites, scenic beauty, and opportunities for all types of out-door sports gives New Brunswick and Nova Scotia an unusual attraction for visitors.

The Algonquin Hotel, at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, holds its place as New Brunswick's leading resort by virtue of its splendid position on the bay of Fundy, its two fine golf courses, and its facilities for fishing, boating, and other sports. Open from June 26 to September 7, the Algonquin is particularly popular among Americans because of the nearness of President Roosevelt's summer home at Campobello.

Across the Bay of Fundy—a delightful trip by the steamer Princess Helene—from Saint John to Digby, lies Nova Scotia. Visitors are always interested in that section where the poignant story of Evangeline was enacted. Canadian Pacific Railway hotels at leading holiday points in Nova Scotia include: The Pines, at Digby, open from June 25 to September 11; Lakeside Inn, near Yarmouth, open from June 28 to September 7; and Cornwallis Inn, at Kentville, in the heart of the Land of Evangeline, open all year. Chief amusements at these resorts are golf, tennis, motoring, sea fishing, boating, and bathing. The pictures above show Evangeline Well at Grand Pre; the "Princess Helene" which joins Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; Katy's Cove at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, N.B.; a typical Nova Scotia fishing schooner; and a social gathering at Lakeside Inn, Yarmouth, N.S.
