NEW ENGLAND LADIES' AID

New England Ladies Aid met at the home of Miss Margaret Love on July 15th with a good attendance of members, visitors and children. The meeting opened by singing led by Mrs. Gordon Wiley on the violin. Mrs. Devitt read the 12th chapter of Romans followed by the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. An interesting feature of the meeting was the end of the copper contest and the counting of same, which added about $12.00 to the funds. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Devitt and Mrs. George Wiley for their trouble in purchasing the ice cream freezer. An ice cream social is advertised to take place July 29th. A motion was passed to donate another $25.00 to the $100.00 already given to the church shingling fund. Miss Love gave two selections on the auto-harp, "Bringing in the Sheaves" and "The Little Brown Church in the Vale," which was very much enjoyed by all. A pleasing duet was given by Misses Elva and Joy Wiley "Only Shadows". A little change from the usual program took place when Mrs. Stanley Clugston gave a very instructive talk on pickling and canning, and leading a discussion on same. Members exchanging pickling and canning recipes and hints. The meeting closed by the benediction repeated in unison.
