Reception Held for Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Oliver

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harris on Monday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar Oliver was well attended, very many availing themselves of the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Oliver, and her popular and distinguished husband, who for the past eleven years has represented South Grey in the Legislature. The rooms, bright with the subdued hum of pleasant conversation, presented an animated scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris were assisting in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Thompson. Guests were invited to the dining room by Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Wm. Swanton. At the dining table, which was covered with a beautiful lace cloth, and centered with a bowl of golden chrysanthemums and lighted tapers, Mrs. J. A. McArthur and Mrs. J. W. Elliott poured tea. Having charge of the room were Mrs. J. B. Matthews of Toronto, sister of Mrs. Harris, and Mrs. L. Rapp. Assisting in serving were Misses Eileen and Sella Thompson, Jane and Marion Noble, Helen Carefoot, Elda Kinney and Minnie Swanton.

Former Markdale Boy Robbed at Banff, Alberta

The following item, clipped from the weekly newspaper at Banff, Alta., refers to a former Markdale boy, Mr. Fred Matthews, son of Mrs. Naomi Matthews of this place:

Thursday morning about 5.30 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews had an expensive and thrilling experience. The expense part of the experience was that Mr. Matthews lost approximately $50.00 in bills. The thrilling part was when Mrs. Matthews, awakened by the barking of her pet dog, discovered that an intruder was in their chamber, rummaging into their belongings. As soon as she realized what was taking place she shouted to Mr. Matthews, and the same moment a man dashed from their bed chamber. Running down the stairs with Mr. Matthews' trousers in his possession, which contained a considerable sum of money in the pockets, the early morning caller lost the silver which was in the pockets, but the currency failed to roll out and thus the house prowler is at the present time ahead of the game to the extent of approximately fifty bucks—Fred is out that sum.

Mrs. Matthews, as stated above, was awakened by the barking of her pet dog. She immediately realized that someone was in their bedroom, and called Mr. Matthews who was sleeping on the opposite side of the room. The burglar took fright and started for the stairway. Mr. Matthews took up the chase. The burglar went out the front door facing on Beaver Street. Mr. Matthews was close to the burglar as they hit the street, but as he was barefooted was compelled to give up the chase. The burglar ran across the school grounds and as he crossed the roadway his cap fell off, and is now in possession of the police.

Later in the morning Mr. Matthews' trousers were found behind Percy Williams' paint shop on Banff Avenue. The roll of bills, some $50.00, was missing, but the private papers and the keys to his barber shop were left in the pockets.

Ward - Mundle

In Markdale on Monday, Oct. 4th, at four o'clock a quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Graham, of Ada Georgina Mundle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mundle of Kimberley, and Noble Hazard Ward, second youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ward sr. of Lions Head, Rev. Donald Sinclair of Hepworth Baptist Church officiating. The bride was attired in a form fitting gown of dove blue with accessories to harmonize. After the signing of the register a wedding dinner was served to immediate relatives and friends. The young couple will reside at Kimberley.

Goode - Cooper

In the presence of the immediate relatives of the two principals, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 29th, 1937, and at the home of the bride's parents, 10 Montcalm Avenue, Toronto, Miss Eva Blanche Cooper, was united in marriage with Mr. Fred W. Goode, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Goode, Willowdale. Becomingly clad in a gown of Forget-me-not blue chiffon over taffeta and carrying Briarcliffe roses, the bride was presented by her brother, Mr. Clifford Cooper and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank N. Bowes, former pastor of the bride in Annesley Church, Markdale, and of Hillsdale Church, Toronto, and of both the bride and the bridegroom at Willowdale United Church. Mr. and Mrs. Goode left by motor on a honeymoon trip to Northern points after which they will reside at 218 Fulton Avenue, Toronto, where Mr. Goode will be close to his work in connection with an east end firm.

Dr. R. H. Henderson Dies

The funeral of the late Dr. Robt. H. Henderson, who passed away at his home in Toronto on Tuesday evening. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon with interment in Flesherton Cemetery. Service was held in St. John's United Church at 2.30 p.m., where "Dr. Bob" many times assisted the choir with his splendid bass voice. Rev. G. R. Service, pastor of the church, conducted the services. Thursday evening service was conducted at his late residence in Toronto, when a large number of friends paid their last respects to one who was highly regarded and respected in life.

The late Dr. R. H. Henderson was a son of the late Robert Henderson and Fanny Watson and was born on the old homestead near Portlaw 77 years ago. He received his early education in the Portlaw school and later attended the Royal College of Dental Surgeons and for many years practiced his profession in Toronto, specializing on exodontia, and retired several years ago following a prolonged illness. Since then he had not been enjoying the best of health, but at times was able to come to Flesherton and visit with his relatives and friends in this district who were always pleased to have him call. His cheery disposition and integrity of character will always be remembered by all who knew him. Besides his sorrowing wife he leaves to mourn two sons, Ivan and Eric. He also leaves one brother, Mr. Samuel Henderson of Toronto, the last of a family of nine children. He was a member of Grey Lodge No. 548, A.F. & A.M., Toronto.

The following Toronto citizens attended the funeral here: Mr. and Mrs. S. Henderson, Dr. Edgar and Mrs. Paul, Dr. F. W. Murray, Mr. Armour Carson, Mr. Stewart, Miss Helen Crawford, Mr. Robt. Hewson, Mrs. Thos. Henderson. From other points there were: Mr. and Mrs. Ligott and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clemence of Stayner, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford of Sarnia and Mrs. W. Howey of Owen Sound.—Flesherton Advance.
