Up in the Clouds

of copy, he proved to be the best instructor she could have had in the business of hunting down news. Where things happened, there sooner or later—generally sooner—Jimmy Hale would be found with his small car loaded with cameras, lamps and other equipment of his trade. Because the girl was given feature assignments almost from the first, she and Jimmy were thrown much together and he came to consider her his special charge. The time was to be when Jimmy would call her in the middle of the night if a story broke and together they would race to the spot, Jimmy to prowl for significant pictures and Natalie to hunt odd interviews and special details that made good feature material. Jimmy had unerring news hunches and it was he who, on that first of their days together, swung the car around to the mansion of Jake Marion, west coast plane builder and halted under the wide porte cochere.

IN MEMORIAM

MILLER—In loving memory of Mrs. Richard Miller, who passed away October 14th, 1935.

Deep in our hearts is a picture Worth more than silver and gold: It's a picture of our dear mother Whose memory will never grow old.

Sadly missed by Sons.

Vandeleur W. I. will hold the Oct. meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Davis on Oct. 21st.

TRAVERSTON

A goodly number of farmers who haven't their roots or apples housed are cursing the ugly weather.

Miss Annie Allan of Toronto is holidaying with her friend, Mrs. Hugh McArthur.

A flock of thousands upon thousands of blackbirds visited this vicinity last week. Grain growers were glad their harvests were safe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Atkinson and family of Berkeley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Peart on Sunday.

A monster truck load of roots and vegetables were gathered from this vicinity on Tuesday for the drought area of the west. A couple of car-loads were being shipped by C.P.R. from Durham.

Communion service was held in Zion on Sunday afternoon and a large number participated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cook and family of Kitchener spent the holiday at the W. J. Cook homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser and Miss Phyllis of Chatsworth, Mrs. Herb. Greenwood and son, Grant, of Durham visited the McClocklin and Edwards homesteads on Sunday.

W. H. of Toronto and Ivan of Shelburne visited the latter home.
