

WODEHOUSE

Hallowe'en passed off quietly. The teacher, Miss Parker, and pupils celebrated by a concert on Friday afternoon. Master Glen Kirkpatrick won the first prize in the masquerade and was dressed as a clown. The teacher treated all to candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wiley, little Miss Clara and Miss Ella Wiley visited with friends in Meaford one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick attended the funeral of the former's uncle, Mr. John Burns, of St. Vincent on Monday. To them we offer sympathy and also to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilcox in the death of the latter's aunt, Miss Mary Menary of Temple Hill.

The Ladies' Aid quilted a quilt at the home of Mrs. M. Devitt at Sligo the past week.

Miss Mary Wiley of Markdale was a visitor over the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Jno. Morrison, Mr. Morrison and family.

Messrs. Victor and Frank Wiley made a business trip to Warton on Thursday last.

Mrs. J. Cherry spent the week-end with Miss Parker at her parental home in Flesherton.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alton, Miss Helen, and Mrs. Clara Wiley of Markdale were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Gordon Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elford and Billie were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cornfield at Kimberley.

Anniversary services will be held in New England on Sunday next, November 7th. Rev. Geo. Service will be the preacher in the afternoon at 2.30 and in the evening at 7.30. The Meaford Quartette will assist at the evening service; in the afternoon the children's choir, under the leadership of Mr. Perry, will sing. A thank offering, as in former years, will be received.

Miss Helen Wiley was in Toronto last Saturday with the Markdale High School pupils, who had a most enjoyable, as well as instructive trip. They were accompanied by their principal, Mr. Sawyer, and teacher, Mr. Goheen.

Miss Parker attended the teacher's convention in Meaford on Wednesday of last week.

Little Eleanor Thompson of Rocklyn has been visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Thompson.

Miss Emily Lawson visited with friends in Toronto.

The W. I. held their October meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. Clugston.

CHERRY GROVE

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly here.

Everyone has their roots and corn gathered in but there seems to be a lot of plowing still to be done.

Mr. Mitch Harvey treated his family to a radio this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smart visited with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Boyd, and Mr. Boyd at Blantyre on Sunday.

Messrs. Geo. Smith and Kitch. Fisher of Toronto called on friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burnett visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Fester Myers and family.

Mr. Arnold Bowler, who is on the apple picking job near Thornbury, was home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Hill spent a day the first of the week with Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills, and family near Walters Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Woods motored over to Niagara Falls, N.Y., and visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Alex. Lang, and Mr. Lang.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Foster Myers and family were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woods and family of Oakville; Mr. and Mrs. H. Yerkie, Mr. and Mrs. T. Yerkie of Commanda and Miss Edna Ellwell of North Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bennett treated their friends and neighbors to a dance last Friday. A real good time with lots of good music and callers together with a jolly crowd make up a real evening's enjoyment.

Mr. Ran Bradey left on Tuesday for Owen Sound to serve on the jury.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Dickie were Mr. and Mrs. Will Swanton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Swanton and Mr. Robert Swanton of Cheeserville.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wyville and babe of Rosedale spent an evening recently with the Hoagson family.
