TEMPLE HILL

(Held over from last week)
Nancy McArthur, beloved wife of the late John E. Graham, and an aged and highly respected resident of this vicinity passed away at the home of her son, Edward, on Friday morning, Dec. 3. The late Mrs. Graham was born on July 28, 1852, at Erin, Ontario, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McArthur. She was married to the late John Graham on Jan. 24, 1882, and spent the first two years of their married life at Erin. They then moved to this district, settling on the farm where she died and where her son now resides, thus spending her entire life there. She was a woman who lived a contented life and seldom left home. Her husband passed away on Jan. 24, 1907, and after his death she continued to live on the farm with her family. To this union were born five children, three daughters and two sons: Ada (Mrs. John Boyd), who passed away in Jan. 1915; Elsie (Mrs. John Menary), Dunroon; Annetta (Mrs. J. J. Irwin) of this place; Edward on the home-stead, and Orville, who died Feb. 5, 1898. She also leaves to mourn her passing three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Cowan, Asquith, Sask.; Mrs. Pheobe Menary, Toronto; Mrs. Jean Wood of Erin; John McArthur of Erin; also thirteen grand-children and three great-grandchildren. The funeral, which was held on Sunday afternoon, was largely attended showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The service at the house and grave was conducted by Rev. A. E. Jenner. Three hymns were sung, "Rock of Ages", "What a Friend we have in Jesus" and "Abide with me". Burial was made in Temple Hill Cemetery. The floral tributes included a pillow from the family; sheaf, Mrs. M. Bell, Russell and Bertha Menary; sheaf, Orville, Leona and Jean Boyd; spray, Women's Association. The flower bearers were Jim Menary, Jas., Thos. and Stuart Merrifield. The pallbearers were Carl Boyd, Willard Menary, Clifford Erskine, Jas. Lepard, Chas. Fothergill and Eli Merrifield. Friends from a distance were: Mrs. Mac Bell, Mrs. Pheobe Menary, Toronto; Mrs. Jean Wood, Mr. John McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and daughter, Annie, of Erin; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kendrick, Mrs. Doney, Mrs. Sam. McVannell and Mr. Rupert Horner of Shelburne; Mr. Archie Cowan of Chatsworth; besides friends from Markdale, Berkeley and Harkaway. The sympathy of the community is extended to the sorrowing friends.

Mrs. Menary of Toronto and Mrs. Wood of Erin are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. Graham. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Erskine of Meaford were Sunday visitors with friends here.

A large number from here attended the Santa Claus day at Owen Sound on Saturday.

Mr. Harold Hutchinson is greatly improved after his recent illness.

EUGENIA

We have had some real winter weather the past week, and the roads are quite heavy.

Owing to the disagreeable weather and bad roads last week the Y.P.U. did not hold their weekly meeting on Wednesday, nor the Women's Association hold their meeting but postponed it until Thursday afternoon of this week.

On Tuesday evening of last week the many friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Victor McKenzie (nee Miss Annieta Turner), recently married, assembled in the Orange hall and spent a very enjoyable time. During the course of the evening an address was read by Mr. E. Gordon, while a presentation of four chairs, end table and a number of cream and green granite kitchen utensils were made on behalf of the community by Victor Campbell, James Hawken, Jos. Williams, W. Walker and Cecil Magee. Mr. McKenzie replied in behalf of himself and wife, thanking the people for their kindness and inviting all to visit them when they got settled in their home. All sang "For they are jolly good fellows", after which lunch was served. Social chat and dancing was the pastime of the evening. Annieta has been a member of the Y.P.U. and also an attendant of the Sunday School and Church and will be missed from the locality. We will have the pleasure of meeting her at times as her home will not be so far away.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Legard and grandson, Mr. Edwin Legard, of Glenside, Sask., will take up residence in Mr. Thos. Fenwick's house on the 8th Line until spring when they will move to Mr. H. Cairns farm in the suburbs.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Alex. Carruthers, husband and family in the loss of her sister, Edna, (Mrs. Ralph Weekes) of MacTier, who passed away last week after a prolonged illness.

Mr. Norval Betts has been on the sick list the past week or so. We hope he is soon well again.
