MESSRS. BEIRNES, BUCHANAN AND DIXON ARE ELECTED AS COUNCILLORS

The election in Holland Township on Monday created considerable interest and a fairly good vote was cast. Messrs. J. S. Price, candidate for the Reeveship; Robt. McFadden, for Deputy-Reeve, and Harold Gillespie, for Councillor, were the defeated candidates. All reside in the Berkeley poll. For the Recreship, Geo. Hanna had a majority in all polls but Berkeley and Holland Centre. W. Sutcliffe, Deputy-Reeve, was ahead in all but the Berkeley poll. Reeve Hanna and Councillor Russell Dixon are the only members of the 1937 Council who will sit at the table in 1938. Below we give the result by polls:

More Valley Road Support From Artemesia Resident

To the Editor of The Standard: Dear Sir,-In your last issue I logical route. The grade is easy piano. and there is plenty of material for construction, in fact plenty of gravel for the whole township. Our Reeve former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. or the County Council should draw Buchanan, and other relatives. the attention of the Department of Highways to this the most beautiful spent a week with friends in Toronroute to the Georgian Bay and Meaford with its wonderful fishing, now better known in the United States than in Canada. It is too bad that things are allowed to drift along for want of leadership. Can we look to the members of the County Council for this leadership?

Walker Held on Friday

The funeral of the late John E. Walker, to whose passing we referred briefly last week, took place on Friday afternoon. From the home of Mrs. C. W. Rutledge the remain were conveyed to Annesley United Church where the service was in charge of Rev. H. S. Warren. In his address the minister paid a fine tribute to the sterling qualities of the deceased. During the service Mr. J. H. Dundas sang an appropriate solo. The remains were then placed in the Memorial Chapel to await burial in the spring. Messrs. T. H. Reburn, John Hannah, T. H. Wilson, A. O. Gillespie, G. W. Littlejohns and A. E. Colgan were the pallbearers.

The floral tributes included many beautiful contributions from relatives and friends.

Among those from outside points here for the funeral were: Dr. Harry Borden of Preston; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borden and Miss Jean of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hewitt, Mrs. Ernie McKibbon and Mr. John Matthewson of Massie; Mrs. Albert Walker and on, Grant, of Orangeville. John E. Walker was the oldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, pioneer residents of Holland, and he was born in that township nearly 79 years ago. When a young man he served in Hills' gen eral store and in the Trelford hardware. Later he was in business in Flesherton before entering the grocery business here, which he conducted for about twenty-five years As a businessman he had a reputation for honesty and integrity which made and held him many loval supporters. A few years ago he retired from business and since that time had been failing in health. Death came Wednesday morning following everal weeks' severe illness. He is survived by his wife, form erly Millie Littlejohns, three sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. Elizabeth Doherty and Miss M. A Walker in Detroit; Mrs. Geo. Bowers (Edith) of Swift Current, Sask., and Robert T. Walker of Nelson, B.C. Many sincere friends sympathize with Mrs. Walker and other sorrow ing relatives in their bereavement.

John Beaton Laid to Rest In Markdale Cemetery

Death came with startling suddenness to an old and highly esteemed resident of Holland Township, in the person of Mr. John Beaton, who passed away early Christmas morning. Deceased had been in failing health for some time but had been about as usual and was retiring for the night when he was stricken and passed peacefully away a few hours

Mr. Beaton, who was in his 74th year, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Beaton and was of Scotch descent. Thirty years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Cullen, who survives to mourn the loss of a kind husband. He also leaves two brothers and three sisters, namely: Lorne and Angus in Alberta; Mrs. Wm. Crockett of Manton; Mrs. B. H. Walden of Markdale, and Mrs. McGregor of Leeds, S.D.

Deceased was a man of sterling personality, a kindly neighbour and man well versed in the Scripture. The funeral was held Tuesday Markdale Cemetery. Rev. T. O. taken regarding the refinishing of Miller had charge of the service and furniture. A discussion on the addelivered a comforting message. The pallbearers were six neighbors: Walter Tebutt, Russell Allison, Nelson Kirk, Wm. McNally, Wm. Walker and W. J. Black.
