Orange Pekoe Blend

SKY GIRL

bags.

him.

pilot said to Elinor. "I'll come out in a few minutes, and engage the fellow

Elinor went back to the cabin. Sev eral lights were on her board, indicat-few seconds when Elinor noticed that Jack, from the pilot's comparent, was

Then the light was signaling again

A summons for Elinor to come back to the pilot's compartment.

As she passed Valdmirz, he touched her arm.

"Are those storm clouds?" he asked

So that was it. He was just nervous

"Why, yes," Elinor answered. "They have appeared quickly, haven't they

When she reacher the pilot's com-partment, the co-pilot said briefly, "Storm ahead. Wild weather. We have been trying to circle it, but it covers : vide area. Fog's too thick below for a landing. So we are going to climb.

Jack pointed the nose of the ship

"Gosh," he grumbled, "what a fog! Prepare your passengers for some rough sailing, Elinor, but don't let them get nervous."

Elinor returned to the cabin. She wasn't afraid. Jack could be depended on to pilot them to safety. Lightning flashed about the ship.

illuminating the darkened interior The nervous little man suddenly leaped to his feet. He seized Elinor's

"Tell the pilot to land!" he plead ed. "Don't-don't go on in this storm."

his seat. Turning, she spoke to the

"Don't be alarmed. We've encoun ered a storm but we're flying above

it. We'll be over it in a few m

"Tell the pilot not to go higher!

"What are you so jumpy about?"

have any trouble. Jack Newton and creamed. "I'm afraid-afraid!"

ended on a hysterical note.

"And so am I. Have the pilot land.
Tell the pilot to land!" The woman

n seat nine spoke. Her forced laugh ship right now!" a third passenger declared. "It's going in circles!"

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Royal Training For Quints

like a "royal family," it was disclosed the other day. Dr. A. R. Dafoe, physician to the five sisters, said they would be educated to understand they are unique-yet to grow normally no withstanding, just as children of roya families are trained to disregard the public attention they attract.

"There's something wrong with this other passengers in a calm voice.

But we'll fly around them, so don'

anxiously, pointing.

for a rapid ascent.

hand.

ments.

vourself.'

"Don't

about flying.

mention the

in conversation and

By NELLIE GRAF

SYNOPSIS Elinor Ames tries to escape the heartbreak of her postponed marriage to Dr. Norman Rogers by becoming an air stewardess. Dr. Rogers' mother approves an alliance between Norman ing passengers desired some service. She was too busy to pay much attenand wealthy Francine Bayless. No and wealthy Francine Bayers, the man is jealous of Jack Newton, the pilot who helped Elinor get her job. Leola Rogers, Norman's sister, is in Leola Rogers, Norman's sister, is in they have quare the co-pilot had been there only a company that they have quare the co-pilot had been there only a company things noticed that reled. Elinor plans a dinner to bring them together. Norman arrives unexsignaling for him to return. Valdmirz slumped in relief as the co-pilot left pectedly and leaves, jealously angry when he finds Elinor alone with Jack Several days later, Elinor sees Norman's silver plane at the airport. She climbs in and finds a newspaper ac-count of Norman's betrothal to Francine Bayless.

CHAPTER VII

Eilnor could not sit there and weep long. A sky girl has many duties. She climinate all trace of tears, make herself presentable, and get back to

As she waited for the passengers to come out, she noticed a man standing in the canvas alleyway leading to the terminal. He was a small, dark, foreign-looking man. Clutching a small green bag in each hand, he moved about pervously.

When the call, "All aboard, please," sounded, he hurried toward the place after a quick uneasy glance over his shoulder.

"Let me put your bags out of the way," the co-pilot suggested, as he helped the fellow in.

"No-no. I've things in them-papers and some medicine — that I'll need." He spoke with a foreign ac-

As he hurried inside, Elinor spoke to him. "Good morning. Seat seven, please." She noted the name, L. Valdmirz, destination New York. The man took the seat, grabbed a newspaper and appeared deeply engrossed. One of the green bags was on the seat by him. The other rested between his feet.

His teeth were chattering. Perspiration rolled down his face.

Elinor firmly shoved him back into between his feet. "Won't you allow me to put your bags up here in the rack?" Elinor

"No. no, no! They're all right." His eyes were furtive.
Elinor moved away. The man con tinued to sit, tense and quiet, as they got under way. Once or twice he glanced back at Elinor. He seemed to tell him not to go higher. Have him be under some sort of strain.

Elinor felt uneasy. There was some thing queer about the man. She wondered if she should talk it over with the co-pilot and finally flashed the sigthe co-pilot and linally flashed the sig-nal asking permission to come to the pilot's compartment. When the flash came, "Okay," she hurried forward, closing the door behind her.

described the fellow and mentioned her concern about him.
"That's the man who wouldn't give this lightning." up his baggage," the co-pilot said.

"He's nervous all right. Wonder what lightning," Elinor assured him. "We're he has in those bags?" perfectly safe."

'Might ask him if it's diamonds." Jack laughed.

'You go back to the cabin," the co

WOMEN WHO SUFFER

WOMEN who WOMEN who suffer in silence often pay a double penalty for wearing this gag of unselfishness or silly pride. Painful periods are nature's warning that something is wrong and needs

blue coal

Husband Leaves Twelve Wills

Widow Had to Journey to Court To Untangle Estate

Mr. Justice Langton, in the probate court, approved a settlement of the action in which a man who left £25, 600 made a dozen wills—four in succession to the same effect. Thomas Oswald Saunders died, aged 49. at Hendon, England, In March, 1936.

His executors, Harry Collison and Basil Ashby Saunders, set up a will of 1935. The widow, Mrs. Margaret Eileen Pennefather Saunders, of Dulverton Mansions, Gray's Inn road, London, set up a will of 1933, leaving all prop-erty to her, and alleged that from 1933 her husband suffered from general paralysis of the insane and, from 1931, from chronic alcoholism. John Morris, K.C. (for the executors), before handing in agreed terms for settlement, said he had the evidence of three doctors still to call who would say they saw no symptom of general paralysis of the insane. The executors had been actuated by no vindictiveness to Mrs. Saunders but by the wish to clear her husband's

"Anglo-American friendship is probably the most potent force for peace and stability in the world today." Evangeline Booth.

Some Appetizing Oven Dishes

Here is an interesting and flavor ul way of preparing the meat course Russian Shasslik

12 cubes (11/2 inch) roast lamb 3 medium-sized tomatoes, quartere small white onions, halved Salt

Pepper 3 cup butter 14 cup hot water

Arrange lamb, tomato quarters and onion halves alternately on six skew-ers. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pep-per and broil under a high flame, basting frequently with combined butter and water and turning often, until done. Serve at once. Approximate yield: 6 portions.

Sausages for Sunday morning breakfast with waffles, pancakes or toast. Yum! Yum! Try cooking them in this new and interesting way:

Sausages Baked in Bananas Six bananas, unpeeled; six to small link sausages (size, 12 to 16 sausages to the pound). Slit each banana lengthwise from tip to top to form and lengthwise from the to too to form a pocket, being careful not to cut through the skin on the under side. Place one or two link sausages in the opening of each banana. Arrange the bananas in baking dish, slit side up, and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees, F.) about 15 to 20 minutes or until sausages are done. Serves six. Suggestion: To brown sausages, place under broiler two to three minutes after baking, or fry until light brown before inserting into banana for baking. Boston Professor Works Out A Test System to Make Task Easy bang-up dinner is squash. Done in the shell it is indeed an appetizing addi

Winter Squash in The Thell 1 Ht bbard squash. 2 tablespoons butter

1 egg Salt and pepper. Milk

Part of a second squash may be used to make the shell full.

Cut off the top of a small Hubbard quash, remove seeds and stringy porlion. Place in a pan to bake or steam (about 2 hours) until tender. Remove pulp from shell, being careful to keep shell intact, mash pulp and season. Return mixture to shell. Smooth the surface to a dome shape, score with a knife, brush over with milk and beaten egg. Add bits of batter and place in oven a few minutes to brown.

European Veal Stew

1½ pounds lean veal. Flour, salt, pepper. 14 cup butter 2 Oxo cubes

1 small onion, finely chopped 14 teaspoon carraway seeds 14 lemon

14 pint sour cream. Select an inexpensive cut of veal Cut in pieces 2 inches square and ½ inch thick. Coat all over with season-

Make butter very hot in frying pan and brown meat, with onion, in the hot butter. Add carraway seeds (if you wish to use them), and the lemon (very thinly sliced) and cook a few moments longer. Add cream and Oxo. Transfer to baking dish and cover (or cover friend pan and complete cook-ing very gently, in frying pan); bake in a rather slow oven, 325 F., about 11/2 to 2 hours, until meat is very ten der Add cream during cooking, if the mixture becomes dry; season further, if necessary.

Children Have Special Hotel

In Hendon, Eng.—All "Guests" Have Well-to-Do Parents

Catering exclusively to cildren, a hotel has been opened in Hendon, Eng-land. Guests are between 10 days and 14 years old. All have well-to-do parents, some of whom are traveling abroad, divorced, or just uninterested n little ones

Four children of a woman who had eloped were registered without comment, and their father visits them regularly. Mrs. Bird German, the pro prietress, believes her hostelry one of the stangest in the world.

"Several of the guests are the children of divorced parents," she said, usually their mothers visit them during the day and the fathers at night. Two recent guests were Chinese bab-les 18 months old. Their mothers had come to London University to study

Missed Her Chance

William Perry, 75, of Iowa, jilted at the altar 50 years ago, vowed he would not speak again until the girl returned. He is still keeping his vow. The girl in the case undoubtedly made a mistake for William has shown that he would have made an ideal husband. church.

A Boston University professor has worked out a "yardstick" for picking a mate, says the Sydney Post-Record. Dr. David D. Vanghan, professor of Dr. David D. Vangana, processor of social ethics at the university's school of theology, who drew up the 22-point chart, said one of his students rated two girls by it, proposed to the one with the highest score and was accept-

Total Score 100 Each item in the "mate-chart" has a core, the total reaching 100 points, as ollows:

Health, seven points. Health, seven points.

Intelligence, family (biological inheritance), capacity for conjugal affection and personal integrity (faithfulness), six points each.

Age, education, religion and business

Age, education, religion and bush-ness ability received five points each. Four points each are awarded to the family (social inheritance); disposition (personality); emotional balance (patience) sense of humour, social-mindedness (unselfishness); sense of responsibility (ambition, self-reliance) appearance (style sense); common in erests (comradeship) and domestic

Three points each go to artistic and nesthetic interests; wealth and leisure time interests.

Quints' Finances Cause Perplexity

Guardian Says Girls' $17,000 An-nual Income Not Sufficient for Future Plans

Judge J. A. Valin, one of the three guardians of the Dionne quintuplets, aid last week the children have an ncome of $17,000 a year from their nvestments. On top of this is a large

"Their living expenses are heavy and amount to $24,000 a year," he said.
"If future plans for the quints materialize, this $21,000 a year will have to be vastly increased."

ncome from royalties and other

Judge Valin said the quints' fortune amounted to $520,000 and will probab-ly be a million dollars when they are 18 years old, nearly 15 years hence.

"With the exception of a few thou and dollars cash reserve, every penny is invested in provincial and dominion bonds," he said. The average yields of the bonds is a little over three per

Jilted Women Heckle Groom

Drown Out Bride's Answers With Chorus of "I Will"

When the officiating clergyman at a marriage at Chrudim, Czecheslova-kia, said, "Will you take this man to be your lawful husband," there was an unexpected commotion in the body of the church. Came two loud cries, "I will" from among the spectators, completely drowning out the quiet reply of the ride. The bridegroom had proposed to three women, and the two whom he had jilted had conspired to wreck the wedding. They continued their demonstration and almost succeeded

COLD

Take 2 "ASPIRIN" tablets n full glass of water. Rep ment in 2 hours. If throat is sore from trinom sir 3 "ASPIRIN" tablets in 1/3 glass of water. Gargle twice. This eases throat rawness and sore-ness almost instantly.

No family need neglect even minor head colds.

No family need neglect even minds head colds.

Here is what to do: Take two "Aspirin" tablets when you feel a cold coming on—with a full glass of water. Then repeat, if necessary, according to directions in each package. Relief comes rapidly.

The "Aspirin" method of relieving colds is the way many doctors approve. You take "Aspirin" for relief—then if you are not improved promptly, you call the family doctor.

"Aspirin" tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited, of Windsor, Ontario. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

In Accord With Canada

Colonel Deneys Reitz (Minister of Agriculture) referred in a speech a Victoria West to the recent address given by Lord Tweedsmuir, Governo: leneral of Canada, in which he de clared that Canada, in which he de clared that Canada must control he own foreign policy uninfluenced by either Great Britain or the United States.

Colonel Heitz expressed his complete agreement with this statement and said that South Africa was in the same position as Canada. She, too controlled her own destiny, and in any international crisis it would be for South Africa to decide her policy without outside influence.

HOW NURSE CURBED HER RHEUMATIC ASSES

Rheumatic Pains are no respecter of age, ser, or social position. Rich men, poor men; bury women and idle women all provide victims for this demon of poin. When Nurse Issaccon found that she had been singled out she set to work and cleared the Rheumatic Pains away with Fynnon Salt-and cleared the Kneimatic Pains and have hear Fynnon Salt.

"I am a private nurse," she write, "and have had Rheumatism since the War, having got so very wet at night when in charge of tents in the hospital grounds. That started the Rheiman Heart of the private promise Impage in my hands, showing feel by forming Impage in my hands, showing feel by forming Impage in Matron archer one package and am just starting the property of the tenth of the War of the Matron and the work of the much smaller and an ean tell what that means to me in my work. You can bet I shall keep on with Fynnon Salt and sing its praises everywhere."

Even stabborn cases will generally yield if you take Fynnon Salt every day. In a few days you will notice a new suppleness in the joints, a blessed freedom from pain. Fynnoshleat and proven British remedy, is now obtainable at any drug store—75 ca large packegs. If you have any difficulty retting supplies, write: Laurenian Agencies, St. Gabriel Street, Montreal.

The Spirit of Service

98 1774 1774

Perhaps it is their habit of public service that impels telephone girls all over the province to plan good cheer for underprivileged families at Christmas time. This year hundress of poor families benefited. The girls in the picture are representative of the thousands of telephone workers whose well-laid plans and well-filled baskets meant a brighter Christmas for so many of their less fortunate neighbors.

LAURA WHEELER OFFERS YOU AN EASY DRESS

TO CROCHET

CROCHETED DRESS

PATTERN 1658

A simple mesh with puff stitch dots is quickly and easily crocheted into this charming dress. Use mercerized cotton in fresh Spring colours. Pattern 1658 contain directions for making the dress in sizes 4 to 8 (all given in one pattern); an illustration of it and of all the stitches used; material require-pattern); an illustration of it and of all the stitches used; material requirements; photograph of detail of stich.

Send 20 cents in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Wilson Needlecraft Department, 73 West Adelaide Street, Toronto, (Room 425). Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

How Life Began: A New Theory Elinor laughed. "We're not going to

Is Advanced That Evolution Of his co-pilot are veteran flyers. They Life Started On This Planet Following Collision With Anknow every inch of this route. Calm other Planet.

The man looked at her, his eyes gimlets of fear. "You don't know, you don't know," he jabbered. "Tell him Life on earth may have begun as not to go higher and to keep out of the result of its collision with an-other planet moving through the universe at tremendous speed, Lucien Beckner, geologist of Louisville, Ky., teld the Association for the Advancement of Science meeting last weel at Indianapolis. Attacking previous theories on the origin of the continental land masses and the oceans, Beckner deckired they could not account for the dis tribution of layers of rock in the earth, particularly the top layer on which man depends for his existence.

Moon Thrown Off By Earth Moon Thrown Off by Earth Another theory, called isostasy and developed by Major William Bowie of the coast and geodetic survey at Washington, holds that instead of a collision being responsible for the The Dionne quintuplets are to be trained to withstand the public stare present d'stribution of land oceans, the earth threw off a large piece of matter which is now the noon. Measurements of the mass of the moon indicate it is approximately would in ... of the earth.

Water Anima's

Other theories than the new one advanced by Beckner do not account for the restricted distribution of the two upper layers of rock on the earth the'r accidental shape, or their phy sical constitution, he declared, and only the theory of an accidental titanic collision of one body with another in the skies could account for such distribution.

From this distribution of new ma terial on the earth's surface, evolution of life probably began, he added giving water animals the opportunity to get a foothold on solid ground and begin developing into new evolutionary forms.

Duchess of Kent

cess has a new dress every day, this clothes analysis of the Duchess of Kent will correct the idea. She has very few clothes - far

Royal Family who favors black when not in mourning, and frequently varies her style of hairdressing. Two items of the Duchess' ward robe are familiar to all who come in-

"Colorless" jewels, diamonds and pearls are her favorite stones. She always wears a complete set of jewelry.

Long pendant carrings, diamond clins and bracelets form one sets which she often wears in the evenings. Another for less formal oc asions consists of large round pear drop earring, double necklace, and a small pearl ornamen Almost all her pewelry has a mod

King Authorizes Royal Marriage

King George VI gave his assent to the wedding of Prince Paul of Greece. heir-presumptive to the Greek throne, and Princess Frederika Luise

The King acted, after a meeting of equal to the mass of rock which the Privy Council, under the Royal would fill in the present water area Marriages Act which requires his permission before any member of branch of the Royal family may be wcd. The 20-year-old daughter of the Duke of Brunswick is a great great granddaughter of Queen Victoria, The I-year-old prince, a distant cousin of

Their wedding took place on January 9th, in the cathedral in Athens

Prettier Bathrooms

Bathrooms today can be made more beautiful than ever with new tiling. colored bathtubs, basins, etc., and al! the beautifully tinted linens on display. Purplish blue tiles from the floor to a peach colored celling, with peach towels and fixtures, a curtain draped like your best living room curtains, and blue tiles on the Geor, make a smart combination.

Issue No. 3-'38

fewer than most fi'm stars: no more.

Has Simple Wardrobe If you imagine that a Royal Prin-in fact, that the average well-to-do woman. She wears the same dress over and over again. She is the only member of the to frequent contact with her — her furs and her jewels.

he princess, is also related to the Britich Royal family.

THE SOLID FUEL FOR SOLID COMFORT Listen to "THE SHADOW"-Every Wed., CFRB, 9 to 9.30 p.m.