ROCKLYN

Temple Hill and Victoria W. M. S. Auxiliary met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Danard Cook. A large number of members and visitors were present, and the president, Mrs. W. Thompson, was in charge. It was decided to return the former executive to office for another year and several new convenors of committees were also named. Readings were given by Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. A. Jenner and several others. A vocal duet was rendered by Mesdames Danard Cook and Cecil Clugston. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. Rocklyn hockey team journeyed to Heathcote on Friday evening, where they engaged in a friendly game with the boys there.

Sligo school section held a progressive crokinole and euchre social in the school on Friday evening. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Russell Graham and Miss Caroline Clarke. Following the play several musical numbers were given by Miss Mildred Gardner and lunch was served. The evening proved so enjoyable that it was decided to continue holding the socials every fortnight during the winter months. A committee, composed of Mrs. Earl Gardner and Misses Mildred Gardner and Ruth Hopkins, was appointed to have charge of program and arrangements for the next meeting.

Mrs. Otto Foy and Mrs. Ross Gordon are both recovering very favorably after their recent illnesses. Mrs. Jos. Craig is visiting with her niece, Mrs. Danard Cook, at present.

Ernest Hodgkinson was a recent caller at the home of Mr. Frank Taylor at Walters Falls.

Owing to the mild weather the usual Saturday evening skating had to be foregone last week.

Temple Hill Y.P.S. met as usual in the Manse on Tuesday evening. The meeting was in charge of the Christian Fellowship Committee, convened by Florence Hopkins. The next meeting will be in charge of Birdie McClean.

Miss Beth Patterson spent a week-end recently the guest of Miss Ruth McKenzie at Fairmount.

EUGENIA

Rev. Mr. Elliott concluded his special revival services in the church on Friday evening of last week. Nineteen of those in attendance who went forward to witness their faith in the Lord Jesus and to become His followers were: Mrs. Chas. Martin, Winnetta and Carmel; Mrs. S. Campbell, Ted and Evelyn; Mrs. Well Graham and Phyllis; Mrs. Garnet Magee, Louise and Dorothy Falconer; Cecil Magee, Neil McDonald, Fred and Edna Partridge, Hazel and Nora Turner, Doris Fawcett and Margaret McMillan.

Owing to bad weather and roads on Sunday there was no church service here.

Sorry to report Mr. Norval Betts ill with flu, mumps and pneumonia. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Irene Dinsmore visited over the week-end in Toronto, returning Monday evening.

Mrs. Les. Ferris of Toronto spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Sloan.

Ice cutting and storing away for summer use has begun on the lake here.

Pleased to report Mr. and Mrs. Park feeling somewhat improved in health.

Sorry to report the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Cameron, 10th Line, ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kaitling spent a few days with Foversham friends.

The Late Mrs. Harold Cook

We were very sorry to hear of the untimely death of Mrs. Harold Cook (nee Sadie Delmar Mae Fenwick), who passed away suddenly in the G. & M. Hospital, Owen Sound, on Friday morning, January 28. Delmar was the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fenwick, formerly of the 5th Line, Eugenia, but now of East Linton. She was in her 26th year. In August, 1935, she was married to Mr. Harold Cook. Since her marriage she had resided at Barrow Bay where her husband teaches school and where she was highly respected and had many friends. Her baby was born and died a week before her death. She looked lovely in death—just as if she were peacefully sleeping, assuring us she had found rest in her Saviour.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, Rev. J. T. Strachan of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church officiating at a private service held at the home of the deceased's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wesley Thompson, 438 13th St. W., Owen Sound, followed by a public service at the church. A large assemblage of friends and neighbours was present to pay their last respects to one they loved. Mr. Earl Smith rendered a solo at the service. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery. A profusion of floral tributes, bearing testimony of love of the departed and showing sympathy to the bereaved, were: Pillow, Husband and Cook family; broken circle, Father, Mother, Brother and Sisters; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams and Joey and Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Partridge; Mrs. W. H. Fenwick and family; Mrs. S. Hoath and Mrs. M. Leitch; Mr. and Mrs. D. Biggar and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. Clark; The McIlveen family of Orillia; 5th Line (Eugenia) Friends; Blanche Genoe; Mrs. Ed. Tambling; Ward Agnew; Edna Phillips, S.S. 4, Eastnor; Mrs. S. Hall, Agnes and Lottie Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. P. Eplin; Alma Lemcke and Laurence Weaver; The Gilchrist family; The Neighbours of 13th St., W., Owen Sound; Black family; Mr. and Mrs. Hector Hewitt; Mr. and Mrs. E. Lemcke, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Grieg and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Duke; Grafton & Co. staff; Mr. and Mrs. A. Fries; Mr. and Mrs. A. Bray; Mrs. and Mrs. C. Hatt; Mr. Ernest Gorrell. Besides many friends from Barrow Bay there were in attendance at the funeral Mr. John Fenwick and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Walters; also Mrs. T. Wilson of Toronto; Mrs. Murdoch Leitch of Paisley; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Linton of Proton; Mrs. Joseph Williams and son, Joey, of Eugenia, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Partridge and son, Fred, of Rock Mills.

We extend our profound sympathy to the heart-broken husband, her parents, her brother, Will, and sisters, Muriel, Edith and Elnora at home; her sister, Mrs. Russell Linton (Claribel), of Proton and sister, Mrs. Clarence Biggar (Martha), of Owen Sound. "Even death has a wonderful mission. Though it robs us of one we love, it lifts our hearts from our surroundings. To long for that meeting above. No matter how great the despair, Heaven seems nearer and dearer. To know that our loved one is there."

Mrs. Farris Honoured

At the meeting on Wednesday evening, January 26th, in the basement of the church, Mrs. Gordon Farris, prior to her departure, was called forward and on behalf of the Young People's Union an address was composed and read by Mrs. C. Martin and the presentation of a lovely Bible was made to her by Miss Jean Tudor. Mrs. Farris, the Vice-President of the society, was completely taken by surprise. She thanked the Union heartily for the lovely gift which she appreciated very much.

Following is the address: Just a few short months ago You came here as a bride, Into our little village,

DORNOCH

Miss Beta Meloche of Owen Sound spent the week-end at her home here.

Mrs. James Shackleton visited friends in Chatsworth recently.

Mrs. John Sweeney, who has been visiting friends in Detroit, has returned to her home here.

Sorry to report Mrs. J. W. Lang ill at present. She was removed to the Red Cross Hospital, Durham, on Sunday. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Iry Meloche is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. McArthur, in Owen Sound.

Mrs. Mel. Petty entertained a few ladies at a quilting bee on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Patricia Lister spent the week-end with Mrs. Jack Walsh.

Mrs. George Miller of Williamsburg is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Goldsmith and Mrs. W. Hodgson.

EAST BERKELEY

Messrs. Chester Holley and Richard Stafford are busy working in the bush for Mr. Jos. Worce.

We have had another February thaw and the cisterns were ready for water.

Married—At Swift Current, Sask., on January 2nd, 1938, Enid Joyce Johnston, youngest daughter of Geo. E. Johnston and the late Mrs. Johnston (Olive I. Steer) of Beverley, Sask., to Clyde Hay of Swift Current. They are residing at Swift Current.

Mrs. A. A. Lyons is spending a few days in Owen Sound, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hutson. Mr. Hutson has our sympathy in the loss of the four fingers on his right hand.

Mr. J. Connell was quite ill last week but we hope to hear of his complete recovery.

The roads are good at time of writing. The farmers are busy hauling logs and wood.

RIVERDALE

Only six weeks till spring. Misses Ery Lee of Markdale, Alberta of Kimberley and Lucille of Vanderleur spent the week-end at their parental home here.

Mr. Jim Nesbitt, who spent the past few months in a lumber camp in Parry Sound district, returned to this vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clara Hill of Cherry Grove visited friends here the first of the week.

Mr. Dunn Lee was on a business trip to Toronto one day last week.

Mr. G. Hunt visited friends at Mildmay recently.

Miss Clara Harvey is spending a few weeks in Markdale.

Mr. Jim Leppard had a wood buzzing bee on Monday.

Mr. Gordon Bennett of Cherry Grove is engaged cutting wood for Mr. Ken Johnston.

Mr. Oliver Leppard was on a business trip to Owen Sound last week. A number of the citizens of this vicinity are confined to the house at present owing to an attack of the flu.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Oliver Leppard is able to resume household duties again.

Generally speaking Jack Rabbits in this vicinity are thick as blackberries in the harvest time and although a vigorous campaign is being staged to arrest their nocturnal devastations they still persist in carrying on with their relentless ravages to young fruit trees and shrubs.

Niagara, the far-famed beauty spot, which is conceded to be one of the seven wonders of the world, has recently received much front page publicity in the daily newspapers, but few of the publishers have disclosed the fact that, if the present scientific system of civilization keeps up its fast and furious pace, in a few years hence three of the wonders of the world will be a horse, a railroad train and a man working.

The New England W. I. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Lee on Thursday, January 27th.

With your husband to reside. You have been much in our company During your short stay; We have learned to love you; You have helped in many a way. As Vice-President of our Y.P.U.

You attended all our meetings Of the executive, and entertained us too. With the very happiest greetings. Now you are going to leave us. And we are very sorry, But our best wishes go with you To your new home in Barrie. We cannot let you depart from us. Without showing our love for you. So, we ask you to please accept This Bible from the Y.P.U.

Every time you use this Holy Book Bear us in mind dear friend; It proves our love, to God, to you, And all our fellow-men. As we say farewell to you, We say, "Come back again." You'll get a hearty welcome here. A smile from every friend. So here's best wishes for you and Mr. Farris. Wherever you may roam, May God ever be your guide. And Heaven your final home. Wherever you may roam, Signed on behalf of the Y.P.U.

Miss Macphail's Letter

It most. The great Cathedral Club will have two thousand or more working girls in to supper, for a very small sum, served but not cooked by the women of the Church, followed by speeches, discussions, drama, singing or any other means of healthful development. The same Church has a noon club for men. They come, eat, listen, discuss and go to work again. No fees; no obligations. The day I was there Dean Sweet of the Cathedral asked the business men present if they knew of any jobs available and would they co-operate with him in placing some needy men. It seemed to me so eminently right that a great Churchman was seeking to solve the economic problems of the needy.

Everywhere I met with the greatest kindness, but only in the gloriously beautiful city of San Francisco (with its seven hills, long and graceful bridges, great parks and splendid buildings) did I have a Hawaiian lei, the symbol of affectionate greeting, slipped over my head. This particular lei was made of five dozen carnations strung like great pink beads on a chain. It was presented by a charming old man who had spent most of his life in the Hawaiian Islands, English by birth. Only, too, in this city was the Chairman a British consul and the English Speaking Union and the I.O.D. E. represented in the audience and at the luncheon which followed.

The opening of parliament was undoubtedly the same as usual. It is a beautiful piece of pagentry if not taken too seriously. I read on the social page of a great Canadian daily that it had a "religious" significance. "Religious" is a term which should be used accurately. The opening ceremonies in the Senate are almost pagan in their beauty and brilliance. It is true that high churchmen are present in their ceremonial vestments but the business of the opening is to hear the Governor General, the personal representative of the King, read the legislative programme for the session to the assembled commoners and senators. There are others there but they have nothing to do with the business. This legislative programme is called "The Speech from the Throne" or "The King's Speech," actually Mr. Mackenzie's King's.

The speech forecast but little new legislation. It spoke in glowing terms of the Coronation, the Imperial Conference and with satisfaction of the continued economic recovery, stated that the recurrence of drought in an acute form made the provision of an unprecedented amount of assistance necessary, that further training for youth would be provided, a trans-Atlantic air service be inaugurated, report of present Royal Commissions tabled and relief for the strains and stresses on Confederation sought, the first step in the latter being the Royal Commission of Enquiry which has been appointed to re-examine the financial basis of confederation and the distribution of legislative powers as between the federal and provincial governments in the light of the new conditions which have arisen in the last seventy years.

Unemployment insurance is promised if an amendment to the British North America Act can be secured. Some changes will be made in the Elections and Franchise Act. The Board of Railway Commissioners will be given additional power and (page Mr. Hepburn) legislation will be introduced to further the principle of parliamentary control of the export of electrical power.

Favorable mention was made of the trade agreements now being negotiated between the United Kingdom and the United States and also the hope is expressed that the agreement between the United States and Canada will be extended and revised. The speech concludes with an expression of faith that the promotion of international trade is an effective means of ensuring progress and peace.

So far, the debate, called "speeches in reply", has dealt with (omitting the political humbug) need of preventing the export of Canadian materials for munitions to belligerent countries, the seriousness of the drought problem and the attendant dire poverty, the un-British attitude of Premier Duplessis of Quebec as expressed by the Padlock Act and, in view of his attitude, the disturbing friendship of Mr. Hepburn with Mr. Duplessis—the Mitchell-Maurice entente; the great need of increasing the earning power of farmers (Doachman, Huron) and the desirability of free trade for Western Canada (Ross, Moose Jaw); and discussion of the monetary problem by the Social Credit group. Many members have already expressed opposition to the export of power; we will undoubtedly hear much more on the subject. The government has been repeatedly asked why they disallowed the financial bills of the Alberta government and did not disallow the Quebec Padlock Act, which curtails civil liberty and in less than three months has been applied some fifty times. It will be interesting to hear the answer.
