VANDELEUR W. I.

The April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Frank D'Arcy. After the usual opening by singing the Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison Mrs. Fred. Boland spoke a few words on the motto for the month, it being: "Do your best and leave the rest; What's the use of worry? Firm endeavor stands the best, More than haste and hurry. Letters of appreciation sent in were read by the secretary. The roll call was answered by the members paying their dues for the coming year. Plans were made for the programme for the coming year.

MONDAY, MAY 2nd,
REGULAR MEETING

F. A. YORK, Noble Grand
W. J. COLGAN, Recording Sec.
HERB. WALKER, Financial Sec.
W. J. HOWARD, Treasurer

The officers were all re-elected by acclamation. Miss Lillian Buchanan was given a hearty vote of thanks for her work in the project of re-furnishing furniture, she being the local leader for the same. The programme consisted of a duet by Misses Dora and Doreen Boland; a paper prepared by Mrs. Dolan, "Something New About School", was read by Mrs. Ratcliffe; a reading by Miss Lillian Buchanan; several community songs were sung by all. A question drawer added much to the interest of the meeting. These were answered by Mrs. W. Swanton in her usual humorous way. Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. D'Arcy were appointed as delegates to attend the District Convention at Cedarville. The lunch was served by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Glen McGee. The meeting closed by the singing of God Save the King. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lundy Johnston on the usual date.

Going Strong

While most of the Creameries in the Province have been reporting a shortage in production, we are glad to report a good increase in production throughout the winter. For instance, during the month of March we have increased our make over nine thousand pounds above March of last year. We also have increased the demand for our butter. If you have not yet sold your cream to us we are soliciting your patronage. Our trucks are now covering all routes. If it is inconvenient for you to bring your cream in, phone us and our truck will call. You will be satisfied.

MAKING CANADA A BETTER PLACE IN WHICH TO LIVE AND WORK

A Series of Letters from Distinguished Canadians on Vital Problems Affecting the Future Welfare of Canada.

Specially Written for the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association
LETTER NO. 3
London, Canada, March 14, 1938

Dear Mr. Editor: As a believer in the exceptional power of the weekly press to guide public thought I cannot but commend your special effort to assemble constructive views concerning the great public issues of Canada. Though I dare not count my own views as of any worth, yet I venture to submit one or two of them if for no other reasons than that you have requested them and that I hold them very strongly. It seems to me that the many internal issues that confront us now are really only so many phases of one great issue—essentially a great moral issue. Most of our troubles appear to be due to the inability of Canadians as a group to see national conditions as they are. This is nothing less than a refusal to face facts, a shortcoming the right name of which is a very unlovely one—intellectual dishonesty. However sanely we conduct our private lives and our private business we are in the habit of assuming an attitude of wishful thinking in regard to our public problems. We act as though unpleasant problems will solve themselves if we only close our eyes to their existence long enough. We seem to assume that by merely wishing things to be otherwise we can improve them or remove them. In the meantime the plain fact is that our problems are steadily growing worse—public debts mounting, railway deficits nearing their absolute limit, government expenses increasing through the demands of ourselves, the people, who blindly ask to be bribed by our own money. Another form of this self-inflicted blindness is playing the old game of "passing the buck". Canada is a democracy and, therefore, we, the people, are fundamentally the government. Our representatives do the chores of government for us but we are responsible for the kind of people they are and the way in which they do their chores. In practice, however, we lay the blame of bad or indifferent government upon them and arrogate to ourselves credit for any bits of good government. We are also in the habit of endeavoring to make influences originating outside the country the scapegoat for many of our own sins. I believe that the weekly press can do Canada no better service than, even at the risk of becoming tiresome through repetition, by constantly reminding Canadians that most of their national troubles are of their own making and hence of their own curing; that the day of reckoning is absolutely unavoidable; that if we face the facts in our public business as we do in our private business there is yet time to solve a large number of our problems and to reduce or even avoid the impact of calamity. Many other nations sincerely profess to admire Canadians for their common sense. Let us endeavor to show ourselves genuinely worthy of the praise. Sincerely yours, W. SHERWOOD FOX, President and Vice-Chancellor, University of Western Ontario, London, Canada.

What Christ Has Done

"Look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged" (Isa. 51:1). The Biblical Illustrator tells us: "At Munich the custom is said to prevail that every child found begging in the streets is arrested, and carried to a charitable establishment. The moment he enters, and before he is cleaned, and gets the new clothes intended for him, his portrait is painted in his ragged dress, and precisely as he was found begging. When his education is finished this portrait is given him, and he promises by an oath to keep it all his life, that he may be reminded of the abject condition from which he has been rescued, and of the gratitude he owes the establishment which raised him from misery, and taught him how to avoid it for the future." Dear one, is not that which this institution has done for needy children but a small comparison to what Jesus Christ has done for you and me, who lifted from the depths of sin, and made to "sit together in Heavenly places in Christ Jesus?" We were far more helpless and our condition far more hopeless than those poor little beggars. We were "without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world", but we have been transformed by the grace of God. Think of it, transformed so that now we are the temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwelleth in us. How much gratitude do we owe to our Lord and Saviour, who laid down His life that He might bring us to God. "Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the Blood of Christ." Let us never forget the pit from whence we were digged, and praise the Lord continually by lips and life for His grace which has brought us into His fold. —Selected from Gospel Herald.
