MAKING CANADA A BETTER PLACE IN WHICH TO LIVE AND WORK

A Series of Letters from Distinguished Canadians on Vital Problems Affecting the Future Welfare of Canada.

Specially Written for the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association

LETTER NO 7

I think it is important for the rural newspapers of this country to be sure of facts before casting aspersions upon people in business.

Religious Forum

AS A VAPOUR

What is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away".
Yes, men come upon the stage of action, make their little bow, then fade away and are gone. The first very rich man of whom we ever heard was William H. Vanderbilt.
His name is seldom mentioned now.
He passed out saying to his wife, "Sing, 'Come Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy' ". The great genius, Thos.
A. Edison, lighted up the world with electricity, then his own light went out in darkness. On his eighty-first birthday he said: "Fifty-fifty one way or the other is my present belief in life after death". How different from St. Paul, who said: "We know that if our earthly house were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens". Many an agile athlete who eclipsed all comers, in a few years became as frail and helpless as a child and nothing now remains but a few silver "cups".
The humorist who became rich by making everybody laugh often wept himself to sleep, then dropped into eternity without Christ or a single soul to welcome him on the resurrection morn.

The highly educated man shone like a meteor, then his mind became clouded, not knowing his nearest relative, and now he is forgotten.

The eloquent preacher who was in great demand and on whose silver tongue hung the multitudes, passed away like a lovely song and a fleeting cloud.

The singer who thrilled and held the crowds in breathless and almost painful ecstasy is heard no more.

But the soul-winner lives his life over many times in lives of those whom he led to Christ. I had rather be in his shoes than in those of all the above combined.

"He that winneth souls is wise", and "They that turn many to righteousness" shall shine as the stars for ever and ever.
