Re-Union At Flesherton

The unveiling of the Soldiers Memorial, the Old Boys' and Girls' e-union and the re-union of the 147th Battalion Association are the chief highlights of the Civic Holiday elebration in Flesherton on August 10th. 1st The festivities commence at 12.10 a.m. with a dance, picture how, etc., followed by the unveiling of the new memorial in the park at day-break. The 147th battalion will troop the colors and the veterans will march past, the salute being taken by Justice F. McFarland, former O.C. of the Regiment. Water sports at the pond in the morning and a full afternoon of ball games. The 147th Battalion re-union dinner in the evening and a fine concert at night followed by a dance on the square will round out a full day that will be a highlight for veterans and others who attend.

You will see the largest parade of veterans ever held in this county, who will attend to pay homage to many of their comrades who made the supreme sacrifice.

Fuller details will later be given in these columns, but in the meantime plan to be in Flesherton for this most exceptional event in the history of Grey County.

Good Prizes For Good Hogs Sunday School Convention Unveiling of Memorial and Grey County School Pair William Wells Laid To Rest With Military Honours

The funeral of the late William Wells, who passed away early on Wednesday morning of last week at Christie Street Haspital, Toronto was held on Friday afternoon last. The remains were escorted from the house to Christ Church where Rev. C. O. Pherrill had charge of the service. In his address the rector spoke of the great contribution which the deceased had given to his country in military service and also referred to his good qualities of heart. The Church was filled with a sympathe tic congregation, many of whom were from R.R. No. 3, Markdale where the deceased had delivered the mail for several years. About 50 returned soldiers escorted the remains to the cemetery and following the committal service of the Church conducted the burial service for the returned men. Rev. E. W. Jewitt of Owen Sound took the work of the chaplain and the Last Post was sounded by a bugler from Owen Sound. Each of the men saluted their departed comrade and the impressive service was closed. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. Robertson, G. S. Dundas, Herb. Walker, Albert McNally, W. J.

Plewes and A. C. Stewart. Besides almost all the available returned men, many veterans were present from Flesherton and Owen Sound. The late William Wells had served with the British Army in India and South Africa before coming to Canada from England about 1907. He the Rev. J. D.
