LETTER NO. 13

Dear Editor:

In response to your letter, I response to the Canadian National Railways conscious of the Canadian National Railways are always conscious of the Canadian part the weekly newspapers play in Canadian attairs and that we fully appreciate the keen interest the members of your sessional rails and that we fully appreciate the National Railways System. We should be National Railways System.

Londry—In Euphrasia Township, on Friday, June 19, 1908, Thomas you go with the crowd. You are one of them, one with them. Their goal is yours, consequently it is easy. But to those going against the vast tide of humanity, it takes continual firm ness of step, steadfastness of faith, head lifted up, and eyes on the everlasting goal. The enemy of the soul often tries to halt the pllgrim in his race for the prize. It has been said of the ancient Greeks, who were a worldly-wise people, that in their colympic games they showed their sagelity. Three pillars stood in the number of yours as the farmer may utilize the wood that is secured to supply his annual fuelwood requirements of them, one with the crowd. Ask the Man Who Uses Watkins Fly Spray!

He will tell you that Watkins Fly Spray costs less pecause it goes further. You get more for your mon ey as a result. It has always been known as clean, ef fective and economical.

Flies knocked down by Watkins Fly Spray stay down. Kill them and they won't bother your cows while you are milking. It's clean, odorless and will not taint milk nor gum up the hair of the cows. I am taking orders now for summer delivery. Wait for my call and I will show you how to save money.

Summer Comes to St. Andrews-by-the-Sea

One of Canada's most popular summer resorts is St. Andrews-by-the-Sea in New Brunswick, beautifully situated on the Bay of Fundy west of Saint John and possessing a commanding view of Passamaquodd's Bay. Hundreds of Canadian, English and American vacationists visit there each year to enjoy golf on the two splendid courses, fishing, cocan bathing, and other attractive holiday pastimes.
