The members and friends of St. James' Church choir gathered Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Gardiner, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. George Merrifield, recent bride and groom. The evening was spent in music and social chat, and a short program was given with Rev. Perry acting as chairman. Musical numbers were given by Jackie Gardiner, Jean Perry, Ruth Hopkins, Mrs. Roy Wyville, George Merrifield and Walter King. Mrs. I. Gardiner, Miss Mildred Gardiner and Mr. Robt. Curry also supplied music during the evening. Two contests were conducted by Miss Florence Hopkins.

The following address was read to the guests of honour by Miss Mabel Curry and the presentation made of a beautiful picture by Miss Isabel Loughheed on behalf of the choir: Fairmount, Ont., July 4, 1938. Dear Ruth and George,—We, the members of St. James' choir, have taken this opportunity to spend a social evening with you and offer our congratulations and best wishes.

You have proven yourselves true friends and you, Ruth, have always offered a helping hand at Sunday School, Guild and choir.

As a token of our best wishes for your future happiness we ask you to accept this picture. May it always be a reminder of your old choir friends.

Signed on behalf of choir members and friends: Isabel Loughheed, Mabel Curry.

Both the bride and groom expressed their appreciation of the gift. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and assistants at the conclusion of the evening.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. James' Church was held Tuesday, June 28, at the home of Mrs. Morgan Davis, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Roy Wyville, had charge of the meeting. After the usual opening exercises several items of business were discussed.

A cordial invitation from Walters Falls Guild to join them at their next meeting, July 5, to be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Perry, was accepted. Plans were made for an ice cream social to be held in the basement of the Church on July 20. It was decided to serve pie and ice cream. The committee in charge of the program was Mrs. Wyville, Mabel Curry, Mildred Gardner and Isabel Loughheed.

The next meeting was arranged to be held in the hall on Wednesday, July 6. The programme for the meeting consisted of a reading and two solos by Florence Miller and a cornet duet by Mac Dales and Leslie Davis.
