IN ARTEMESIA TAXES

Artemesia Township tax notices are now being delivered by Mr. A. B. Chard, collector, and most of the ratepayers will find they will be paying more taxes this year than last. An advance in the rate of 4.3 mills has been made throughout the township, while the taxpayers in School Sections three, seven and ten will find an additional raise of 3.4, 2.3 and 4 mills respectively over the 4.3 milis advance as stated above, as these sections did not make a levy in 1937 and have to make up for their neglect this year and raise extra money.

The tax bill shows that the County Rate for high school areas is $.9 mills, while the rate for non-high school areas is:11.1 mills to take care of the county pupils. Besides the 8.9 mills the high school area is assessed an additional 5.5 mills, a raise of 2.5 mills from 1937. The general school levy is 7.5 mills while in 1937 it was 6.7, due to the fact that the minimum amount to be raised in each section has advanced from $480 to $540. The general township rate has advanced from three mills in 1937 to five mills this year. This year the township of Artemesia went back to control of roads by a superintendent, all-expenditure being made by the Ontario government and were, therefore, forced to raise the rate by two mills. It will be seen, therefore, that with the advance of 8.3 mills in the taxes in the case of S.S. No. 10, only two mills of that can be marked against the new system, education being responsible for the remainder.

We have heard considerable comment against the raise in taxes throughout the township, the Port Hope district, father and ing the road system for their troubtownship council has no control over the expenditures for schools and have to levy for the amounts sent in by the school secretaries .-- With only a two mill raise in the general rate for road purposes we think that the Council has accomplished a great deal in improving township roads as they have, and at the same time keeping within the limit set for expenditures .- Flesherton Advance.

Drowned at Kitchener

The following items clipped from he Kingston Whig-Standard refer to brother-in-law and niece of Mrs Alvin Baines of Glenelg, who is a sister of Mrs. Robert Luck.

Betty Luck, five-year-old daughter f Robert Luck, steward at the Kingston Yacht Club, was drowned late Saturday afternoon in eight feet of water off the west wharf of the Kingston Yacht Club. The body was re covered about six-thirty o'clock by her father, who was making a search of the water after efforts earlier to locate the child in the neighborhood had failed.

The child was last seen about 3.30 Markdale—Alexandria Turner of in the afternoon and was playing around the house at that time. Later she was missed and a search was made for her. It began to grow dark and the parents became very much alarmed and radio station CFRC was notified and broadcast a description of the lost child. Police were also notified. The search continued for the child, the father, fearing the worst, making a search of the water close to the wharf with his flashlight There in eight feet of water he dis covered the body of his little girl in her red dress, lying on the bottom.

The body was immediately taken from all parts of Grey County for the from the water and artificial respiration was at once started. Dr. G. W. Blenkensop was called and the fire department was called with the inhalator. The child was removed to her home and respiration was continued by the firemen and the doctors for some time but life was extinct.

Betty was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Luck and would have reached her sixth birthday on the 25th of this month. Saturday was the eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs Luck but it was a tragic one for them. It is believed that their little girl had wandered away from the house shorely after 3.30 and had falen into the water. While it was not definitely known, it was believed she was in the water about three hours. Dr. P. A. McLeod, coroner, was called and investigated the tragic drowning.

The child's father on many occasions has saved others from drown ing, but was not aware that his own little child needed aid until it was too late.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from the residence of the child's parents.

Returning from the funeral of his wn little girl, who was drowned on Saturday, Bob Luck, steward of the Kingston Yacht Club, Monday afternoon went to the rescue of two Queen's students, who had been clinging to a capsized dinghy for more than two hours in the Kingston

Harbor about two miles off-shore. Tired from worry and sleeples nights, broken with grief, and concerned about the health of his wife, Luck ignored his own troubles and went to the aid of others in danger, although he had been helpless to save his own little daughter, age five when he found her body in the water near the dock of the Kingston Yacht Club after she had been missing sev eral hours Saturday.

Luck took the boat, just as he has done many times, and rushed to the rescue of the boys who were cold and near exhaustion when he arrived. He pulled them into his boat and rushed them to the shore where Clarence Clark of 279 Montreal Street, motored them to the residence of Mrs. A. Fair, 34 Aberdeen Avenue, where they board.

The students, taking advantage of the half holiday for the Interfaculty Track and Field Meet, rented a 14foot sailing punt from the Westlake boat-house at Portsmouth. They were apparently caught in the strong north wind and blown out into the middle of the harbor where the boa capsized.
