P. J. THOMPSON

Men's and Boys' Wear

TRAVERTON

Mrs. W. J. Davis of the 7th con. will celebrate her 90th birthday on Wednesday, April 12, 1939. She will be "At Home" to friends and neighbors during the afternoon and evening.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Zion on Easter Sunday at the close of the regular service.

Mr. Hugh McArthur shipped six porkers last week, weighing 1230, that netted him $5.90 more by rail grading. Mr. John Peart shipped a bunch of good ones the same day, but we haven't hear of his success.

The cold snap has put a stop to sap running, just as it got nicely started.

Mrs. Ed. Jeffrey and daughter of Artemesia visited the parental home, Mr. Wm. Taylor's, last week.

Highly pleased to learn the Editor is again on the working staff and trust springtide will bring back all his former vigor and health.

The passing of Mr. John A. Beaton on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lorne Goodfellow at Nobleton, leaves a blank on the 4th con. where he was born 63 years ago, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beaton, early pioneers of the township. He received his education at old No. 5 public school and became one of our most successful and progressive farmers. Upwards of forty years ago he was happily wedded to Minnie McLachlan of near Pricerville. Five bright daughters were born of the union as follows: Mrs. Robt. Caldwell (Muriel), Toronto; Mrs. Homer Tuck (Jennie), Toronto; Mrs. Lorne Goodfellow (Mary), Nobleton; Miss Bessie, Toronto, and Miss Iona in Muskoka.

Being in poor health the past year or two he held a most successful sale last October and he and Mrs. Beaton went to live with their daughter, Mary. For a time he appeared to rally but gradually the disease sapped his vitality. John A. has been a lifelong member of Glenelg Centre Baptist Church; a Liberal in politics, but voted otherwise at times, if he thought it best. He was a most obliging neighbour and a good citizen. The funeral service is being held in Durham Baptist church this Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Priest conducting service. Interment in Durham Saugene Cemetery. The sympathy of a wide circle is extended to Mrs. Beaton and the family.

TEMPLE HILL

The Y.P.S. held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Mills on Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance. The evening was in charge of Miss Lulu Jerry, social-convenor, and assistants. The program opened with devotional exercises followed by a program of music, solos, readings, contests and at the close games were played under the leadership of Misses Lulu Jerry and Gladys Boyd. Lunch was served by the committee after which community singing was led by Mr. Dennis Wyrville and all joined in singing the National Anthem which brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. George Merrifield were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Jos. Boyd and family.

A large number attended the shower for Miss Velma Wells and Bill Kerr on Friday evening at the home of Mr. John Merrifield. The evening was spent in music, dancing and card playing and at midnight Velma and Bill were asked to be seated while Miss Burrell read the address and Phyllis Merrifield and Messrs. Dave and Dennis Wyrville presented them with a miscellaneous shower and read the accompanying verses. Bill and Velma both very fittingly replied and all joined in singing. "For they are jolly good fellows". Lunch was then served and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing.

Mrs. George Seabrooke entertained a number of ladies to a quilting bee on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Clifford Erskine spent a day with his mother in Meaford. Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Sewell and daughter, Elva, spent a day with Mr. John Murray of Meaford.

A number of men from here attended the auction sale at Mrs. Maude Hill's on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jop. Mills spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawken of Harkaway.

Miss Muriel Erskine entertained a number of ladies to a quilting one afternoon last week.

Misses Viola Murray and Belle Irwin of Woodhouse spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. Sewell and family.

Mr. Ed. Merrifield and sister, Rose, attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Velma Wells, to Mr. William Kerr at Woodford on Wednesday. Rose was her cousin's bridesmaid.

The A.Y.P.A. held a very nice meeting last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Seabrook.

Mrs. Carman King of Markdale spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Shepherdson last week and accompanied Mrs. Shepherdson to Owen Sound hospital on Friday for an x-ray of her face.

Marshall Saunders was at his home last week from Meaford High School, not feeling in the best of health.

Kenneth and Janice Morrison of Strathavon spent last week with their grandmother, Mrs. N. Rennie.

EUGENIA

We extend our sympathy to our pastor, Rev. S. Elliott in his sad bereavement, his sister, Mrs. Craves of Winnipeg, passed away on Tuesday of last week.

On Sunday evening the Y.P.U. took the service in the United Church here. Scripture passages were read by Hazel Turner and Mabel Duckett. Jean Tudor led in responsive reading. An anthem, "A Rainbow in the Cloud", was rendered by the Y.P.U. choir. A trio was given by the Misses E. and M. Betts and Evelyn Campbell. Prayers were offered by Mrs. Porteous, Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. Martin. The message was given by the president, Argyle Martin, who took as his text, "Fear not, they that are with thee are more than they are against thee", which showed the great christian faith of Elijah and Elisha. The children's story was told by Evelyn Campbell. There was only a fair attendance as the weather was stormy and the roads in bad condition.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Len. Latimer not very well at present. Miss Lillian Magee has gone to Toronto where she has accepted a position.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Richard Park in the loss of her brother-in-law, the late Mr. Beaton of Glenelg.

On Wednesday evening of last week a social evening was held by the Y.P.U. in the church basement. There was an attendance of 28. The discussion period was taken by Mrs. Joe Porteous, who gave as her topic, "The life of Peter"; Mrs. Martin gave a reading; the Misses Hazel and Nora Turner sang a duet accompanied by guitar music by Blanche Williams; Mrs. Porteous conducted a "song contest". After the program lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyons of the 4th line visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porteous.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams have moved to the Betts farm, 8th line. On Friday evening the families of the 8th line assembled at their home giving them a hearty welcome to the vicinity and spending a few pleasant hours in dancing, etc.

Congratulations to Mrs. Will Magee who celebrated the 78th anniversary of her birthday on April 1st. We hope Mrs. Magee's health will soon be improved and that she will soon be able to be out again.

Maple Syrup Labels

AN ECONOMICAL AND EFFECTIVE WAY TO

Advertise Your Product

The law demands that for shipment beyond the province in which you reside all Maple Syrup containers be plainly labelled, showing the name and address and license number of the producer. Whether you produce syrup for export purposes or for local consumption, there is no more effective way of telling consumers about your goods than by labelling your containers with attractive labels printed by us.

Label your containers this season. You will notice a marked increase in sales besides assuring customers YOUR PRODUCT IS GENUINE.
