WODEHOUSE

(Intended for last week.) "God Save the King" has been sung so often and with such emphasis of late a new patriotic spirit is being aroused. The favorable comments by those who have had the pleasure of seeing the Royal couple now on their tour has surely stamped on each admirer of the Queen a feeling of great love and admiration for her beauty and lovely personality and for the King a feeling of loyalty to a kingly King We can't be too patriotic as

British subjects to such a deserving couple. The copious showers of the past few days have brought a rapid growth. The rural landscape view the week-end at the Eugenia House, at present is a thing of beauty. Mother Nature has added a special hurryup touch to aid in the good work of showing our Majesties, the King and

Queen, Canadian beauty. Mr. Elmer Wiley of Toronto and summer home "Beaver Lodge", Sth sister, Mrs. Smith, and little daughter of Owen Sound were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James
