Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradey were Mr. and Mrs. Art Lee of Tillsonburg; Mr. and Mrs. Baker of Toronto and Miss Nina Hutchinson of Markdale.

The last meeting for the season of the Junior Red Cross was held in the form of a picnic on the school grounds.

Rosedale teacher and pupils were invited and also the parents of our own pupils. The scholars put on a real good program and the blackboard drawings were nicely done.

The president, Dorothy Bennett, called the audience to order and Eddie Boyce welcomed the visitors. The secretary, Mable Hill, read the minutes of the last meeting.

The pupils sang two choruses; recitations were given by Leona Hill, and Iona Woods; the girls sang "When he Cometh", with little Mable Woods, a tiny wee girl, playing the organ; Eddie and Bessie Boyce played a duet, which was a real enjoyment to listen to as these children are in the making for real musicians; a trio was sung by Dorothy Bennett, Ruby McCleay and Bessie Boyce; four little girls, Lois and Laverne Harvey and Eva and Leona Hill, gave some health limericks; Lois Harvey and Mable Woods gave a duet; little Mable then played a cute number on the organ; Reta McLay gave a reading; the pupils then put on a playlet, "Silly Goose's Mistake", which was really good and very humorous; "Abide with me", was then sung in two parts.

The meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem and was followed by a soft ball game, which was at first closely contested but ended with the home team winning by a good score. Miss Bradbury, on behalf of the pupils, thanked the society for their hospitality and nice afternoon. The visitors were real good sports and we enjoyed having them. Refreshments were served by the older girls of the section.

Mr. Fred Smith of Toronto spent a day at the Dickie home this week. Mrs. Smith, Marie and Lorraine, who have been visiting here, returned home with him.

School closed on Thursday last. All the children passed their examinations, some on their year's work while others had to write and got honors, others were just thankful they got through. Eddie Boyce took first form work in the school all year.

GORING

TRAVERSTON

Quite a number attended the funeral of Mrs. Dan McArthur in Durham on Monday and regret her early and sudden passing.

Anna and Keith Lawrence of Egremont are spending some holidays at the Davis homestead.

Betty Edwards and Helen Atkinson of Owen Sound are spending some of the holidays with Margaret McCrae at Palmerston. Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCrae were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards on Sunday and son, Stanley, is remaining on the farm for some time.

The downpour at the close of the week raised the waters of the big Saugeen, so that many farmers found it difficult to cross the fording places on their farms.

Mr. Waudby Baker had a successful barn-raising on Thursday afternoon of last week. As Mr. Sanford Ward was framer, it meant that the timbers went snugly together and the cement foundation built by the Rittenburg Bros. stood the strain.

Mrs. Baker and assistants had a big feast after the raising and at night a rousing dance and supper closed an eventful day.

Zion's Sunday School picnic on Saturday was a huge success and the program was considered the best ever. Rev. W. H. Smith presided and took part in all the afternoon's fun and frolic. Among the finest side-splitting numbers ever heard here, was the dramatic recitations by Miss May Robson of Toronto and the stirring, typical Scotch songs by Mr. Herb. Lamb of Detroit. Fine musical selections were given by Messrs. Ellison and Dan Edge on flutes, the numbers by Mrs. Arthur McNally on guitar and Miss Lenora on the violin and the selections by Zion's orchestra. There were solos, duets, recitations and a drill. A big supper, a monster line of kids in a candy treat, the greatest contest ever in the games and races and a lively baseball match, ended a delightful day. The mail man is due to arrive, so we've no time to mention the many visitors from Toronto, Detroit, Kitchener, Etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Young and Stanley spent a week with relatives at the Soo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rusk of Markdale spent Dominion Day with Mr. and Mrs. C. McCaulley.

On Wednesday afternoon after school the pupils presented the teacher, Miss McMullen, with a clock and picture. Agnes Trafford read the address and Harold Steer made the presentation. Miss McMullen thanked all for the gifts.

Mrs. John Steer, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Connel and family, spent a day in Owen Sound recently.

We have had some nice showers lately and now hope for fine weather for haying.

Congratulations to Goldwin Steer on passing the entrance examinations.
