Mr. Rudd Mathews, who is home from Edmonton, Alberta, on a visit, handed us a copy of the Edmonton Journal and drew our attention to an item telling of the success of a strawberry farmer at Drifville, about 170 miles north of the Alberta capital. This far north country is proving a haven for many of those who have been compelled to leave the prairies because of lack of moisture.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. J. H. Lavery of Toronto, who represents the Ontario Temperance Federation, will be speaking at the Gospel Worker's Church, Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and at Williamsford at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Lavery is a splendid speaker, and we feel sure all who hear him will be pleased with his presentation. Mr. Langford will have charge of the morning service here and at Williamsford at night. Come and enjoy these meetings.

D. L. Weber Awarded Contract for Filtering Plant

At a special meeting of the Village Council held on Monday evening the contract for the construction of a filtering plant in connection with the local waterworks system was awarded to Mr. D. L. Weber of Kimberley at $2,825.00. The plant, which will be located just north of the present pumping station, will be quite an extensive affair. The walls, floor and covering will be of reinforced concrete construction and several grades of screens gravel shall form the filtering beds. The excavation will be several feet deep and the water before being pumped to the tank on the hill near the school should be quite cold.

No debentures we understand will be issued in connection with the work but some money will be borrowed from the bank or individuals. It is expected that the improvements will be completely paid for in the course of three or four years. If the proposed plant will eliminate all contamination from our water supply then the present Council will have rendered a worthwhile service to the village and its residents. We are of the opinion that the filter beds will perform the services which they are intended to and that pure water will be supplied at all seasons of the year.

Mr. Weber has been quite successful in his contracting work and we believe he will give the village full value for the contract price. Considerable local labor will be employed and this should help all during the fall and winter season.

Dixon - Jackson

A wedding of interest, uniting two well known families of Holland Township, took place on Wednesday, July 19th, when Elizabeth Jane (Betty), only daughter of Harry Jackson and the late Mrs. Jackson, became the bride of William Albert Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon of Walters Falls. The Holland township home of the bride's family, decorated with a profusion of summer flowers and ferns, was the setting. Rev. K. K. Burnside performed the ceremony. Wedding music was played by Miss Marjorie Marshall, cousin of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long graceful gown of white crepe, made on princess lines. Her full length veil was caught with a circle of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of roses, fern and sweet alyssum, arranged with a shower of rose buds and white ribbon.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Doreen Burnside, wore orchid chiffon over taffeta, fashioned on princess lines with full skirt. Her doll's hat, gloves, and shoes were in white and she carried a shower bouquet of roses, ferns and sweet alyssum with white ribbon. William Jackson, brother of the bride was groomsmen.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Dixon received with the bridal couple in a gown of navy blue crepe. She wore matching accessories. Mr. Dixon and Mr. Jackson assisted her.

The buffet luncheon was served by girl friends of the bride: Miss Evelyn Hampton, Mrs. Clifford G. Brown and Miss Gladys Burnside and Floyd Jackson brother of the bride, Ralph Jackson, cousin of the bride, and Robert Burnside.

Mrs. Albert Rolston of Owen Sound, aunt of the bride, poured the tea, and Mrs. Erling Marshall of Walters Falls, aunt of the groom, cut the ices from the buffet table, centred with the bride's three storey wedding cake and decorated with flowers and tall pink tapers.

The bride and groom left on a motor trip. For travelling the bride wore a grey suit with royal blue accessories. They will reside in Walters Falls.

John James Fisher Dies As Result of a Stroke

Following a severe stroke which occurred on July 9th, John James Fisher passed away in the Toronto General Hospital on Tuesday, July 18, in his 60th year. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisher, and born at the old home in Osprey township. With his parents he moved to Manitoulin returning to this district four years later. Twenty-four years ago he went to Toronto from Warton where he had been employed and where he was a member of the Warton pipe band.

The late Mr. Fisher was united in marriage about thirty-five years ago to Miss Ellen Taylor of Warton, who is left to mourn the passing of a loving and devoted husband. He also leaves four daughters and three sons, Mrs. Edith Slobod, Mrs. Edna Yokum, Mrs. Helen Grieve, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, Elmer, Kenneth and John Fisher. He also leaves five brothers and two sisters, William of Winnipeg, Alex., Herb., Laurie and Charles Fisher of Toronto, Mrs. Alex. McEachnie (Mary) of Flesherton and Mrs. Murray Walker (Winnie) of Toronto.

The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon last, when service was held at the Jerritt Funeral Chapel at 2:00 o'clock p.m., interment being made in Prospect Cemetery, Toronto.

The pallbearers were: Alex. and Laurie Fisher, brothers, Kenneth and Elmer Fisher, his sons and J. Slobod and A. Thompson (sons-in-law)—Flesherton Advance.

Pearl E. Lee and Robt. W. Kennedy Wed at Markdale

A colorful arch of evergreens, roses and sweet peas, with tall standards of delphinium and madonna lilies, formed the lovely setting for a pretty summer wedding on Saturday at the Gospel Worker's Church, Markdale, when Pearl Evelyn, second daughter of Mrs. Lillie Lee and the late Robert Lee of Owen Sound, was united in marriage to Robert Wm. Kennedy son of J. Kennedy and the late Mrs. Kennedy of Chatsworth. Rev. J. Dean, minister of Gospel Worker's Church, Markdale, officiated at the ceremony which took place in the presence of many relatives and friends.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, George, was charming in a gown of white Brussels net over taffeta made on princess lines. Her embroidered veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and fell to the floor in a long train. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia Roses, lily-of-the-valley and maiden hair fern, and wore a gold locket, the gift of the groom. Miss Mary Lee attended her sister in a floor length gown of romance pointed d'esprit with matching taffeta jacket, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, while the two small flower girls, Marjory Sowerby of Berkeley and Isobelle Aikens of Hamilton, wore in pink dotted swiss and carried nosegays of sweet peas and wore gold bracelets, the gift of the groom. The groom's brother James Kennedy was the best man. Two brothers of the bride, John and Wesley acted as ushers. The wedding march was played by the church organist, Mrs. John Kennedy, sister of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Hamilton, sang "O Perfect Love."

After the ceremony a reception was held at Morrison's Inn, overlooking Georgian Bay, where about fifty guests sat down to the wedding supper. The tables were attractively decorated with June roses, pink candles and centred with a three tier bride's cake. The bride's mother received in dusky rose crepe moderne, with corsage of butterfly roses, picture hat and long lace gloves. The bride's uncle, J. Alex. Craig of Toronto, was toastmaster. Mrs. R. McClung, great-aunt of the bride, was among the guests.

After the reception the guests motored to the future home of the bride and groom where a social hour was spent viewing the many beautiful and useful gifts. Out of town guests were from Detroit, Hamilton, Toronto, Ancaster and Chicago. Later the happy couple left on a motor trip to Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a cyclamen pink hand knitted

C. P. R. Station Entered Wednesday Night

Some time late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning the C.P.R. station here was entered by would-be thieves and the large safe in the office was removed to the platform. As the building is not locked at night the visitors had no difficulty in gaining entrance and once inside it was an easy matter to climb over the partition into Mr. McHugh's office. Here papers were scattered about but nothing has been missed. The safe was taken out with the apparent intention of taking it away but for some reason the task was given up. Tracks show that a car or truck was driven along the platform as though it was the intention to load the safe. When Mr. McHugh opened it everything was found in order.

Mr. Thos. Bokes, who resides close to the railway, discovered the safe about 6.30 on Thursday morning and at once called Constable Freeman. The night watchman, who visits that part of the village several times during the night did not see or hear anything out of the ordinary. It is possible that the attempted robbery took place early in the night or after five in the morning.

The Late John Wesley Rutledge of Los Angeles

The many friends in Markdale and vicinity of John Wesley Rutledge will regret to learn of his death at his home in Los Angeles, on June 15th. The following notice is from the Los Angeles Times of that date:

Rutledge—June 15, at his home, 4150 Hooper avenue, John Wesley Rutledge, aged 79 years, beloved husband of Margaret Rutledge, father of Orland C. Rutledge and grandfather of Peggy Rutledge. Services today at 2 p.m. at Garrett Brothers-Robinson Mortuary, 921 Venice Boulevard. Entombment, Angeles Abbey.

The service at the chapel was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Wilis Martin of the Wilshire Methodist Church, and the Ind. Order of Foresters had charge of the service at the Mausoleum. The funeral was largely attended, while the floral offerings were most beautiful and voluminous showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The following is an excerpt from the eulogy delivered by Dr. Martin during the service.

John Wesley Rutledge was born in the year of 1863 in Grey County, Ontario, Canada, the son of the late Edward and Mary Ann Rutledge, whose parents migrated from Ireland in the days of sailing vessels. The deceased with four brothers and four sisters was born and raised on the farm in a cottage built by his father of logs and called his honeymoon cottage. It still stands erect as an emblem of real pioneer days. The family gradually scattered so it was left to Wessy as he was affectionately known, to carry on the homestead.

In 1891 he was married to Margaret Foster and to them was born their only child, Orland Clayton who with his mother survives. Later a move was made to the nearby village of Markdale, where a successful business was conducted. His genial disposition and ever helping hand made him exceedingly popular with the travelling public. He was active in community affairs being a member of the school board and other civic bodies, also of the Independent Order of Foresters, the Mason and the Odd Fellows. He was a regular attendant at the Methodist Church where his father was Superintendent and Bible Class leader for nearly 30 year.

In 1912 a move was made to Vancouver, B.C. During the war he was in the ship building industry. In 1920 the final move was made to Los Angeles, where he became associated with his son in the petroleum service industry, thus until his retirement, the first of the year, because of ill health, he was a real pioneer in that business. He was always affectionately greeted by "Hello Dad" by all the people, regardless of age or race. His illness entailed much suffering, but with the help of his faithful wife and uncomplaining nature, it was born with Christian fortitude.

The first break in this rugged family, with the exception of a child dying in infancy, occurred six years ago upon the death of his brother

Hugh Vaughan, Sr.

Mr. Hugh Vaughan Sr., a highly esteemed resident of Glenoraadon all his life, passed away in the Durham hospital on Saturday, July 15th. Mr. Vaughan had been ill for a long time. He was in his 73th year. Fifty-two years ago he was married to Margaret McKenzie of Glenoraadon, who is left to mourn his loss, with four sons: Hughie, James and Kenneth, and Alex. on the homestead, and one daughter, Mrs. Campbell Dunsmoor of Durham. There are 22 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Also surviving are one brother, Charlie Vaughan in the West and one sister Mrs. McClement of Glenoraadon.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at the home of his son James, and was attended by a very large number of friends and neighbors. The service was conducted at the house and grave by his pastor, Rev. C. N. Saunders of Mulock Baptist church. Interment was made in Trinity church cemetery. The pallbearers were friends and neighbors; Messrs. Thos. Melosh, Allan Boyd, Jim Ellison, John McKechnie, Joe McNally, Joe Melosh, John Kingston and Hector Kingston of Meaford.

The beautiful floral tributes were carried by nephews, John Vaughan and Kenneth Dunsmoor. Mrs. Vaughan and family have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Many friends from distant points, Meaford, Owen Sound, St. Thomas and Oshawa, attended the funeral.—Durham Review.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. McLintock, Georgetown, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Margaret Mae, to Mr. Hugh W. D. Mercer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mercer, Markdale, the wedding to take place in Pilgrim United Church, Hamilton, on August 10th at four o'clock.

suit with cape and accessories of Queen's blue. Upon their return they will reside at Markdale.

Jos. Howard Lee, Veteran of Great War; Called by Death

Joseph Howard Lee, who enlisted with the 226th at Virden and served until the Great War ended with the 27th Battalion in France, died Monday, July 3, aged 51 years, 7 months and 18 days.

Comrade Lee was highly esteemed by Comrades of the Canadian Legion with whom he associated until illness prevented further activities. He was respected by all who knew him, being a good citizen as well as a kind husband and father.

Mr. Lee was born at Markdale, Ont., on November 15th, 1887, where he lived until 1909 when he came west and settled in Fairlight, Sask. Three years later he moved to Elk-horn, and five years after the end of the Great War he moved to Virden. He was a capable farmer and a trained carpenter. These were the occupations which he followed and always being dependable never had any difficulty about getting employment. He was connected with the United Church and was a member of the L.O.L.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Jessie Lee, he is survived by four daughters: Teresa, Elizabeth, Isabella and Audrey.

He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Robert and William Lee, Wadena, Sask.; Mrs. Sanford Ward, Markdale, Ont.; David Lee, St. Catharines, Ont.; Mrs. Dillon, Senlac, Sask.; Elmont Lee, Prince Albert, Sask.; Dunn Lee and Mrs. C. W. Hutchinson, Markdale, Ont.

The funeral will take place this (Wednesday) afternoon from St. Paul's United church, where a service of remembrance and sympathy will be conducted by the minister, Rev. W. A. Osborne.—Virden Advance, Manitoba.

Rev. J. T. Conn, Retired Minister, Buried

The last sad rites in tribute to the life and work of the Rev. John Thorburn Conn were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from St. James' United Church to Little Lake Cemetery.

In honor to his memory his brother ministers attended, and officiating at the service were his pastor, Rev. F. W. Craik, Rev. M. C. Parr, chairman of the Presbytery; Rev. T. Jull, president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, and Rev. A. L. Sisco of Millbrook.

The pall-bearers included: Revs. J. S. Ferguson of Keene, C. H. Ferguson of Bethany, G. S. Kelly of Lakefield, J. W. Wilkinson of Warrsaw, E. W. Rowland of Mark Street Church, Peterborough, and V. E. R. Zulef of Knox United Church, Peterborough.

The brief but impressive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Parr, with the appropriate Scripture lesson chosen from John 14: 1-14, read by Rev. Mr. Sisco. After earnest prayer by Rev. Mr. Jull, the address was given by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Craik, whose text was taken from Revelation 2: 10: "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

Life Victorious Experience

Life for every Christian ought to be a victorious experience, said the minister, who pointed to the life of the Master as an example. Christ lived submissively, convincingly and tenderly, but, above all, victoriously. The cross is not a tragedy but a triumph. It is our privilege to follow in His footsteps, and if we are faithful, we will receive the promise of the "crown of life." Such a one was the late Rev. Mr. Conn, whose whole thought was bound up in the church and who was a lover of the sanctuary. His pastor told of the fine fellowship he had enjoyed with this brother minister, who had received his call to the church through his mother's prayer. Referring to the departed, Mr. Craik spoke of his great eloquence in prayer, and averred that he was a man of deep integrity and of kindness, a true friend, always ready to bring cheer into the lives of others. In the closing words of his address, the minister assured the assembled friends of Mr. Conn's beautiful hope in the life beyond, being confident that he had now been called to receive the "crown of life."

As president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, Rev. Mr. Jull also concurred in this tribute to the deceased and expressed sincere Christian sympathy to those who mourned.

The music was also in keeping with the spirit of the service, the hymns being favorites of the late minister, and the beautiful solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Mrs. E. Kitney, was contributed by his request.

The church organist, Cecil Lapp, and the choir were in attendance. The graveside service was in charge of Revs. Craik, Parr and Jull, and was attended by a large concourse of friends.

Started in Scotland.

The work of Rev. Mr. Conn commenced in Glasgow and Aberdeen, Scotland, as an active mission worker. Later he was sent by the Scotch Presbyterian Mission Board to serve in British Columbia. From here he filled many important charges, including Markdale, where he was elected Moderator of Grey Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church; Matheson, Ontario, Kilmarnock and Arden. In a long life of interesting experiences one highlight is cherished by Mr. Conn's friends. This incident occurred on a holiday in Northern Ontario, when at the time of the great fire, he was instrumental in saving many lives. In recognition he was presented by the people of Matheson with a sterling silver salver, for his untiring courage, steadfast devotion to duty and rescue work during the fire.

Among his brother ministers of the city and in the congregation of St. James' United Church, the passing of Rev. J. T. Conn leaves a real sense of loss in the work of the Christian Church as well as in the entire community.—Peterboro Examiner.

Card of Thanks

I desire to express sincere thanks to all good friends for kind acts and treats, the doctors and nurses for attention and nursing during my stay in Markdale hospital.

Breadner Reunion

The beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Breadner and family, near Heathcote, was the place chosen for the sixth annual reunion of the descendants of the late Joshua, Robert and Joseph Breadner. It was held on Wednesday, July 5th. The weather was ideal and friends came from Toronto, Cheltenham, Brampton, Badjeros, Proton, Thornbury, Meaford, Rocklyn, Chatsworth, Berkeley, Ingleswood and other points. There were 97 names registered.

When the guests had all gathered, a very satisfying dinner was served, followed by a treat of ice cream.

Then came the business part of the meeting, with the president, Mr. Wm. Breadner, presiding. Mr. Ed. Breadner of Badjeros was chairman. The officers elected are as follows: President, Mr. Wm. Breadner, Heathcote, Sec'y-Treas., Mrs. Albert Breadner, R.R. 3, Brampton; Assist. Sec'y., Miss Mary Manary, Berkeley; Sports Committee, Mr. Harry McKillop, Brampton, Mr. Wm. Reid, Jr., Brampton, Mr. Leslie Breadner, Heathcote, Miss Birdena McClean, Rocklyn, Miss Kathleen Breadner, Reg. N., Markdale.

It was decided to hold the next reunion at Sunset Point, near Collingwood, on the first Wednesday in July 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. Breadner were tendered a hearty vote of thanks for the use of their home.

Ball games, horse shoe pitching and a variety of races occupied the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKillop donated prizes for the races. A generous collection was received, to be used for prizes and other expenses next year.

About 5.30, after farewells, all returned to their homes, hoping to meet again next year.

Who says freckles aren't useful? They will bring some lucky youngsters nice prizes this summer—that is if they have enough of them! Which means that the Freckle-Faced Kids Competition is on again at the Canadian National Exhibition. So better write away for an entry form—entries close August 24th.
