VOL. 60; NO. 11.

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16th. 1939

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

LOCAL NEWS

Keep Friday, Nov. 24, for the party in the Legion Hall.

Mr. Biil Edwards of Belleville was a week-end visitor with friends

Miss Elta Henry of Toronto visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Henry, over the week-end.

Mrs. W. S. Chalmers of Owen Sound visited over the week-end with Mrs. C. W. Rutledge.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Dundas.

parents, Dr. J. A. and Mrs. Mc-

See next week's paper for full particulars of the card party and dance under the auspices of the So-Sew Club. Mrs. Sarah McEachnie left recent-

Grey County Council is in session in Owen Sound this week. Messrs. J. A. Davis, Warden, and Reeve Albert Rusk are in attendance.

Messrs. Price and Fred Teeter o with their brother, Mr. Thorn Teeter, and family and other friends in the locality.

Dr. L. G. Campbell and Mr. T. H Wilson represented the Markdale Cemetery Board at the annual convention of the Cemeteries Association in Toronto this week.

The So-Sew Club members are holding a party in the Legion Hall on Friday, Nov. 24, in aid of the Canadian Red Cross and the draw for the quilt will also be made.

Word was received here on Tues day of the death of Mr. John Beaton at Vancouver, B.C. No particulars were given. The deceased was a former resident here and a son-inlaw of Mr. John Caesar.

In a paper which Mrs. G. Scott received recently from England the inreasonable prices and that there is no shortage of food in the old land.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Summers and family were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison and Mrs. Norman Stephenson of Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fettis of New Toronto and Miss Doris Smith of Ar-

Mr. Harry Cornett, who about 47 years ago was employed in the Haskett hardware as tinsmith, passed away in Toronto last week aged 70 and Niagara Falls. For travelling years. When in Markdale the late the bride wore a knitted wool sult Mr. Cornett played ball with the lo-

Mr. John Gardiner, for more than wine accessories. 60 years in the hardware business in Dundalk, passed away suddenly noon. He was 86 years of age and was active to the end. The funeral takes place in Dundalk at 2.30 on Friday afternoon.

Quite a number of the local returned men attended the morning service in Christ Church on Sunday when the Rector, Rev. C. O. Pherrill, gave an address in keeping with the events of to-day. His sermon attended particularly the veterans.

Each member of the band is being ford. provided with an instruction book and to do this the committee requires considerable money. Donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged through the columns of The Standard. Mr. R. L. Singleton miscellaneous shower was held in is the band treasurer.

Dundalk, passed away suddenly fol- fifty friends gathered, which showed lowing a heart attack while driving the esteem in which the young 1261 held recently officers were elfrom Toronto to his home at Whitby couple are held. The first part of on Tuesday evening. For the past the evening was enjoyed in dancing fifteen years he had been the elec- and after lunch was served Mr. and trician at the Ontario Hospital at Mrs. McMillan were asked to come Whitby. When a young man he was forward and three tables of beautione of the lacrosse players in Dun-ful and useful gifts were unwrapped dalk. Interment will be made at by Mr. Henry Beaton, Murt McMil-Dundalk on Friday.

SHUP IN MARKDALE

IN MEMORIAM

'LEITCH-In ever loving memor of my dear son, Wilfred Leitch, who died suddenly, November 20, 1937.

Sad and sudden was the call Of one so dearly loved by all: The blow was hard, the shock severe, We little thought his death so

Forget him: no we never will For in our home is a vacant spot Which never can be filled. But God saw best to call him home, Where he shall ever be in peace And sweet rest forever more. Sadly missed by mother

McFadden - Lawson

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. awson of the 11th line, Euphrasia, was the scene of a pretty wedding at high noon on Saturday, November 11th, when their younger daughter, Muriel Jean, was united in marriage to Mr. Hamilton Elgin McFadden of Markdale, Rev. Donald Sinclair of Hepworth was the officiating minischarming picture attired in a floor length gown of ivory satin and lace with long veil held in place by a Miss Margaret Dundas of Toronto coronet of orange blossoms. She spent the week-end with her parents, carried a bouquet of sunset roses, lily-of-the-valley and fern. She en-Miss Vida McArthur of Toronto tered the living room on the arm of was a week-end visitor with her her father and proceeded to her place under an arch of evergreen pink and white streamers and white bells. Mrs. Clive Dolan of Flesherton, attired in dusky blue crepe with corsage bouquet of yellow tea roses. was her sister's matron of honour. ly for Listowel, where she will spend her flower girls, little Beverley Ann the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lawson of Harrow in a pale pink Ashton.

Lafteta dress with large pink bow in There her hair and Mary Dolan of Flesh- the service, many Markdale people dress with blue bow in her hair, each carrying a small nosegay of pink and white sweet peas, preceded the brid-Wainwright, Alberta, are visitors al party to the arch. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Elwin Reaburn of Shelburne.

The wedding march was well renfon velvet. At the close of the ceremony a duet. "I Love You Truly" was beautifully 'rendered' by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lawson. The bride's mother was attired in navy blue miracle crepe with braid embroidery, while the groom's mother wore light navy with trimming of cut velvet. After congratulations and besi wishes the company proceeded to the dining room, which was decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells, where a delicious wedding repast was served by Mrs. Russell Lawson, assisted by Mrs. formation is given that plenty of Eric Clark, Mrs. H. Cothier, Mrs. beef and pork may be purchased at Clara Wiley, and the Misses Bernice Walker, Ruth and Marion McFadden. The bride's table was centred by the lovely three-storey wedding cake, with candles of pale pink in silver holders.

At the close of dinner toasts were given by Rev. D. Sinclair, Mr. R. W. E. McFadden and Mr. Perry Lawson to which the groom ably responded.

The young couple left later in the ifternoon amid showers of confetti on a honeymoon trip to Hamilton of rustglow over which she wore a coat of platinum grey broadtail and She wore the groom's gift, a lovely white gold wrist watch. His gift to the matron in his store on Wednesday after- of honour and organist were silver candle holders and to the flower girls gold monogramed pins.

> The young couple were the recipents of a large number of costly and eautiful shower and wedding gifts. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on the highway just north of Markdale. Guests from a distance who attended the wedding were Mr. and was greatly appreciated by all who Mrs. R. W. E. McFadden of Brantford; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lawson County, Mr. W. E. Harris of Mark-The Treasurer of the band funds and Beverley Ann and Mrs. Owen of dale; Hanover Kinsmen Club, Mr. gratefully acknowledges a donation Harrow; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley, Karl Knechtel of Hanover; Hortiof $2.00 from Dr. R. B. Murray. Elgin and Clarence, from near Mea-

Bride and Groom Feted

On Friday evening, Nov. 10, Glenelg Parish Hall for the recent Mr. F. A. Nixon, only son of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Pat late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nixon of McMillan. About two hundred and lan and Leonard McKeown and verses read by Blanche Beaton and Frank Dunbar. The groom responded on behalf of his wife and thanked everyone for their kindness. A short program followed with Geo. Black as chairman. Mr. Bill McKechnie gave a speech; a song from Jack Smarl; step dancing by John Mc-Grath and Leonard McKeown was much enjoyed. Then all circled the bride and groom and a sing-song of Rice. "The more we are together the happier we'll be", "For they are jolly good fellows", etc., concluded the program. Dancing then continued to the excellent music of Leonard McKeown, George O'Henley and Jack Teeter accompanied on the piano by Dan McArthur and Stephen

SHOP IN MARKDALR

O'Henly on the guitar.

Remembrance Day Service - Held At Flesherton

The members of the -Markdale Branch of the Canadian Legion and Markdale Citizen's Band took part in the Remembrance Day service held at Flesherton on Saturday last. A parade was formed at the town high school pupils. Markdale band. civic officials and war veterans and The fair young bride made a marched to the park where Mr. Alf. Down, Reeve of Flesherton, acted as chairman, Mr. F. R. Oliver, M.P.P. placed the wreath supplied by the Ontario Government and Mr. Jack Perkins of Markdale sounded the Last Post.

Owing to the cold weather the the town hall. Here Mr. Down was supreme sacrifice for the cause of attended by sympathizing friends balance of the program was held at chairman and first called on Rev. briefly. Rev. C. O. Pherrill of that struggle. Makdale read the Scripture lesson. Two little nieces of the bride were delivered the address and Rev. Fred Rev. G. K. McMillan of Flesherton Ashton also of Flesherton led in

There was a good attendance as being present.

Rotary Club Meeting

Mr. John Mills of Hanover was dered by Mrs. Perry Lawson of Har-ing on Tuesday evening and gave the speaker at the Rotary Club meetthe members a splendid word picture of the big Rotary Convention held at Cleveland, Ohio, in June last. Mr. Mills represented the Hanover Club at the convention and he brought home with him much information. He had not come prepared to talk but was in town as the Hanover Rotary representative at the Home Beautification meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the Department of Agriculture. Messrs. Karl Knechtel and Harvey Lucas of Han over were also visitors at the Rotary Club meeting which was held in the Odd Fellows' dining hall.

Home and Rural Beautification Organization

There was a fair representation at the meeting held in the Department of Agriculture here on Tuesday afternoon to discuss the advisability of organizing a society for the hearing the address of Mr. John F. Clark, Lecturer on Horticulture in connection with the Department of Agriculture, and several others it was decided to organize. The society will cover the whole county and will iso take in the city of Owen Sound.

Officers were selected as follows: Hon. Presidents, Miss A. C. Mc Phail, M.P. for Grey-Bruce; Mr. W. P. Telford, M.P. for North Grey; Mr. F. R. Oliver, M.P.P. for South Grey, and Mr. Roland Patterson, M. P.P. for North Grey.

President, Mr. John McGirr of Glenelg.

Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Hugh Bailey of Dundalk and Mrs. Russell Freeman of Euphrasia. Secretary, Mr. T. S. Cooper of cultural Societies, Geo. Folster of Owen Sound; Public School Inspectors, J. J. Wilson, S. A. Morrison and Geo. Pentland; Junior Farmers, Elgin McCutcheon of Osprey; Junior W. I., Miss Alice Frizzell.

Officers of Massie Orange Lodge Installed

At a meeting of Massie L.O.L. No. ected to serve for the coming year. Mr. George Caswell, W.M., of Holland District, conducted the installation ceremony. Following are the officers:

Wor. Master, Stanley Norton. Past Master, Geo. W. Shouldice. Deputy Master, Chas. Fisher. Chaplain. James Howey. Rec.-Sec., George Hanna. Fin.-Sec., Arnold Ceaser. Treasurer. W. M. Morrow. Marshal, James Riddell. Lecturers, J. J. Matheson and R.

Tyler, Robt, Purvis. Committee, Clayton Howey, Russell Farley, M. Farley, H. Taylor, G.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Joseph Boyd announces the engagement of her only daughter. Anna Gladys, to Gordon Stanley Bumstead, youngest son of Mrs. Bumstead and the late Mr. Albert Bumstead of St. Vincent. The marriage to take place quietly the latter part of November.

Veterans Attend Service D. H. McDonald of Glenelg Husband of Former Glenelg The Churches

On Sunday evening great war veterans to the number of about twenty-five attended a Remembrance Berkeley and listened to an exceed- of Glenelg. He was in his 79th year Mr. and Mrs. James Hall of Glenelg ingly fitting address delivered by and had not enjoyed good health for hall consisting of the public and Rev. R. K. Burnside, the pastor. The church was filled to capacity with an appreciative audience and Mr. Rurnside's address was listened to with rapt attention. Miss Maud Acheson contributed an appropriate solo

The address of Mr. Burnaide con densed follows:

Comrades of the Great War: .ve re gathered here that we may remember our brethren who made the Dr. Mercer of Maxwell who spoke part that we shared with them in

Let us recall the step we were led tory.

The need of our Empire and its allies in the years 1914 to 1918 called us and our brethren from our chosen vocations to a kind of life which was foreign to us.

We had been brought up in an at-John Mills Speaks At Local plunged into an atmosphere of war. Our days were spent in rigorous training so that we might be physcally fit to endure whatever hardship might be our lot. When that ordeal was over we were declared to be ready for the stern tasks of warfare. Some moved to the front line with amazing speed, others followed later becoming immunized to the baptism of fire.

During those days there was no rague idea that what we were doing was somehow necessary to restore peace to the world. That was the thought which carried us through ed to our lot. There followed bright days when our hopes of a speedy days when it seemed defeat might be our portion. There were days of loneliness when we thought of companion who had fallen. Thus passed the days until the Armistice. The "cease fire" order did something to us that we could beautification of the county. After not describe. Someone said, "The War is over and soon we shall be going home". And as men awakening from a dream, we awakened to 25 cents. nightmare of war would be left be hind us, and soon we could return to our chosen tasks. How good it would be to be once more engaged in the

The intervening years since then have been years of disillusionment. Wars and rumours of wars have disturbed the world's peace. One small nation after another has fallen be fore the ruthless villainy of nations governed at present by evil men. To take what belongs to another without his consent is to be guilty of theft. And when the crime is com- cents. Ladies with boxes free. mitted by a nation, or in the nation's name, it is still a crime. The con-Directors, O. S. Kiwanis Club, Mr. science of the world condemns it. Bridge and Euchre party with old The Spirit of Eternal justice whisp- time and modern dancing in the Leers that the wrongdoer shall not go unpunished.

By a strange turn of fate our sons are being challenged to take up the task which our generation left un-quilt. done. We used to sing: "We don't want to fight to show our might" There is a meaning in those lines which all should understand. No Friday, Nov. 17, under the auspices Briton, no member of the Anglo- of the Agricultural Society. Murray Saxon race wants to fight just to Simmons and his colored band, feashow his might, but whatever there are wrongs to be righted, or honour Sensational Tap Dancer. Adm. 25c to be maintained, - Britain's sons everywhere respond to the challenge. They are now responding to dian Legion Hall on Friday eventhe call to become crusaders for the cleansing of the world from deceit and violence. We shall fight on until there is a for the dove of peace. So rememberng those who gave their lives for freedom's sake, let us now dedicate ourselves to freedom's service, knowing that they who serve the cause of freedom must be serving freedom's S. Debate. Resolved that the ac-God, and they who ally themselves cumulation of wealth is the greatest with freedom's God must come through the struggle more than conquerors.

I shall conclude by quoting the following lines which were found on the body of an Australian soldier. 'Ye that have faith to look with fearlese eyes Beyond the tragedy of a world at strife,

And know that of our death and night shall rise, The dawn of ampler life.

Rejoice, whatever anguish rend the heart, That God has given you the priceless dower

To live in these great times and have where.

Dies Following Stroke

One of Glenelg's esteemed citizens in the person of Hanlan McDonald, ald reports the death of James A Day service in the United Church at Nov. 4th, at his home on the 4th line two years previous to his death.

His quick wit and kindly personality will be greatly missed by a host of friends.

Besides his wife, who was before her marriage Christina McKinnon, he leaves to mourn his loss one adopted son, Freddie of Detroit and held yesterday afternoon at two o'two sisters, Kate, Mrs. John Brady, and Sarah of Saginaw, Mich. The funeral, which was largely supreme sacrifice for the cause of and neighbors, was held to St John's the Masonic lodge in charge of the cause of the cause of the cause of the freedom. Also to call to mind the Cemetery, Glenelg, on Nov. 6, High burial rites. Mass was sung by Father T. B. Grace. The pallbearers were Edgar large crowd, residents from all to take in that crisis in world his-tory.

Patterson, Wm. Beaton, Duncan parts of the county being present to bunbar, Mert. O'Henley, Angus Dun-pay final respects to the memory of bar and Geo. Black.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Freddie Mc- fied further to the high esteem in Donald of Detroit; his sisters, Kate, which Mr. Weich was held. Mrs. John Brady, and Miss Sarah McDonald, nephew and niece, Mr. Durose, O. C. Wilson, Roy Oxford, mosphere of peace and lo we were Neil McIntyre, and Mrs. H. Dangle George E. Crocker, W. W. Ferbrache and daughter of Saginaw, Mich.; and R. M. Thomas. Mrs. John Black and son, John, of St. Charles, Mich.; Mr. Dan McKin- August 15, 1858, in Alto, Wil., of non, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fitzgerald, Mr. pioneer parents who, when Jim, as and Mrs. W. Henry and daughter of he was known, was still a lad, moved London and Miss Celia Fennerty of westward into Minnesota. Here he

Mrs. Thos. Shannon Dead

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Rachel Shannon, time to think of a return to the tasks widow of the late Thomas Shannon of peace. We had been transported of Artemesia, who died at the home from the world we knew into a world of her sister, Mrs. Walter Smith. at Bismark in 1894. of terror. We did not know what "Hastings Road". Battle, Sussex. we were accomplishing; we had a England, on Friday, October 13th. 1939.

GASOLINE - BUT a new miracle the logging industry was clearing athe days. We had become reconcil- of gasoline chemistry, Nu-Blue Sun- way the timber for the agricultural oco made possible by a remarkable development to follow. The second new process that was HAILED BY Mrs. Welch passed away here in victory ran high, there were dark THE PRESS OF THE WORLD! Sold 1932. by A. O. Gillespie.

Coming Events

Notices under this heading are in erted at five cents per line for each insertion with a minimum charge of Ebenezer Sunday School (A and E) will hold their Christmas concert on Friday evening, Dec. 15th. A euchre party, box social and dance will be held in the Orange Hall, Markdale, on Friday evening Nov. 17th. Admission 25 cents Ladies with boxes free. E

Box Social and dance will be held in the Orange Hall at Berkeley on Friday, Nov. 24th, under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 176. Adm. 25 200 -

The So Sew Club are holding a gion Hall on Friday evening. Nov. 24. Proceeds are in aid of the Canadian Red Cross. Prizes will also be given and the draw made for the

The dance of the season: Dance and floor show in Walters Falls on turing Murray Simmons, Chicago's Euchre and Bridge in the Canaing, Nov. 17, by permission of the Canadian Red Cross Society, sponored by the Canadian Legion, Markdale Branch No. 205. Proceeds to fitting resting place in this world go to the Canadian Red Cross Society. Lunch served. Adm. 25 cts. E

A chicken pie supper will be held at New England Church on Friday. Nov. 24. Supper served from 6 to menace in the world today. Outside talent vs home talent. Adm. 35 cents and 20 cents.

your part In freedom's crowning hour.

That ye may tell your sons who see the light High in the Heavens-their heritage to take_ I saw the powers of darkness take their flight. I saw the morning break."

Let each do his part in this great struggle and one day Peace will come to dwell on this earth forever, and good-will be triumphant every

Woman Passes

The Bonners Ferry (Idaho) Herpassed away on Saturday morning, Welch whose widow was formerly Miss Mary Hall, daughter of the late The clipping from the Idaho pape follows:

James A. Welch, pioneer resident of this district and former county official, passed away Sunday after noon at 1.30 o'clock, in his Northside home, after an illness of about three months. Funeral services were clock from the Crouch chapel, Rev. M. R. Gallaher, local Methodist minister, officiating. Interment was in the Paradise Valley cemetery, with

The services were attended by a pay final respects to the memory of a loyal friend and neighbor. The many beautiful floral tributes testi-

The pallbearers were Dr. F. W.

James Alphonso Welch was born grew to manhood and here on August 25, 1878, he was married to Lucy Boslin. To this union six children were born, four of whom are living. The family, carrying on the pioneering traditions, again, moved westward into North Dakota, locat ing near Bismark. Mrs. Welch died

In 1900 Mr. Welch was married to Sarah E. Fitch. Three years later the family again decided to seek the outposts of the American frontier NOT JUST ANOTHER NEW and came to Bonners Ferry, where

In 1934 Mr. Welch was married to Mary Elizabeth Hall, who survives at the home here.

Back in the days when the Koo tenai Valley was a part of Bonner county Mr. Welch served two years as game warden. Two years after Boundary county was created, Mr Welch was elected a county commissioner. He served a term as chairman of the board, and was reelected for a second term, when he was again named chairman. His second term expired in January. 1923. Shortly thereafter he was appointed highway maintenance supervisor, a position he held about six

Mr. Welch was a member of the local Masonic lodge, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. He was also an acof the Methodist tive member church.

The surviving children are: Mrs. J. J. Herlick, Salem, Ore.; Mrs. George Crawford, Harvey, N. Dak. and Ralph A. Welch and Mrs. C. W. Chappell, both of Bonners Ferry. He is also survived by a brother, A. D. Welch, Ronan, Mont.

services included A. D. Welch, Mrs. Herlick, Mrs. Harold Richards of Newport. Wash., a granddaughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDonald, of Sandpoint, Mrs. McDonald also being a granddaughter. In the death of James Welch the county has lost one of its finest pioneer characters, and all join in mourning his loss and in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Dave McCauley of Holland Centre announce the engagement of their eldest daughter. Christena Roberta (Ruby) to Franklin Stanley Dixon voungest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon of Walters Falla. The marriage to take place quietly the latter part of Nov ember

GEO. E. DUNCAN'S SALE REGISTER

Friday, Nov. 17, J. Fortney, Mild-

Saturday, Nov. 18, J. E. Lockhart, McIntyre. Wednesday, Nov. 22nd. Robt. ims. Holstein.

Monday, Nov. 27, Mrs. W. H. Holey, Holland Centre. Tuesday, Nov. 28, Geo. Lawlor, 23rd. A good program will follow

Wednesday, Nov. 29, Ed. Young, Bowling Green. Thursday, Nov. 30, Gerald Wallace, Kimberley. Friday, Dec. 1st, Community sale, Holstein.

Anglican Church Notes Rev. C. O. Pherrill, B.A., B.D.

Christ Church, Markdale 10 a.m.-Sunday School. 11 a.m.-Morning Service. 7 p.m .- Evening Service.

St. Matthias' Church, Berkeley 2.15 p.m .- Sunday School. 3.00 p.m.-Church Service.

The Presbyterian Church in Canada

Rev. J. E. Taylor, Minister

SERVICES AT Priceville-11 a.m. Swinton Park-3 p.m. Sunday School each Sunday mo. ...

ing at 10 a.m. All boys and girls are welcome. If you have no Church home come and worship with us. You will find

Gospel Workers' Church

Rev. W. F. Dean, Minister Markdale Church

10 a.m.-Sunday School. 11 a.m.-Church Service. 7.30 p.m .- Church Service. Church Prayer Meeting Tuesday

Williamsford Church 11 a.m .- Sunday School. 7.30 p.m.-Church Service Friday evening - Cottage Prayer

United Church of Canada Rev. S. E. Annis, M.A., B D., Pastor

10.45 a.m.-Morning Service. 12 noon-Sunday School. 3 p.m.—Ebenezer: Communion Service.

7 p.m .- Evening Service! Monday, 7 p.m.-C. G. I. T. S p.m .- Young People's Society. Wednesday, 7 p.m .- Trail Rang-

S p.m .- Prayer Service. Friday, 7 p.m .- Choir Practice.

United Church of Canada

Holland Centre Circuit

Rev. R. K. Burnside, LL.B., Pasto:

11 a.m.-Berkeley. 2.45 p.m.—Harkaway. 7.30 p.m .- Holland Centre.

Pentecostal Assembly

2 p.m.—Sunday School.

3 p.m .- Worship. 7.30 p.m .- Evangelistic Service. Welcome to all.

Worker in charge: Mrs. Fred Tay-

WODEHOUSE

Jack Frost has certainly been in plain evidence these chilly nights but the glorious bright days of the past week have been a grand display Out-of-town relatives here for the of sunshine making a bright spot in our usually dull November days.

> Several from here attended the Remembrace Day services in Rockivn on Sunday afternoon last Mr. and Mrs. Eric Clark attended > the wedding on Saturday last of the latter's niece. Miss Jean Lawson of Harkaway to Mr. Elgin McFadden. Mr. Newton Hutchinson and son, Billie, visited on Wednesday with friends in Toronto. A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mr. and Mrs. E. Freeman of Markdale at the latter's parental home. Mr. and 'Mrs. Geo. Irwin on Thursday night last when best wishes and many gifts were extended to the young couple who were recently married. May we offer congratulations. Mr. N. Mathews and daughter, Helen, spent the week-end in Stay-ner. Mr. Garnet Walsh happened with painful accident one day this last week when he was kicked by a horse, injuring his hand to the extent of a broken bone. Mr. Ed. Wilcox and son, Gordon, have been making extensive repairs to their stable by adding new cement floors in their shed and remodelling the same. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cornfield and daughter, Blanche, of Epping were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Cornfield's mother and brother, Mrs. T. I. Fawcett and Edgar.

The date for the chicken pie supper has been set for Thursday, Nov. he supper.

NU-BLUE SUNOCO is a great discovery-May antiquate present refining processes-Will give motoriste a new kind of gasoline at no cost. Sold by A. O. Gillespie.