 Mr. and Mrs. D. Strain and sons of Toronto were visitors with Mrs. Olmstead and Mrs. Brown on Sunday.
 The W. I. masquerade social held last Tuesday evening in the hall was quite enjoyable. Various desperate looking characters were out, also some genteel ones. Miss Babington of Goring, Rev. and Mrs. Thomas were judges. A short program was given, after which lunch of sandwiches and pie was served.
 Mr. William Joseph Laycock of North Battleford, Sask., was a visitor with his uncle, Mr. Jno. Laycock, last Tuesday. Mrs. Laycock and son, Norman and lady friend were callers on Wednesday.
 The Anglican Guild held their November meeting at the home of Miss Ethel Walter last Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance of members and visitors. Mrs. Acheson welcomed the visitors. Various items of business were dealt with. Miss Velma Rennie read the Scripture. The roll call was answered by naming a mountain or river of Scripture. Mrs. Laycock read from the Study book. Rev. Mr. Thomas spoke for a time on "Life with the Eskimos," which was very instructive. The meeting was closed with a hymn and prayer after which lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Rennie assisted by the Misses Rennie.
 The fowl supper served by the ladies of the United Church last Friday evening had a good attendance and was well worth it. The fowl was beautifully cooked and the other eats equally good. Quite a good program was given of a varied nature.
 The A.Y.P.A. held their first meeting of the season last Thursday at the home of Miss Jessie Wales. Rev. Mr. Thomas opened the meeting with prayer. The following persons were elected to office: President, Jack Young; Vice-president, Doris Seabrook; secretary, Jessie Wales; assistant secretary, Harvey Young; treasurer, Blanche Seabrook; delegate to Local Council, Mrs. Thomas, Lewis Dixon; scribe, Elgin Seabrook.

IN MEMORIAM
 LEITCH—In loving memory of our dear brother, Wilfred Leitch, who died suddenly November 20, 1937.
 No one knows the silent heartache, No one, only those can tell Who ever lost a loved one, Without a last farewell. Sadly missed by brothers and sisters.

ROCKLYN

The annual memorial services were held Sunday afternoon in the township hall with large numbers present. The veterans paraded in a body and occupied the front seats of the hall. Mr. Harold Dawn, reeve of the township, acted as chairman and Temple Hill choir, with Mrs. Stewart Falls at the piano, led in the singing of the hymns. The Scripture readings were given by Rev. A. A. Jenner and Mr. Wilfred Hall led in prayer. The guest speaker for the afternoon was Rev. Allan Ferry of Knox United Church, Owen Sound, who delivered a most impressive and inspiring address. He showed how the veterans of the Great War may help at home in the present conflict by preventing profiteering and standing behind the younger men, who will be occupied in active service. These men are going out to complete the task begun twenty-five years ago by those whom we are now honouring to-day. We cannot break faith with them, and we must stand behind Great Britain in her present need, as we have always stood behind her.
 After the pronouncing of the benediction the veterans led the way to the Memorial Gates, where the last post was sounded and two minutes silence observed. The wreath was placed by Mrs. Mary Cook, representing those bereaved as a result of the Great War.

 The goose supper and dance held Friday evening by the Agricultural Society proved an outstanding success.
 Miss Amelia Yeadell is spending this week the guest of her sister, Mrs. Stan. Hutchinson of Meaford.

Ladies' FASHION HIGH MILLINERY

"Full of Personality"
 There's nothing like a new hat to make you feel like a new person. If your taste is youthful, you'll probably want impertinent "little hats" saucy of the face styles. The more mature women usually prefer down sweeping brims. Those desiring height will choose up-shooting feathers and high crowns, and women who don't want to look taller prefer beret styles, sailors and shallower crowns. You'll have no trouble finding what you want among our selections of Fall and Winter Millinery. Whatever your type, whatever your taste, you're sure to find a hat to please here.
 Priced at $1.19, $1.59 and $1.95
