MEN'S & BOYS' WEAR MARKDALE, ONT.

ROCKLYN

The Women's Institute held their regular meeting last Thursday evening in the form of a supper party, with the members' families present as guests. Mr. T. S. Cooper of Markdale showed his slides on "Home Beautification" during the evening. Musical numbers were given by Mildred, Florence and Johnny Gardner and Isabel and Marguerite Foy. During a short business meeting the ladies decided to hold a special class for the study of the wool project on Tuesday, Nov. 28, in the Agricultural Hall. Mrs. Earl Gardner was appointed delegate to attend the W.I. Convention in Toronto. The next meeting was arranged to be held on Dec. 12th, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Burrell.

Mrs. Martha Rows of Meaford is in attendance on her sister, Mrs. J. A. Cook, who is confined to her bed as a result of a fall which she sustained last week. Mrs. Cook's many friends trust she will make a speedy recovery from her injuries. Mr. and Mrs. Garne Greenaway and family, Miss Barbara Curry and Mr. George Curry visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Cavers of Strathroy. Mrs. Jas. Hopkins celebrated her 91st birthday quietly on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Yeadeil, when about twenty-five members of her family gathered around her in honour of the occasion. Mrs. Hopkins still enjoys fairly good health and retains her cheerful and alert mind. The Mickey and Paddy travelling show is appearing in the town hall each evening this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ira MacDonald are moving this week to Meaford, where they expect to spend the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McKenzie returned this week from their post-nuptial trip to Windsor.

EAST BERKELEY

Quite a few of our neighbors attended the social at Harkaway, which was in the interests of the Red Cross funds. Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Murray of Meaford visited recently with the latter's mother, Mrs. John Steer. Mr. Roy Wood of Markdale has been busy doing some carpenter work at the home of Mr. Gordon Steer. Mr. Bejout of Walters Falls has been finishing up the threshing in this neighborhood; grain was a very good crop. Mrs. Howard Connell of Holland Centre visited for a few days with her mother. We are having lovely weather here at time of writing.

WODEHOUSE

Guess we'll have to straighten out the date of the chicken pie supper. Only one more day to wait, Nov. 24. The date was changed unknown to your scribe in order to co-operate with the High School pupils, who, of course like to get home for all such occasions. Hope no harm done. Mrs. J. Squires of Markdale spent a few days with old friends here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walsh. A happy evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wiley on Friday night when a farewell was tendered Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison, Hazel and Earl, who have moved to their farm at Vandeleur. Mrs. Clara Wiley of Markdale spent the week-end with her sisters at the old home and was present at the farewell for the Morrison family. Miss Hodgins of Cherry Grove visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Brown and family for a few days. Arrangements have been made with different committees to hold the Sunday School Christmas Tree on Friday evening, Dec. 22nd. Next Sunday at 2.30 Rev. Silas McAuslan, former pastor here, will occupy the New England pulpit. Miss Viola Murray spent the week-end at her home in Meaford. Mr. Russell Farwell has returned from Eugeneia where he was employed for some time. Miss Helen Matthews has gone to Stayner to attend school for the winter months and to stay with her grandmother there. Mr. Eric Clark was in Owen Sound on Friday. Mrs. Clark visited with Mrs. H. Erskine at Riverdale the same afternoon. Last week we neglected to say Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lawson and son, Douglas, also attended the McFadden-Lawson nuptial at Harkaway, the bride being the former's sister. Mr. Art Lee returned from Hanover and is engaged again at the Eugenia plant.

CEYLON

Mr. and Mrs. Wickens (Mildred Risk) and Mr. and Mrs. Ward of Kimberley spent Sunday at A. S. Muir's and P. Muir's. Dr. and Mrs. G. H.
