CEYLON

The Ladies' Aid held a successful bake sale in Fiesherston on Saturday afternoon.

Wednesday evening they sponsored a social evening at the church and a good crowd attended. Rev. McMillan conducted community singing and this was followed with a violin duet by Snowden McLeod and Bob Plester, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Poper. A debate, "Resolved that women are more competent car drivers than men", produced a great deal of laughter. The affirmative was taken by Mrs. George Jaynes and John McWilliams while Snowden McLeod and J. D. Teeter attempted to prove what clever drivers the men were. The audience acted as judges by a decidedly heavy clapping announced the affirmative the winners. The "Bugginsville Uplift Society" was a smart skit put on by a number of the ladies. Those taking part were, Mrs. Earl McLeod, Mrs. Gordon Stuart, Mrs. Smilie, Lottie Whittaker, Mrs. Tom Stewart, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Dave Adams. Ostrich plumes were in evidence on all of the hats, bonnets, capes and high boots with long full skirts reminding one of the microbe sweepers of years ago. A real contrast beside the sun tan daisies of to-day. The parts were well taken and everyone enjoyed the full program. The proceeds amounted to $15.00.

The extra week-end for fishing this year no doubt will bring some good fish stories. The ideal weather made a world of difference too and we have heard of some real catches, though did not have the pleasure of sampling any.
