TRAVERSTON

Out in the morning air, 'tis all a throb and thrill, by the tractors—James Peart to the north and east and Oren D. Peart on the west. However, the hawers and geerers predominate.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCrae, Stanley and Margaret and Mrs. Joseph Atkinson of Palmerston motored up to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards on Sunday and spent the day. Mrs. Atkinson is remaining here for the summer months.

Rev. W. H. Smith of town was in the neighbourhood on Friday making pastoral calls and visiting the sick as well.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bartley's golden wedding celebration at Elbow, Sask., last week brought back many memories of this bright couple of over fifty years ago. Many of the older friends, hereabouts, join in the good wishes. Jim was one of the best threshers Glenelg ever had and his affable partner, was a splendid helper at church and social gatherings.

Zion Sunday School and Y.P.S. opened for the season on Sunday with good attendance and bright prospects. Mr. Cameron Robson heads the former, his brother Charles is president of the Y.P.S.

Hog shipments are not bringing any joy to the farmers in the money line. Packers are using all kinds of crooked tactics in cutting down returns. A dollar is allowed on selects, but a dollar and a half deducted for lights and three dollars for heavies and they shift a goodly number into either of the latter two classes. Last fall every newspaper and government officials by scores were urging farmers to grow more hogs, now, their howling like wild cats of too big a surplus. Drot the white-livered suckers!

No. 5 and No. 3 are keeping Arbor day on this Tuesday. Both clean up yards and buildings in the forenoon and then, No. 3 headed by their teacher, Miss Dorothy Ritchie, join with the pupils and teacher, Miss Durain, of No. 5, in games and contests and a big candy feast.

Mr. Clarke of the Ed. Dept. and Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, agricultural representative, are to visit No. 3 and No. 5 schools on Thursday. They are meeting with the trustees of each and are to lay out plans for beautifying the school grounds with shrubs, trees and flowers.

Zionites held a bee on Wednesday evening of last week at the cemetery, W. J. Greenwood sowed a bag of fertilizer, Joe Edwards a half bushel of timothy and the rest of the fellows levelled depressions and then all hands hauled the roller over it.

Miss Clara Jack of No. 5 near Arthur spent the week-end at the parental home and filled her old place in the choir.

Patrolmen on the 6th con., Messrs. Graham Timmins and Joe Haley have greatly improved the roads by running the grader over them and filling washed out places with fresh gravel. The back concessions now are in fine condition.
