Andy HARDY MEETS DEBUTANTE

Adapted from the Metro-Gwynn-Mayer Picture

By Beatrice Faber

SYNOPSIS:

Andy Hardy is secretly in love with Daphne Fowler, New York society's top glamour girl. He knows her only from magazine photos which he collects in a scrapbook. But Polly Bennett, with whom he has quarreled, finds out about his infatuation and scornfully tells him of it. Then, unexpectedly, Judge Hardy announces he is taking the whole family to New York for a court fight over the Carvel Orphanage Trust Fund. Now Andy must make good his boast that he knows Daphne and bring back a picture of himself with her, or he'll still make him the laughing stock of Carvel... In New York he finds little Betsy Booth, who had once visited in Carvel. She has rented an apartment for the Hardys.

CHAPTER SIX

Andy was almost in tears as he tried to struggle away from the big husky bodyguard. "But Mrs. Fowler," he pleaded, "your daughter don't need any bodyguard to protect her from me. Can't you see I'm not a kidnaper — and I haven't got any bombs or pistols? And I wouldn't do a thing to hurt Daphne — I mean Miss Fowler."

"I think I understand," Mrs. Fowler said not unkindly but with a final air. "There's been a change done, Frank, the child shown out. And see that nothing of his gets into the newspaper. 'Course on son," said the voice of Andy's mother, "I would be ignorant of anything and was ignorant of anything."

"TELL ME EVERYTHING," Andy said.

At the top of up the Drive, Andy walked around broodingly. "Yeah, it's a fine world," he said. "Back in Carvel those people waiting to laugh at my funeral — and here in New York you got coffee to cheer me up."

Hats for Midseason Wear Are Brighter

The dose of midseason millinery tones is pretty apt to be taken in strong colors. Wools in bright monochromes and crepes in bazaar-toned grays. We've seen a strapless woolen with a long tassel hanging from the top down the right side nearly to the shoulder. The latest wrinkle is to wind and twist the crepe scarf about a roomful of cushions, he let out a whoop. There was a clipping of "Daphne Fowler, President Dog-Lovers' Society."

Rise in Butter Consumption

Increase of 6,000,000 Pounds Reported in Dominion Over Last Year

At least so far as butter is concerned Canadians are moving on the fat of the land. The consumption now is up by six million pounds over its date of last year. More people are eating butter and more of it. This is regarded as an indication of better times. But the War Prices Board has started an investigation taking the form of a check-up on all butter stocks. The production was lower in September while the demand was greater.
